TOWN TALK

—Miss Mamie Mason of Elmvale is visiting Mrs. S. Bateson.

—Rev. Mr. Gee, a former pastor of the Millbrook Methodist church is dead.

—Mr. James Byers of Vankleek Hill is paying his relatives a visit here.

—Miss Mary Sing has returned from Wisconsin and is visiting Mrs. S. Bateson.

—Messrs. T. B. Collins, Robert Shaw and Jos. Thornkyke attended the County Orange Lodge at Port Hope Tuesday.

—During the year 1892 the number of registrations in Millbrook was, births, 17; marriages, 10, deaths, 9.

—The county lodge of the Patrons of Industry met in the town hall here on Tuesday.

—A blizzard struck this neighborhood last Thursday night. It was an awful night for driving.

—Candlemas day was bright, and it is therefore presumed that we will have six weeks more of wintry weather.

—You can have your rubbers and overshoes neatly repaired at Archer's. Also rubber cement for sale.

—Mr. J. J. Preston, Bethany was in town on Tuesday en route to Port Hope to attend the County Orange Lodge.

—Court Centreville, Independent Order of Foresters, will hold its regular meetings on the third Thursday of each month.

—R. J. Doak has secured the control of the Premier razor steel cross-cut saw, which is a world beater. Every one warranted. Try one.

—The mercury was down cellar again last Saturday, looking for the potatoes that escaped the effects of the previous cold snap. The thermometer registered 15° below zero.

—I am selling coal at a reduced price for cash for the balance of the season. My coal is good. Shingles and lime cheaper than ever before. W. THEXTON.

—Salt combine broken up through the united efforts of myself and R. E. Stanton. Now for cheap salt. First car load to arrive in about a week. Special prices to those taking a quantity. W. THEXTON.

—It is said that the Rev. D. N. McCamus of Fenelon Falls has been invited to become the pastor of the Millbrook Methodist church and that he has accepted, subject to the approval of conference.

—Overgaiters for ladies are now considered the correct thing to wear over their boots in place of the old clumsy overshoe. They are light, warm, neat and stylish. You can get them at T. B. Jenkins', at prices within the reach of all.

—A number of friends gathered at the residence of Mr. W. Mitchell on Wednesday of last week, to witness the marriage of Miss Minnie Mitchell to Mr. A. R. Cook of Brandon, Man. Ven Archdeacon Allen officiated, and the groom was supported by Mr. Thos Wallace of Toronto, while Miss Anderson acted as bridesmaid. A number of handsome and valuable presents were presented to the bride, among which was an album and photo group of her Sunday school class and a bible and hymn book from her teacher. The couple left for their home in the west, carrying with them the best wishes of their many friends.

—A special meeting of the directors of the East Durham and Cavan Agricultural societies will be held at the town hall, Millbrook, on Wednesday, Feb. 15th, at two o'clock p.m. A full attendance is requested.

—The Cobourg World is now published as a semi-weekly having adopted the new style last week. The World is a good paper though quite a rabid grit, and we wish its enterprising publishers an abundance of success in their new series.

—Messrs. Wm. Moull and H. Rines and Miss Rines, who are known as the Crusaders, opened a series in the town hall last evening under the auspices of Millbrook Council of the Royal Templars of Temperance.

—Rev. W. C. Allen preached in St. John's ward mission church, Peterboro, on Sunday, and in consequence there was no service in St. Thomas' church here in the evening. He also addressed a missionary meeting there on Wednesday evening.

—Mr. Watson Wallace, stone-mason and bricklayer, has returned to Millbrook and will be pleased to take contracts for work in the town or country. Mr. Wallace is well known and everybody knows that his work is first-class. Give him a call.

—Great change of prices for thirty days, commencing on Thursday, February 9. Will allow a discount of fifteen per cent. off for cash on Cross-cut Saws and Axes. Don't fail to secure one of our celebrated Premier, Forest Beauties or Invincible Saws. All of which are warranted. R. J. DOAK.

—The second fancy dress carnival of the season will be held in the Millbrook Skating rink on Tuesday next, when appropriate prizes will be offered for competition as follows: 1, Gentleman's best fancy costume; 2, Lady's best fancy costume; 3, Gentleman's most comic costume; 4, Lady's most comic costume; 5, Boy's fancy costume; 6, Girl's fancy costume; 7, Boy's race (under 12); 8, Girl's race (under 12); 9, Most awkward skater; 10, Best clown. Parties from Lindsay, Port Hope and Peterboro' have signified their intention to take part in the sports, and arrangements will be made for a grand curling match. All parties in costume must leave cards stating the character represented with the door keeper. The ice will be open to all skaters at 8:45 p. m. The citizens band will be in attendance.

—Mrs. W. C. Allen and Miss Turner attended a meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary at Cobourg last week. The secretary reported 79 adult and 35 junior branches, also 41 life members in the Toronto diocese. The Dorcas secretary reported the sending out of 158 bales and also supplies for several Christmas trees since the annual meeting in May last. The treasurer's report showed $4,670.64 in cash for various mission funds during the same period. The statement of the secretary for junior branches was read in her absence by Mrs. T. W. Howard, and showed much good work being done by the children. Verbal reports of the work of the different branches were given, which were very encouraging, after which the president gave an address to the workers concerning the aims and objects of the work. A very instructive paper on the missionary work of the church in foreign lands, written by Mrs. Davidson, formerly of Colborne, was read in her absence by the secretary, and was followed by a delightful address on "Enthusiasm," by Mrs. T. G. Wood, of Toronto.

—The Home Circle held a very successful and enjoyable social in their hall on Tuesday evening. The admission was by invitation and there was a very large attendance of ladies and gentlemen. The chair was most ably filled by Mr. W. Archer. The proceedings were opened by the singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers," after which prayer was offered by Chaplain Jenkins. The excellent programme was then commenced, the first part of which was as follows:—

Song..... "White Squall"
 G. W. H. Anderson
 Cornet Duet..... "Pilot Brave."
 Messrs. Duncan and Trew.
 Song..... "The Song that Reached My Heart."
 Miss Ethel Richardson.
 Address..... R. R. Elliot
 Club Singing..... Mr. W. W. Gillott
 Duet..... "Alice, where Art Thou."
 Miss Browne and Mr. R. Chambers.

Refreshments were then served, and the guests were given abundant opportunity of testing the excellent culinary abilities of the lady members of the circle. Cakes, Sandwiches etc., and coffee were among the good things passed around, and that they were good we are prepared to testify. The second part of the programme was opened with the old, favorite song, "Afton Water," by Mr. Robt. Chambers, whose excellent voice did it justice, receiving hearty applause. Mr. P. M. Pattison of Toronto, the supreme organizer and the founder of the order, was called upon and he delivered a very interesting address upon the subject of society insurance as distinguished from the company system, and he went fully into the details of the Home Circle plan. A cornet duet by Messrs Duncan and Trew, entitled "Whispering Hope," was very well rendered, and Rev. Mr. Young was called upon for a speech, which he delivered in his usual eloquent style. At the conclusion of the rev. gentleman's address, "God save the Queen" was sung and the proceedings terminated.

—The Lindsay Wardar says: Mr. William Fallis of Plum Creek, Man., formerly of Cavan, is visiting old friends in Durham and Victoria counties. Mrs. James McLean of Ops, and Mrs. James Martin of this town are daughters of Mr. Fallis. During the past season Mr. Fallis, who is farming, threshed over 9,000 bushels of grain and did not consider it anything extraordinary. He is well pleased with the prairie province.

—Two rinks of the Millbrook curling club went to Peterboro on Wednesday of last week to play for the tankard, but they did not get even a smell of it. The scores are as follows:—

Mr. John Gillott applied for the use of the town hall on behalf of the Royal Templars of Temperance, for three nights for temperance meetings. He said that they were willing to use their own coal oil and wood, and do all the work necessary to prepare it and would clean it out afterwards, so that the town would be at no expense whatever. On this understanding the use of the hall was granted free of charge. Mr. Wm. Vance applied for a reduction of taxes on a vacant house on King-st. He said the law provided for a reduction in such a case. The matter was laid on the table till the next meeting for consideration. It was reported that Mill-st. was blocked with snow, and Mr. Campbell was instructed to have the necessary work done upon it so as to keep it clear for traffic.

Oh, What a Cough!
 Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that most terrible disease consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. 25-29
