The junior choir Byng Whitteker makes like ten-minute practice was folunder the direction of George he's going to catch a three- lowed by Whitteker's having Bedford sang "The Snow Lay yard forward made by Steve to use three bottles of linament, on the Ground".

For the subject of his sermon Mr. Chisholm chose "Number- Since God was the habitation Master of Durham Lodge A.F. found in Psalm 90 verse12 "So teach us to number our days! that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom". He told the stery of a young man who came home from church complaining to his father of the lack of taste of the hymns sung and of the poor quality of the tunes. His father said "Well men coming and going passed give us something better then" which the young man, Isaac Watts, proceeded to de. He produced a stream of new hymns one for each service. So it was the hymn "O God Our Help in Ages Past" came to be written. It was composed in 1714 at the time of the death of Queen Anne at a time of national crisis. The hymn based on the 90th psalm became the national anthem of the church -its greatest hymn. It dealt with the temporary character of man's existence. Life was the past . Only to a child does brief, its moments precious and! the summer seem to last fornot to be wasted in meaningever, and the time from Christless and purposeless pursuits.
