

Mrs. J. H. HORSNYDER, 152 Pacific Ave., Santa Cruz, Cal., writes:

"When a girl at school, in Reading, Ohio, I had a severe attack of brain fever. On my recovery, I found myself perfectly bald, and, for a long time, I feared I should be permanently so. Friends urged me to use Ayer's Hair Vigor, and, on doing so, my hair and I now have as fine a head of hair as one could wish for, being changed, however, from blonde to dark brown."

Began to Grow,

"After a fit of sickness, my hair came out in combfalls. I used two bottles of and now my hair is over a yard long and very full and heavy. I have recommended this preparation to others with like good effect."—Mrs. Sidney Carr, 1460 Regina st., Harrisburg, Pa.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for several years and always obtained satisfactory results. I know it is the best preparation for the hair that is made."—C. T. Arnett, Mammoth Spring, Ark.

—Cardigan Over Shoes for Ladies, Misses and Children are the neatest, lightest and most convenient over-shoes in the market. You can get them at T. B. JENKINS'.
—A gang from Peterboro' made an attack on Mr. Wm. O'Brien's house last week, but took nothing away with them of value, except the nice recollections of a good night's hot and thankful remembrances of the host's and hostess' entertainment.

—Sleigh Bells, in body and back straps, marked down low to suit the times. Johnston & Fair.

—Good skating on the pond these days, and one of our adolescent gallants remarks that it is greatly enhanced by the presence of the fair sex.

—Mr. John D. Armstrong was attacked with something like a paralytic stroke last week, but is greatly improved.

—Economy is the watchword. But it is false economy to allow your horses to stand shivering for want of blankets when they can be bought so cheap at T. B. JENKINS'.

—The Underwriters inspector was in town on Saturday and called out the brigade. His report will no doubt be before the council in due course and be given earnest attention.

—Mrs. Ira Nattrass and son have returned from the Queen City, where they have spent about three weeks among friends.

—Special prices given in car load lots of Land Plaster at W. THEXTON'S. Leave your order at once.

—Johnston & Fair, hardware dealers, are offering the Toronto Blade, Invincible and Premier cross cut saws, all of which are warranted, at greatly reduced prices.

—Dr. H. A. Turner is again able to be at the office, although that la grippe seems still to have a slight grip on him.

—The minutes of Cavan township council came to hand to late for this issue, but will appear next week.

—Have you tried the Cardigan over-shoe. For comfort and convenience they are unsurpassed. T. B. JENKINS'.

—The girl that took hold of the wrong arm coming out of church on Sunday evening, shouldn't have felt so frustrated, no harm done.

—Who says we are not going to have sleighing for Xmas? But what is a sleigh ride without Bells and Robes, T. B. JENKINS is the outfitter in these lines.

—Fireman's concert on Feb. 13th, to pay balance on bell. Mind the date and look out for large bills.

—Mr. Arthur McQuade, ex-M. P., for South Victoria, passed over and joined the great majority on Sunday evening.

—County council meets in Cobourg this week, Reeve Ferguson of the village, and the Reeves and Deputies, Thorndyke and Donaldson of Cavan, and Preston and Barnicutt and Vance of Manvers, are away.

—The school board have opened the station school. We have expressed our opinion on the question before, but may still remark that while the cost will not be much, since it is a transfer of teachers, we cannot see the reason or necessity of it.

—The minstrel concert and side-splitting entertainment will probably be later than announced last week on account of the extra programme under way. Look out for it about the latter part of February.

—Inspector R. R. Elliott of the Independent order of Foresters, who has been on a tour of inspection in the eastern part of the province, during the past three weeks, instituted a new court of the order at Westport last Friday evening.

—The Bethany Dramatic club are preparing a grand evening's entertainment in the town hall there on Jan. 26, in aid of St. Pauls church, "The Deacon," a play full of fun and pathos, will be presented by talent of acknowledged ability. Let those who can, turn out and appreciate their efforts, by giving them a bumper. house.

—We renewed acquaintance on Friday last, with Mr. Bignal, a commercial traveller, and friend of days gone by, and in conversation with him, and also with a dry goods drummer previously, they both have great praise for the business aptitude and courtesy of our merchants when making purchases. They know what they want and buy it without the usual bantering and fiddling indulged in by so many merchants. Nothing like doing business on business principles.

—Dr. Sexton preached in the Methodist and Presbyterian churches on Sunday last and was as usual interesting and instructive. On Monday he gave a lecture in the town hall on the subject of his passage from the christian pulpit to infidelity and back again. This lecture was excellent and it was a pity so few availed themselves of it. The question drawer was amusing and dipped into subjects scarcely scriptural such as Home Rule, the P. P. A., etc., but the Dr. was ready with replies that showed his reading not confined to one theme. He is staying at Mr. R. W. Clarke's.

—Our cotems the World and Sentinel Star of the counties' town seem to be crossing swords in the "your another" fashion, and before this they may have settled it "a la" Hughes-Kylie. Now we had some sympathy for our brother of the fourth estate when he got walloped by a plebeian reeve, and had thought of shouldering our mallet and running to the rescue of Sam, but what to do with members of the high honorable quill profession we are stuck.
