HAPPY NEW YEAR, FRED!

Even attractive Joan Fairfax has difficulty persuading C.B.'s Toronto sportscaster Fred Sgambati to forget his blues and join the party. But Fred has every right to be in the dumps—1958 proved a most unsuccessful year for Toronto's professional sports teams.

Vote of thanks on behalf of Lodge to R. W. Sister Johnston and her assisting officers was extended by Sister Anna Thompson.

OLDEST RESIDENT FALLS, BREAKS HER HIP

Mrs. Jane Robinson, 95 years of age, Millbrook's oldest resident, slipped on the ice at her home last week and broke her hip. She was on the verandah at the time and fortunately was able to work her way back into the house. She was taken to Peterborough Civic Hospital for treatment, where her condition is reported to be satisfactory considering her age.

Mrs. Robinson is our oldest subscriber, closely followed by Mr. J. C. McRoberts of Peterborough, formerly of South Monaghan.

Sunday Morning At St. Andrew's Church

On Sunday morning at St. Andrew's, January 4th, 1959, a special New Year's message from Rev. A. Steed of Peterborough, who is to be our supply pastor for the next several months until other permanent arrangements can be made, was given. He stated that he would be on call 24 hours in the day, seven days in the week, if needed. His address is: Rev. J. Arthur Steed, 612 Centre Street, Peterborough, and his telephone R1 5-9234. We were glad to have Mrs. Steed with us also.

Scripture lesson 1st. Samuel 15:3, 7-28. Text 1st. Samuel 15: "And the Lord sent thee on a journey, and said, go and utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites; wherefor then didst thou not obey the voice of the Lord, but didst fly upon the spoil?" And Saul said, "Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the Lord, . . . but the people took the spoil, sheep and oxen, to sacrifice unto the Lord thy God." And Samuel said "To obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams." 1st. Samuel 15: 22, 23. Samuel grieved over Saul, the great man now rejected. His duty now was to forget Saul, and get on with his work as King.

What a Christian should forget, will be dealt with the next two Sundays, in the light of the words of St. Paul, Philippians 3:13 and 14 "Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended; but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." 1st. Corinthians 15:20, But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept. Christians need to remember that. "Let not your heart be troubled. . . where I am, there's the future for the Christian."—John 14, verse 3.

HOW TO BEAT A SKID — If you're going too fast when you skid, the car won't always respond to the wheel. When in doubt — slow down! If you start to skid, turn the front wheels in the direction of the skid. Don't brake and don't accelerate. Remember skidding is more apt to occur when the temperature is about 32 degrees than when it's colder.

REMEMBER, YOU NEED MORE ROOM! Leave lots of room between your car and the one ahead — you'll need extra stopping space under winter conditions. Wintertime is the time when road courtesy is most essential—give the other drivers a break! Snowbanks or drifting snow may conceal stalled vehicles, hidden driveways, intersections and pedestrians.

Safety-conscious all the time.
And they'll make it to nineteen sixty
By taking care in fifty-nine.
