MOUNT PLEASANT.

The township of Cavan S. school convention met in the Presbyterian church on Tuesday last. Deputations were present from Millbrook, Cavanville, Matchetts, Ebensers, Fairmont, and Zion. At 2.30 p. m. with President Hicks in the chair, the meeting was opened and throughout both sessions the orders of business were carried through with a cheerful liveliness that added much pleasure to their very instructive and entertaining character. After the election of officers for the new year, Mr. H. Staples of Cavan, the president elect, filled the capacity of chairman in a very creditable manner. A short talk on the S. S. teacher of the past compared with the present, led by Mr. James McLean brought forth a lively discussion.
The Rev. W. G. Clarke's paper on "The Sabbath School Teacher between Sabbaths," was a thoroughly practical and meritorious essay and was listened to very attentively and with marked appreciation. Mr. R. W.
Clarke showed an unlimited and superior knowledge about Sunday school management in his answers of the questions sent in through the medium of the "question drawer." The billeting committee gave complimentaries to about 45 delegates for tea.
The absence of the Eves, J. Kilgour and J.
A. Bloodsworth whose names were down opposite important subjects, was a matter of regret, but fortune who favors the brave and the willing, found an able substitute for the former in Rev. W. H. Cook and for the latter in Dr. Mark. Rev. D. N. McCannus of Millbrook concluded the evening session with an address on "Home influences their relation to the S. school." The Rev. gentleman gave it in such a pleasingly eloquent style and brought out such an amount of simple, practical truths that the whole assemblage was loud in commendation of his efforts. Secretary S. W. Clarke in his affable manner, gave the ministers a joke and announced that a good collection of eight dollars had been taken up. Mrs. Dr.
Mark and Miss Jennie Graham sang a solo each which met with great appreciation.
After the usual votes of thanks and singing, the meeting was closed by prayer offered by Rev. Clarke.

Mr. J. D. Denny is confined to his room by La Grippe.
The Rev. Mr. Thompson of Hastings preached a very impressive and practical sermon in the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening. The congregation may extend a call to him.

The beautiful has arrived in such quantities that we fear our skating is spoiled, however we hope to make amends by the delightful re-appearance of the sleighs and the merry jingling of the bells.

Mr. Wm. Smith, our esteemed vulcan, has battled with la grippe for a season and looks worsted. We are pleased to see him out again. May his shadow never grow less.

Mr. Robert Bloxom, bag and baggage, has removed from our midst. The community loses an old landmark, a devoted compatriot who attached more interest to himself than a brother would.

LEFFORD.

Mrs. McKee of this place who has been ailing for some time is improving slowly, but owing to her advanced years her medical attendant had very little hope of her recovery.

Mr. John Dundas and Wesley Galloway, to of our young men are cutting wood every day. They have taken the contract from Mr. H. H. Tims. They say they can beat the old pioneers with either axe or saw. It is very pleasant to the musical ear to hear I cannot sing the old song, etc. of the old saw.
Mr. Stephen Sisson has rented his farm to his brother, William, and intends moving to Bethany, where he intends to carry on his agency for P. Hamilton, Peterboro.

We wish him success but it would look as if farming was not a profitable business.
Mr. H. Tims our popular carpenter has rented the fifty acres belonging to neighbor McKee. I wonder how Harry will succeed in sowing and reaping the golden grain.

Miss Annie Wilson has returned to Lindsay, where she has been attending the collegiate for the past six months, and also Mr. Geo. Peters, who is studying for a second.
