Catarrh, Heart Failure, Paralysis of the Throat

"I Thank God and Hood's Sarsaparilla for Perfect Health."

"Gentlemen: For the benefit of suffering humanity I wish to state a few facts: For several years I have suffered from catarrh and heart failure, getting so bad I could not work and could scarcely walk."

I had a very bad spell of paralysis of the throat some time ago. My throat seemed closed and I could not swallow. The doctors said it was caused by heart failure, and gave medicine, which I took according to directions, but it did not seem to do me any good. My wife urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, telling me of Mr. Joseph C. Smith, who had been

At Death's Door

but was entirely cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. After talking with Mr. Smith, I concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. When I had taken two bottles I felt very much better. I have continued taking it, and am now feeling excellent. I thank God, and

Hood's Sarsaparilla
and my wife for my restoration to perfect health. HARVEY HEED, Laceyville, O.

THE HOME CIRCLE SOCIAL.

The evening's entertainment given by the Home Circle membership in their hall on Monday night was well attended notwithstanding the excessive storm. Mr. W. Archer, Leader of No. 6 Millbrook, occupied the chair, and he certainly makes a model chairman, for if he does happen to lose his grip by a slip of the tongue he can catch on again with perfect composure. The Rev. W. R. Young of Peterboro gave an address on the different kinds of spectacles we look through, which was well received, and Mr. Nixon of Toronto took up the advantages and necessities of the order in a speech delivered with the ease and arrangement of points, acquired by oft repetition, although in his dates he was always ten years back. His object was to place before the audience the desirability of having such protection, as the Home Circle affords to the heads of families in the uncertain journey of life and by apt illustration and pertinent incident, he placed the subject in a light well calculated to call forth the best opinions of the order. It may not be out of place for us in reporting Monday evening's entertainment, to add our expressions of interest and wishes of Godspeed to this and similar institutions whose great and only objects are the alleviation of distress, the protection of the widow and the orphan and the social and material advantages supplied by that strength of union which fraternity places within the reach of such society membership. We are too apt to turn on our heel at necessities' call, saying, depart in peace be ye warmed and fed" unmindful of the fact, or ignorant of the divine message, that it is more blessed to give than to receive, while fraternal and benevolent teachings step forward to say, "Is he not after all my brother?" He is an enemy of his race who does not care for its welfare and is wedded to selfishness and greed. Press onward Canadian Home Circle and all kindred organizations, until the world over "man to man shall brother be and he only is recognized a brother indeed, who delivers to the needy when he crieth and him that hath no helper. This is practical christianity and being such, should be recognized and aided by the church in their errand of mercy. This is the divine sermon preached by Moses, more potent than the pulpit oratory of a Talmage or a Farrar, when he left a royal court and became an exile in the wilderness, and having led his people to liberty and national greatness, died, without entering into that promised land which became the portion of his ungrateful brethren. This is the text elaborated in the life of Saul of Tarsus when he counted all the worldly gain and prominence which his learning and ability forshadowed, as dross, so that he might gain the prize and carry the gospel to the Gentiles, through trials by sea and land, through stripes, and imprisonments, to death itself. The musical part of the programme was replete with duets (no quartets or perhaps that is not right, say octettes, or ask the chairman) solos and cornet duets, by different members of the circle and members of the church choirs. The refreshments provided by the lady members of the circle had two good features quality and quantity but we were something like Pat, who, on being invited out to dinner, took so much of the good things in the first course that he was unable to take a good hand in the better delicacies which came on afterwards. We will learn with Pat's bitter experience however, to fight shy of the first round hereafter even should we suffer the gnawings of an empty maw by their being no second spread.

HOOPER TO BE TRIED

Again in June—Bail Refused.

Three Rivers, Feb. 10.—J. R. Hooper was committed to stand his trial at the next term of the Court of Queen's Bench on the charge of having attempted to murder his wife by throwing her into the river at Louiseville. Judge Barthe rendered that decision yesterday afternoon. The accused entered the court room at 2:05, and immediately after Judge Barthe took his seat. The Clerk of the peace presented the transcript of the depositions; the accused dispensed with the reading of the same. Hooper pleaded not guilty of the charge brought against him. Mr. Cook applied that bail be granted the accused and read an affidavit sworn to by him that Hooper was and is in ill health. Certificates from Doctors Cassons, Kilborn, Boulette and Panneton were read which established his ill health. The Crown, represented by Mr. Denyncourt, opposed the granting of bail. Bail was refused.

LITERARY NOTES.

—The issue of the Delinctor for March is the great "Spring Announcement Number," and in its artistic display of New Styles and general attractiveness it is superior to any former number of this popular magazine. In addition to the usual entertaining reading there are several new features noticed this month, one being an original and decidedly fascinating Scarf Drill that will be immensely popular. Another is the resumption of the articles on the Uses of Crepe and Tissue papers, with illustrations; and a third is the first of the promised series of papers on Hygienic Living. The House-keeper is specially considered in Some Dainty Cookery, Hints to Housewives, and the article on Household Renovation which treats of the Repairing and Polishing of the Woodwork of Furniture; while the mother of marriageable daughters will find food for serious thought in the concluding chapter of Child Life. The second instalment of Gesture in Elocution continues the subject in a masterly way. Novel and interesting forms for entertainments that are agreeable and inexpensive are discussed in A Social Club. Around the Tea-Table is as bright and chatty as usual, and Things That Ought Not to be said is practically and suggestively valuable. There is also Flower Culture for the month, and new and interesting designs in Knitting, Tatting, Netting, Crocheting, etc., etc. The March number is one of the best of the year with which to begin a subscription, which cost One Dollar; Single Copies, 15 cents. Address orders to The Delinctor Publishing Co. of Toronto (Ltd.), 33 Richmond Street West, Toronto, Ontario.
