EDITORIAL OF SORTS

During the month of April we are anxious to spread the work of the Canadian Cancer Society as far and as widely as possible. With this in mind we are hoping that the attached short feature story may contain sufficient human and reader interest to find space in The Millbrook Reporter. This is a story from our case-history files.

THE POWER TO MOVE by Ann Bowman

Up in the hills in a lonely part of Ontario, there stood a shack-like home in which a stubborn woman and a proud man were waging a losing battle.

The woman was desperately ill with cancer but, thinking she was going to die anyway, was doing absolutely nothing about it. She had been ill for a considerable time, and her husband, out of work for ab-

COMING EVENTS

BAKE SALE and TEA

The Pupils of Grades 7 and 8 will hold a Bakke Sale and Tea on Saturday, May 5, in Millbrook Armouries. Proceeds in aid of a Niagara Falls Tour.

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Virginia and Melanie Richardson of Campbellford have returned home after spending a few days with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Young and Carolyn and Kevin.

Mr. Allan Young and Clark of Trenton visited with his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Young and family for the weekend.

Last Saturday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Cutmore and their son Stephen and Mr. Percy Hamilton, Principal of Millbrook Public School, wher Stephen, 12, attends Mrs. A. Kennedy's Grade 7, drove to Brighton, where Stephen competed in Hydro-sponsored public speaking finals against entrants from Bowmanville to Belleville, and Haliburton to the Lakeshore. Stephen did not place first, but he did admirably well. He was presented with an engraved cup. He is, according to Mr. Hamilton, the first pupil in 15 years to climb as high in the contest. Stephen has now 2 cups and 1 shield, won this year.

A few weeks ago, Stephen received a list of topics from which to choose. He was informed that he could not use the speech that he had given in earlier rounds. He chose a topic, A favorite fictional character. He recalled a book he had read, "The Incredible Journey". His speech then became "Tao, The Cat". To this title he spoke last Saturday.

If we may, we compliment Stephen for his efforts and his wins. And how fine of his principal to accompany him.

CHEX-TV

Mondays at 6 supertime, CHEX-TV, we are told, has a series re studies available for pupils after Grade 8. Try it!
