

Sunday Morning At St. Andrew's

Rev. Dr. Steed was again in charge, and had a special message for the members of the Home and School Association who worshipped with us, and to all parents and teachers.

The Scripture basis was Gen. 27:6-29, which he read from Moffatt's translation, in modern language. This story pictures for us, Mother Rebecca who makes a favorite of her second son Jacob, and proposes to him a strategy of deceit, whereby he wins for himself, from his sick and aged father, the "Blessing" that was the right of his brother Esau, Genesis 27:26-29.

"I wonder what it's all about?" says Arthur J. Reaume, Liberal MPP for Essex West, as he looks over reproduction of 37-foot mural that is to be feature decoration of Ontario Hydro's new Robert H. Saunders - St. Lawrence generating station. This photographic reproduction was used by Mr. Reaume in his speech to the Ontario Legislature Wednesday when he attacked the spending of $10,000 on a "meaningless" mural. He called it "typical of Hydro waste and extravagance."

determined to slay him. Hearing this, Rebecca warned Jacob saying "arise, flee thou to Leban, my brother, to Haran, and tarry with him until thy brother's fury is turned away". Jacob's stop in Haran lasted for over 14 years, 7 of which he served for the hand of Rachel, the younger daughter of Laban, (who was also a trickster), and at the wedding feast took his first born daughter Leah unto Jacob, and Jacob was required to serve another seven years for Rachel whom he loved.

For his wages he made a contract with Laban that we read about in Genesis 30:27-43. These strange folklore stories from the Old Testament Scriptures prove for us such truths as that contained in the New Testament, Galations 6:7. "De not deceived, God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap". And for teachers and parents, children learn from what they see, within the home, and the school, and from the influence of the character of adults with whom they associate.

During the opening worship service, the senior choir sang an appropriate anthem "The march from Pilate's Hall to Olevit" from the Oratoria, which the choir is preparing for Good Friday evening March 27th; and Mrs. Northrop and Mr. Jas. McMaster a duet "O, Divine Redeemer remember not my sins; Forgive me; Help me, my Saviour".

The recessional hymn, "Guide me, O Thou Great Jehovah", 441, was chosen in recognition of St. David's Day, to the Welsh tune, Rhondda, author William Williams 1717-1791.

The flowers at the chancel were presented by the Crowley family in memory of the late Mrs. James Crowley, and by Mrs. Melville Johnston, Springfield, for so many years serving splendidly on the executive of the Cavan and Monaghan Township Sunday School Association, O. C. C. E.

Here's a winter driving tip from Ontario Safety League. Carry 2 roofing shingles in your trunk. If you get stuck on an icy patch, put them under the rear wheels, face down. The abrasive surface on the asphalt bites on the ice, providing a firm surface for the tires to grip. Sand has the same effect, of course, but shingles are easier to carry and handle.

Mr. Arthur J. Brown, speaking to a Liberal gathering Bowmanville last month, addressed the meeting that the people of Ontario should be able to expect leadership from the Department of Education. He was particularly critical of the system which did not provide equality of educational opportunities. Mr. Brown referred to the fact that there are 12 persons now teaching in Ontario on permits from the Department of Education. Permits are issued to those who lack the minimum standard requirements of the Department of Education. He said that Ontario there is no Doctor of Law practising who does not meet the requirements of the particular profession and that our children being our greatest asset, it was unfortunate that the Department of Education permitted unqualified persons to teach them in their formative years. Mr. Brown is now serving his sixth term as school trustee for Ward 9 in the City of Toronto and in 1953 was Chairman of the Toronto Board of Education. "Dr. Dunlop, living 50 years in the post," said. "It is not sufficient to have a baby sitter in every classroom, the people of Ontario are entitled to have qualified teachers in every classroom." The speaker said that educational opportunities were not equal in the Province, people in larger centres were not permitted teaching on permits whereas rural areas were forced to hire such teachers in order to obtain someone to fill the position in the rural schools.

The speaker, who was a candidate for the mayoralty in the City of Toronto in 1953, attacked the Frost government for a system which would allow, as is the case in Ontario, 85 administrative Boards and Tribunals to be set up. The situation became so bad that Premier has now set up a Gordon commission to investigate the commissions. He said that the elected representatives should be responsible to the people and it was not sufficient for them to shrug off criticism of their responsibilities by saying that a particular board commission was responsible for the decision. He also said that there should be a right of
