VISITED REFORMATORY

On Wednesday of last week the Reeves, Deputy-Reeves and their wives, of Durham and Northumberland Counties, were taken on an inspection tour of the new Millbrook reformatory. Between 75 and 100 attended.

Barnett and Reider the architects, entertained the guests to a luncheon served buffet style, held in the administration section of the institution.

We are of the opinion that as nice and all as it is, they are all satisfied with their own place of abode

The last progressive euchre for this season will be held at the Legion Hall, sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion, on Thursday, April 4th, at 8.30 p.m.

These parties have been quite a success, and a larger than usual number is expected to attend this last game.

At the previous entertainment of this sort the following were the prize winners—Ladies' first—Mrs. Herbert Bremner.

Ladies' Second—Mrs. L. Armstrong (nee Margaret Guthrie).

Men's first—Mr. Fred Challice Men's second—Mr. Milton Challice.

The basket of groceries donated by Marshall's Grocery was won by Mrs. Geo. Raper.

Large Number At Banquet, Honour Warden Hooton

Lloyd A. Hooton, appointed Warden of the United Counties of Durham and Northumberland in January, had a banquet given in his honour Friday evening, March 22nd in the Cavan Community Hall, which was attended by Ex-Wardens, Reeves and Council members of the various municipalities throughout the United Counties.

Mr. Hooton who follows his uncle, George Hooton who was made Warden in 1931, is the second warden to be appointed from Cavan Township in 26 years.

Mr. Hooton has filled various offices in the Council of Cavan since 1946 when he became a member. He was deputy reeve in 1951 and reeve in 1954.

He is the son of the late Mark Hooton and Mrs. Hooton of Cavan Township. The Hootons are one of the first pioneer families of the Township.

Deputy-Reeve J. H. McKnight was chairman for the evening. Guests at the head table included the Hon. Major John Foote, V.C., M.P.P. and Mrs. Foote; John James, M.P.; Delbert Olan, former Reeve of Cavan and Mrs. Olan; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnston, Cobourg; Mrs. Mark Hooton, Warden Hooton's mother and Mrs. Lloyd Hooton; Deputy-Reeve J. H. McKnight and Mrs. McKnight; The Rev. A. E. Larke and Mrs. Larke; Mr. and Mrs. Garnett Rickard and Mrs. Zella M. Bentley.

Mr. Olan welcomed the guests. A toast to the Dominion of Canada was proposed by Garnet Rickard and responded to by John James, M.P. Victor Wilson proposed a toast to the Province of Ontario which was responded to by Major Foote. Charles Johnston, Cobourg, proposed a toast to the United Counties which was responded to by Warden Hooton. Mr. F. Bedford proposed a toast to the ladies and Mrs. Bentley responded.

Mrs. Alex Miller of Peterborough gave two readings A. Matchett, F. Carr, Ray Stewart and R. White contributed several quartette selections and Mrs. Lawrence Winslow sang two solos. The presentation of a bouquet of roses each to Mrs. Hooton Sr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hooton was made by Mrs. Donald Cathcart and Mrs. Harold Bradburn. Mrs. Lloyd Hooton thanked the assembly. Harold Bradburn read an address of congratulations and good wishes to Warden Hooton and Donald Cathcart presented him with a leather club bag. The Warden expressed his thanks.

Hearty thanks were extended to the ladies of the Cavan branch of the Women's Institute who catered for the banquet.—Examiner.

Don't know if they are going to pipe Western natural gas into Millbrook or not, but we did see a large truck load of pipe go by our shop.

Enough of the winter's accumulation of dirt to make another continent. But just wait awhile, when the sweepers get through with it and the streets flushed by the firemen, you won't be able to find enough to fill a flower pot.
