 —At the meeting of Court Ivanhoe, I. O. F., last week a committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements for the annual excursion. It seems we were mistaken in regard to the date, which will be about the 29th of June. This will enable every farmer and his family to take in the trip, coming as it does at a time when there is a lull in the work of the farm.

—Mrs. J. C. Kells left last week for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Moore, Elizabeth, New Jersey.

 —Notice to farmers. Those requiring seed grain would do well to call on C. B. Lowe at Cavanville, who has seed peas, spring wheat, six rowed barley and white oats for sale. Call early. 13-
 —That excellent horse, Cheneau, has been growing more and more in favor year by year and now stands in the proud position of having produced more high priced horses than any other stallion in Ontario, a position in which his owner is certainly to be envied among horsemen. The other day two of his colts, Magnum and Dover, brought $5,750 at a New York auction sale, conducted by Mr. Grand. Cheneau will begin the season on Monday next, and together with Logie will travel the same route as last year.

 —The entertainment given in the town hall on Tuesday evening last by a local amateur club, under the auspices of the citizens' band, was a success. The drama, "Among the Breakers," was a good one, and the different parts were handled in a manner that reflected great credit on the dramatic ability of the participants. The easy way in which all performed the duty assigned to them put the play on the boards in a light that could not but receive the appreciation of the audience, and where all did so well it is impossible to rate one above another. However, we might mention Mr. Wilfred Crossley, who took the part of a colored servant, and to say that he filled the position in professional style would be saying none too much. The orchestra furnished excellent music during the evening, and the entertainment ended by the rendition of the laughable farce, "Who is who, or All in a Fog." In this, as in the drama, the actors acquitted themselves in excellent style and seat the audience home feeling that they had spent a pleasant evening. We cannot say that the patronage was as good as the performance, which circumstance is very much to be regretted, as we consider the citizens' band of Millbrook one of the best in the district, and deserving of the support of the town. The proceeds amounted to $25.

—Just arrived at R. J. Doak's, the largest prettiest and cheapest stock of wall paper ever shown in Millbrook. See this stock before buying. Remnants of last year's stock sold at great sacrifice. Buy early and secure the plums. 10

 —Mrs. Thos. Bradshaw, sr., of South Monaghan, attempted to commit suicide by cutting her throat on Friday last, and very nearly succeeded. It seems that the Bradshaw residence was destroyed by fire a short time ago and that for some time past Mrs. Bradshaw brooded over the misfortune to such an extent that it somewhat unhinged her reason. Since the fire they have been living with their son. About noon on Friday, the old lady dressed herself in her best clothes, and, going outside the front door, cut her throat with a carving knife. She was found almost immediately afterwards and surgical aid was summoned to save her life. Drs. Gray, Montgomery and King were called and through their skilful efforts her life thus far has been prolonged, though she has been very low.
