—Mr. S. W. Clarke, L. D. S., took a run out to Port Hope yesterday to visit friends. Rumor says that these trips are significant of something more than the ordinary trips of S. W., and echo answers "so note it be."

—Mr. Jno. Ferguson, foreman and salesman for Jno. Swan & Sons, of Glasgow, spent Sunday with Mr. Sam Eskins. Their intimacy and friendship has dated back for many years.

—Now the curling is over and sooper-up will be heard no more until another season and whether it be the out-turn or in that the boys will take for the next six months, we hope they may make a pat-ld every time in their summer ventures.

—Mr. Jones and two sons of Lindsay, have been visiting with his brother-in-law, Mr. G. H. Small of the Reporter, for a few days. Mr. J. returned on Monday leaving the boys behind. Mr. Jones is putting in mill machinery for Gault & McCulloch of Galt, into Dundas' mill.

Mr. Brooks will again be in charge and his reputation for making an article of the highest grade is undoubted. We wish both Mr. Brooks and the factory every success this season.

—The curling match of the season was played on Friday night last, Grits vs. Tory, and of course the latter being in East Durham, won, but the other fellows say they had a Jonah in the person of Mr. H. B. Allen, who gave them away, but so can assure them that Harry made as good a lead as his Tory opponent.

To have perfect health you must have pure blood, and the best way to have pure blood is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

—Mr. Casey, cheese-maker at Mt. Pleasant, was in town on Saturday and made the Reporter a call. Mr. Casey has been spending the winter at his home in Mitchell and on his way down he spent a few days with Mr. T. W. —The Reporter begs to extend his sincere sympathy of the community to Mr. Coombe and family upon the death of their son, George, on Tuesday last week. While the last messenger is an unwelcome visitor at any time of life, to be called upon to bid farewell to one just grown into manhood, is especially distressing and is another reminder that death is no respecter of persons. The funeral on Thursday was largely attended.

—It is said that the sap is running and this year's maple syrup is quite up to the mark but around this office no aromatic flavors of the secretions of the old tree that furnishes our National Emblem, have been wanted. It only takes about a pint if the "devil" is not in, otherwise a quart will go around nicely. Now for the best sample, we don't want boiled down Porto Rico either, because April the first is gone.

—We had quite an interesting magistrate's court on Friday last. A man was brought before Thos. Gillott, J.P., and Reeve Ferguson, for pointing a C. P. R. station agent at Barkton, and causing general disorder upon the railway premises. A C. P. R. detective prosecuted the case and Mr. A. A. Smith, defendant of the case, was charged, the criminal one being dismissed and the case for assault being proven, a fine was imposed. There was a woman in the case, which was the cause of the assault.

Captain Sweeney U. S. A., San Diego Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the best medicine I ever found that would do me any good." Price 50 cents. Sold by A. LEACH.

—The March number of the Canadian Magazine, which we have just had the pleasure of perusing, is a most complete and entertaining book, and we have no hesitation in recommending the magazine to all lovers of good reading. It is quite a long list of something Canadian in the magazine line. "The Women's Rights Question in Rome," by Arthur Hurrey, a translation from Livy is most enthralling. "A Yankee in Halifax," by Allen Eric, is another excellent number. "The Newspapers of Newfoundland" is particularly well found just the thing to impart health and vigor to the whole system and enable them to pursue their work free from that tired, despondent feeling so prevalent among the craft. The editor of the Breeze firmly believes that what they have done for him they will do for others, and he gives them his hearty and unsolicited endorsement.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an unfailing cure for all troubles resulting from poverty of the blood or shattered nerves, and where given a fair trial they never fail in cases like that above related. —Considerable excitement was experienced around town one day last week, by the arrival of a young woman carrying an infant a few weeks old, which she stated was the rightful property of a young man belonging to town. The girl came here from England about two years ago, expecting to meet her brothers, but they had no means to proceed further she obtained employment here and was afterwards seduced under false pretences and promises of marriage. The girl left shortly afterwards to join her brothers and with one of them returned last week to see what her betrayer would do towards the support of the child. The heartless fiend however, would do nothing, but promise her money, which he either could not or would not produce and the mother and child were through the efforts of Mr. Thos. Gillott, J.P., furnished with a ticket by the council to return to her mother, who also came out from England last summer. The brother is forced to remain here until he can earn enough to take him back. It is a great pity that the law does not permit a good application of the lash against such wolves, who have no respect for their selves, their friends, or their victims.

THE EDITOR'S EXPERIENCE.

A SUFFERER FOR SEVERAL YEARS FROM ACUTE DYSPEPSIA.

Food Distressed Him and it began to have a Weakening Effect on His Health—Many Remedies Failed Before a Cure Was Found.

From the CANADIAN, N. S. Breeze.

While newspaper men are called upon in their capacity as publishers to print from week to week words of praise spoken in favor of proprietary medicines, it is not often that the editor himself feels it his duty to say a good word on behalf of any of these preparations. And yet if a newspaper man has actually found benefit from the use of a proprietary medicine, why should he not make it known to his readers, and thus perhaps point out to some of them the road to renewed health. The editor of the Breeze believes it his duty to say a few words of praise in favor of a remedy that has proved an inestimable boon to him, and to say them without any solicitation on the part of the proprietors of the medicine, who, as a matter of fact, had no reason to know that he was ill, or was using their medicine. For several years the editor of the Breeze had been subject to that distressing complaint, dyspepsia, and only those who have been similarly troubled can know how much misery this trouble entails. He had but very little appetite, and what he did eat caused an unpleasant feeling of fullness, and made him feel languid and heavy, often causing intense pain in the stomach only relieved by vomiting up the food which he had taken. He was also troubled with palpitation of the heart, brought on no doubt by the dyspepsia. Numerous remedies alleged to cure dyspepsia were tried, but without success, and the trouble was approaching a chronic state. At the suggestion of a friend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were tried and relief soon followed their use, and after a few boxes had been taken the editor was able to assert positively that he had been cured of his dyspepsia. To any one troubled with this complaint he would strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. To newspaper men particularly they will be found just the thing to impart health and vigor to the whole system and enable them to pursue their work free from that tired, despondent feeling so prevalent among the craft. The editor of the Breeze firmly believes that what they have done for him they will do for others, and he gives them his hearty and unsolicited endorsement.
