After the Grip

No Strength, No Ambition

Hood's Sarsaparilla Gave Perfect Health.

The following letter is from a well-known merchant tailor of St. George, N. B.:

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen—I am glad to say that Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills have done me a great deal of good. I had a severe attack of the grip in the winter, and after getting over the fever I did not seem to gather strength, and had no ambition. Hood's Sarsaparilla proved to be just what I needed. The results were very satisfactory, and I recommend this medicine to all who are afflicted with rheumatism or other afflictions caused by poison and poor blood. I always keep Hood's Sarsaparilla in my house and use it when I need a tonic. We also keep Hood's Pills on hand and think highly of them."

J. W. DYKEMAN, St. George, New Brunswick.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, and do not purge, pain or gripe. Sold by all druggists.

THE BETTER OUTLOOK.

With the disappearance of almost the last traces of winter and the arrival of those gentle harbingers of spring, the early showers, our thoughts again instinctively turn to the general outlook for the coming season, to the prospects for increased activity in all trade and business, as well as a more abundant yield from field and orchard. The winter that has just left us has been one of unusual severity and considering the exceedingly low prices of all farm products, the general stagnation in every line of manufacture and industry we may certainly congratulate ourselves, that so little has been heard of want and privation within our province and that our people as a whole have passed through the trying ordeal without any noticeable manifestations of reduced circumstances. Now as we emerge from our winter retreat and look around upon the situation as compared with previous seasons, we find signs of encouragement and tokens of better return for the husbandman's toil and the artisan's skill than have met the view for some time and with that hope which "Springs eternal in the human breast," and that perseverance of our people, always making the best of every opportunity, we may expect for the present year increased prosperity. The better feeling in business circles the upward tendency of all markets together with the, as yet, safe condition of the winter wheat and clover, all point to those better times for which we have all been anxiously looking and which our young country so much needs. The upward tendency of all grains, the firmer outlook for live stock, the greater activity in our various lines of manufacture as compared with last year, and what is more hopeful the determination of our farmers and fruit growers to branch into those lines of export that have been found more remunerative and which the changing conditions of outside markets warrant, are the most satisfactory and healthy evidences of better times.

MILLBROOK LACROSSE.

The annual organization meeting of the Millbrook Lacrosse Club, was held on Wednesday evening. It was the largest and most enthusiastic that has been held in years, and the prospects for the comming season are exceptionally good. The following officers were elected:

Hon. President—W. T. Wood.
President—R. J. Doak.
Vice-President—D. Hampton.
Sec.-Treas.—L. F. Clarry.
Captain—T. B. McMahon.
Committee—John Nattrass, Stanley Carveth and Walter Coombe.

The club will meet again at an early date to select their uniform, but it is likely the team will appear on the field with black guernseys and canvas trousers.

The proposal to form a league composed of Lindsay, II Peterboroughs, Hastings, Norwood and Millbrook, was favourably spoken of, and the secretary was instructed to write the Peterborough team for information on the matter.

BALLYDUFF.

To the Editor of the MILLBROOK REPORTER.

SIR,—In reading your paper last week my attention was drawn to a communication from Ballydu the writer of which seemed a person of importance and by the tone of of his letter would pass as such only every one knows him just the opposite. He commences by stating that the writer of a previous letter was from the lower depths for the reason of no signature being to the letter in question, but he has forgot the adage "Those who live in glass houses should not throw stones." He goes off on a tirade of abuse against a family who have lived here all their lives and against whom nothing can be said, and the latchet of whose shoes the said writer is not worthy to lose and before he commences to abuse his neighbors he should look to see if his own record is clean. Now in regard to the choir and Sunday in question, he says the committee had not appointed an organist. I refute that statement. As the mouthpiece and recognized head of said committee had waited upon a party and requested them to play and they partly consented, not knowing the facts of the case, but on second thought and learning the state of affairs, they did not appear on that Sunday as they did not wish to be brought into the faction fight as it were, for such is the state of affairs in the Presbyterian church at present. Then in regard to melodious voices he should be the last to speak and as regards esteem, the family he abuses has a clean record which neither he nor his can claim, to come down to the point and had he been at the saintly household as he calls it on the evening of the 5th he would have seen where the esteem was, but here we will leave him and his trusting that when he aspires for newspaper notoriety he will ask himself the question, Can I toe the mark as regards the weeping and wailing and knashing of teeth? The community would only be to glad to see him and his get.

A TRAGIC ACT.

Toronto, April 6.—The paying teller at the head office of the Bank of Toronto, Wellington and Church streets, C. Spencer Millichamp, committed suicide at his desk Saturday afternoon.

The tragedy occurred about half-past two. The bank closed at one and the 15 clerks were busily engaged at their books when one of them, Receiving Teller Hector Read, who was in the cage next to Millichamp, saw that young man with a revolver at his head. Before Read could reach him Millichamp had pulled the trigger and the bullet went straight through his head, killing him instantly.

The body was removed to Young's undertaking establishment, at 347 Young street, where Coroner Aikins opened an inquest in the evening, subsequently adjourning it until Wednesday evening at the Empress hotel.

The body was removed to deceased's home on Sunday and the funeral will take place at 3.15 to-morrow afternoon.

No reason is assigned for the act. A close examination of the books shows that every cent which had passed through deceased's hands had been accounted for. It is supposed that he was suffering from melancholy.

The deceased was 28 years of age and had been with the Bank of Toronto since the the closing of the doors of the Central Bank, he having been a member of the staff of that institution from its inception. He was an expert mathematician and had the reputation of being one of the quickest men with figures in the city banks. He was unmarried and lived with his father, ex-Ald. Wallace Millichamp, at 592 Church street.

HE WILL GO TO ILLINOIS.

He Will Become Rector of Christ Memorial Church in the City of Springfield.

From the Sedalia Morning Gazette.

Several days ago the Rev. Alexander Allen of Calvary Episcopal church tendered his resignation to the vestry, he having received an offer to become rector of Christ Memorial church at Springfield, Ill., the capital of the state.

The vestry hesitated to accept the resignation, and, together with the other members of the congregation, besought Mr. Allen to reconsider his action. The rector, however, upon mature deliberation, determined not to change his purpose and for the second time tendered his resignation, which was accepted last night.

Mr. Allen and his family greatly regret leaving Sedalia, but not more so than their large number of friends in this city. For three years the rector of Calvary church has labored here and in the face of unexpected and almost insurmountable difficulties he has brought the parish to a point of more gratifying prosperity than it has enjoyed within the past four years.

Mr. Allen's new field of action is an alluring one. The city of Springfield is one of the most pleasant and cultured in the West, Christ Memorial church is one of the finest in Illinois and the parish is altogether a desireable one.

The people of Springfield will find Mr. Allen a genial, scholarly, christian gentleman in the higher definition of those terms, and they will also find in him and his family delightful companionship.

THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE.

The March number of the Canadian Magazine is well illustrated and very varied in the subject matter of the excellent contributions given. Arthur Harvey's "The Women's Rights Question in Rome—195 B. C." illustrates the truth of the writer of Ecclesiastes that "there is nothing new under the sun." It is most interesting reading. "The Politics of Japan," by C. T. Long, formerly resident in Japan, gives a valuable glimpse of the practical working of political parties in that most interesting country. J. F. Morris Fawcett, of Newfoundland, deals trenchantly with the sins of journalism in that colony. Rev. W. S. Blackstock writes from Egypt an entertaining description of an Arab dinner, at which he was a guest. John C. Werner writes from Japan a thrilling, if somewhat ludicrous, experience of being long buried under an avalanche in British Columbia. True to life, and very interesting is Margaret Ross's description of Sacrament week amonst the Highlanders around Lake Megantic. J. L. Hubard, of Virginia, a former slave owner, takes up the cudgels rigorously to defend the old order in the South, and Philip Lawdeshayne gives a number of new anecdotes relating to the Old Country. The illustrated articles are, "A Yankee in Halifax," by Allan Eric; "The Royal Military College of Canada," by several writers; "The Inter-colonial Railway," by P. F. Cronin, and "Laying a Submarine Cable," by F. A. Hamilton. Fiction includes "An Original Retribution," by Charles Nelson Johnson; "Like a Mountain Path," by Maud L. Radford, and "Jean Stuart's Encounter with Dougal McTavish," by Neil Burton. The Canadian Magazine is published by the Ontario Publishing Co., Ltd., Toronto. $2.50 per annum. Single numbers 25 cents.

A TWENTY YEARS' SIEGE.

THE STORY OF A WELL-KNOWN GRENVILLE COUNTY MAN.

Rheumatism Held the Fort for Twenty Years, Resisting all Treatment and Efforts to Dislodge It—The Patient Thoroughly Discouraged, but Acting on the Advice of Friends, Made One More Effort Which Was Crowned With Success.

From the Brockville Times.

There are very few of the older residents of this section to whom the name of Whitmarsh is not familiar. E. H. Whitmarsh, of Merrickville, was for thirty years a member of the council of the United Counties of Leeds and Grenville, and on four occasions filled the office of warden of the counties. His son, Mr. George H. Whitmarsh, to whom this article refers, is also well-known throughout the counties, and is the Merrickville correspondent of the Times. It is well-known to Mr. Whitmarsh's friends that he has been a sufferer for many years from rheumatism, from the thraldon of which he has now fortunately been released. Mr. Whitmarsh tells how this was brought about as follows: "For over twenty years previous to the winter of 1894 I was almost a continual sufferer from rheumatism, sometimes wholly incapacitated from doing any kind of work. After trying remedies of all kinds and descriptions without any benefit, I at last came to the conclusion that a cure was impossible. In the fall of 1893 I was suffering untold pain and misery and could not rest day or night. Several of my friends strongly urged me to try Dr. Williams Pink Pills and reluctantly, I confess, for I had lost faith in all medicine, I began to do so. To my surprise and great satisfaction I soon began to experience relief, and this feeling grew to one of positive assurance that the malady that has made life miserable for so many years was leaving me as I continued the treatment. By the time I had used nine boxes of Pink Pills not a twinge of the rheumatism remained, but to make assurance doubly sure I continued the treatment until I had twelve boxes of pills. This was in January, 1894, since when I have not had the slightest trace of any rheumatic pain. I am satisfied beyond a doubt that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured me, and I confidently recommend them to all rheumatic sufferers."

Rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, nervous headache, nervous prostration and diseases depending upon humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc., all disappear before a fair treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They give a healthy glow to pale and sallow complexions and build up and renew the entire system. Sold by all dealers and post paid at 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50 by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. Do not be persuaded to take some substitute.
