A. TINNEY & SON, CAVAN 944-5411

Continued from elsewhere. Cancer Society volunteer phoned the reeve of the township who, after learning the story, willingly offered the use of the township's new ambulance. Meanwhile the Public Health nurse had persuaded the father to talk with a nearby psychiatrist.

After several such talks, and with his wife now receiving help, this husband and father is more stabilized, and is seeking work.

Sparked by the active interest of a visiting Cancer Society volunteer in the neighborhood, who, on returning home, called the Cancer Unit concerned, all the welfare agencies in this area, now alert to the situation, are helping this family in its desperate plight.
