

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER
DREW FINE NUMBER

The World Day of Prayer was held on Friday afternoon, March 8th, in St. Andrew's United Church. Mrs. David Lunn president of St. Andrew's afternoon auxiliary gave the welcome and led in the opening part of the service. Mrs. W. H. Heustin president of Grace Presbyterian W.M.S., Mrs. Reg. Fallis president of St. Thomas' Anglican Church W. A., and Mrs. Lavern Gibson of St. Andrew's Mission Circle also led in certain sections.

The Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Arthur Fallis. Other readings were given by Mrs. Johnston Rowland, Mrs. Bev. Reid and Mrs. Dean Cutmore.

Mrs. B. E. Ingham told of what the theme "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ" had meant to St. Paul and to other early saints, what it meant today to men and women behind the iron and bamboo curtains, and to people in all other parts of the world. She told also of how world days of prayer offerings were used to help the physically handicapped, to teach the illiterate and supply good reading material.

Mrs. G. A. Spicer sang "The Prayer Perfect" accompanied at the piano by Miss Augusta Clarry.

Leading in prayers for the church, for the Queen, for peace, for freedom, and for forgiveness, were Mrs. F. P. Chisholm, Mrs. H. C. Quinn, Mrs. H. A. Turner, Mrs. Walter Patterson and Mrs. John Thompson.

The offering was received by Mrs. M. E. Hobbs and Mrs. Johnston Rowland.

Mrs. H. C. Quinn was hostess to the Women's Auxiliary of St. Thomas' Anglican Church Monday evening at the Rectory.

There was a good attendance. Mrs. Reginald Fallis, the president was in the chair, and opened the meeting with the W.A. Litany and the prayers. Mrs. Quinn gave the Scripture reading. In the absence of Mrs. Douglas Shepard, Mrs. T. A. Campbell acted as secretary and read the minutes of the last meeting which were approved.

Miss Muriel Smith, treasurer, reported a balance on hand. Reporting for the quilting committee Miss Ellen Kent said two quilts had been finished and one baby quilt started.

Announcement was made of slides on the Study Book, "South East from Burma" at the next meeting, April 15th in the Parish Hall, and it was decided to invite the W.A. branch from St. John's Church, Ida, also the W.A. branch from Christ Church, Bailieboro, to attend.

A motion was passed to ask each member of our branch to bring knitted goods, or baby articles or something for the sale, to the next meeting. It was announced an invitation was received from the W.M.S. of the United Church to attend their meeting in the Church Hall April 17th.

There will be a special speaker. Plans were discussed for the sales table and cafeteria April 27th when the Women's Auxiliary, the Women's Guild of St. Thomas' Church, the Girl Guides, the Brownies, Scouts and Cubs will hold a benefit for each organization in the Waiting Room. Mrs. Campbell read a chapter from the Study Book.

Mrs. Carrie O'Donnell was welcomed after an absence from the meetings for several weeks, due to illness.

The Rector, Rev. H. C. Quinn, P.A., L.th., closed the meeting with prayer.

The supper hostesses were Mrs. Campbell and Miss Laura Crocker.

EASTER SEALS

Rotarians, Lions, Kiwanians and the rest of the service club members always seem to be busy attending luncheon meetings and conventions and playing practical jokes on one another in hotel lobbies.

But . . . behind all their "madness" is a method. And for some 35 years they have been so dedicated to helping the handicapped child that they have become, as one official of the Ontario Society for Crippled Children put it, "the backbone of our work."

Without the backing of Ontario's 218 service clubs and their all-out promotion of the annual Easter Seal sale, the Society and its great and complex work could not function. It was back in Windsor, Ont., in 1922 when a few physicians and surgeons with the members of 10 service clubs became appalled at the number of untended cases of crippled children in Ontario and decided to do something positive about it. They formed the Ontario Society for Crippled Children which today needs $700,000 to properly look after its growing case load of some 11,000 handicapped youngsters across the province.

Months before Easter, in every city, village and hamlet where a service club exists, members start whipping up enthusiasm as only service club men can do. Using Easter Seals at their media, they flood the mails with them and tirelessly follow through with their local canvasses until the final goal is reached.

Service club members comprise nearly 100 per cent of the Society's directorate . . . the committees of the Society's five summer camps are service club members . . . the orthopaedic surgeons who spend untold hours operating on crippled children's legs and arms are mostly service club men.

Small wonder, then, that the service clubs and the Society operate in a sort of partnership and that the whole affair is dedicated to a rehabilitation programme second to none in the world.
