The February meeting of the Womens Guild of St. Thomas' Church, Millbrook, was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. T. A. Campbell, with a good attendance.

The president, Miss Kent, opened the meeting with prayer. The secretary, Mrs. Fred Lowery read the minutes of the last meeting which were approved. Treasurer, Mrs. Fowler, gave her report which showed a substantial balance on hand. Mrs. H. A. Turner, card secretary, reported sending four cards to the sick.

Mrs. F. Lowery convener of the drapery committee reported they had bought material for five pairs of drapes and had the same made up and hung in the rectory. A letter of appreciation was read from the Rector and his wife Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Quinn.

Seen on King Street During The Week

A child's shoe on the sidewalk. Evidence that some youngster was either scared out of its boots at some of the dogs that roam the streets, or in a big hurry to go some place.

Editor of the Cobourg Sentinel-Star, Foster Russell and son, having a conference with Reeve Geo. F. Harrington and Mrs. Harrington. This was on Sunday and we were pleased to note that Mr. Russell knew us even though we had our Sunday clothes on.

Mr. James Albert Smith doing some kind of a circus act on the icy road Saturday morning. In fact he sliced off most of the cedar trees between the Millbrook Creamery and Bremner's Garage as though he had had a huge scythe to do the work with. Of course it was his car that did the neat job.

A large number of rubber necks including "yours truly" watching cars trying to make the hill during the freezing rain. Great sport if you're not driving the car, but quite different when it happens to you.

Miss Ida Williams one of our local health nurses with a small stew tin in her hand all ready to stop and cook herself some gruel to warm herself up in case another cold snap should bob up.

A couple of lads with an air rifle shooting at a squirrel high up on a tree branch near Miss Hetherington's home. The determined lads fired over 2000 shots at the little fellow, but could not chase him from his high bobbing perch. We wonder if the marksman failed to realize that their air rifle shots were falling short of their mark, or were they practising for the next Olympic games after hearing that a Windsor young man had won the gold medal in Australia last fall.

PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE
Will be held in the Legion Hall on Thursday, February 21, at 8.30 under auspices of Ladies' Auxiliary to Canadian Legion Branch No. 402, Millbrook. A draw for an 8 pound chicken will be held. Prizes—Lunch. Everyone welcome. Admission

Obituary

Mrs. Ada B. Armstrong

Entered into rest, at Civic Hospital, Peterborough, Saturday, February 9th, 1957, Ada B. Smith, Frasersville R.R. 1, beloved wife of the late John M. Armstrong, dear mother of John D., Frasersville R.R., Mrs. Ernest J. Powell (Jessie) Millbrook, Kenneth, Frasersville R.R., Ross, Peterborough, and Gerald, Frasersville R.R.

In her passing, our community has lost a very splendid woman, beloved by all who knew her.

Her pastor, Rev. W. H. Heustin of Grace Presbyterian Church, conducted her funeral service on Monday, February 11, at the Haw Funeral Home, Millbrook, basing his remarks on the text, "Thanks be unto God for His unspeakable gifts" which he felt included such a fine mother, whose Christian Faith enabled her to be a source of inspiration, solace and comfort to many troubled souls, and whose regular attendance and active participation in her church services, and its women's group undertakings, was much appreciated. She was a life-member of Grace W.M.S.

Besides her immediate family she is survived by four grandchildren, Nancy and Karen Powell, Sharon and Allen Armstrong; and five sisters Mrs. W. W. Kennedy, Mrs. H. J. Goss, Mrs. F. Hannah, and Mrs. H. Bray, Bewdley Ontario, Mrs. F. Kennedy, Regina, Sask.; and three brothers Mr. Fred J. Smith, Carl J. Smith and Hector Smith, Port Hope.

The many floral tributes, and the large attendance at the service, testified to the high esteem in which she and her family are held.

Interment was in Millbrook Presbyterian Cemetery, with Messrs. Budd Goss, Bewdley, Bill Smith, Port Hope, John Armstrong, Toronto, Sandy Theobald, Brockville, Stanley Cann, Peterborough, Richard Wood, Millbrook, the pallbearers. E. L. H.

PETERBOROUGH SKATING CLUB PLEASES CROWD

The carnival held Monday night was a big success as far as the skating exhibition put on by a number of the Peterborough Skating Club members was concerned. Our own local girl, Helen Wright, who belongs to this club, performed with them and was right up there with the rest of the skaters as far as ability on the blades was concerned. After an hour of this splendid show, the crowd was treated to a fine exhibition hockey match between the local E.P.L. team and Stoney's Junior Petes from Peterborough.

This game proved without question that fans who have not been attending the E.P.L. games are the ones who are missing out, as the quality of hockey played is high class and fast. The pros. and modern coaches of National League tactics style being in evidence, as passing the puck has become much more common than in past years.

The local boys, short their scoring ace Ted McDowell, were beaten 6 to 1, but put up a fine game against the more experienced visitors, and if good luck around the nets had favoured them instead of the visitors there may have been a different result. Both goalies excelled themselves, as close in and long shots were again and again turned away empty handed by both net minders, however, you cannot stop them all, and after a scoreless first period the Stoney's were able to count 2 in the second go, giving them a good advantage in starting the third period, in which they scored 4 to our 1, which gave the visitors the biscuit by 6 to 1.
A very large number turned out to see the two worthy exhibitions.
