Barbara Fallis presided at the weekly meeting of CYUC Sunday evening, April 7th, in St. Andrew's Sunday School Hall. Mrs. Hobbs was guest speaker and took as her theme, the topical title "Don't be cruel to a heart that's true".
Mrs. Hobbs had also a number of Missionary exhibits from China. Peter Crowley proposed the vote of thanks. Lenore Ouellette was in charge of the worship service. Refreshments were served.

Seen on King Street During The Week

One of those large block-long transporters with the following farm equipment piled on it:— Mower, Cultivator, Land Roller, Horse rake, Seeder, Fanning Mill, Harrows, Whiffletrees, and one lumber. All that was lacking to start farming anywhere was a 100 acres of land, and maybe this could have been crowded on too had the above been packed a little closer together. The transport bore the name "Buckham Transport".
When "Bill" moves 'em he sure goes to town.

Nancy Nattress combing the tresses of Gail Lawson while sitting in a parked car. Of all the places to start up a hair dressing business. May not be so foolish after all, when business gets poor turn on the grass and look for greener fields.

Two small boys (no names mentioned because we don't know what they are) about 8 and 10 years of age, according to judgment, smoking cigarettes in the church shed. Nothing like starting young to become an expert in the art in later years.

Nearly all of our down town business men and others starting in a westerly direction, not scanning the skies to judge the weather, but the fire siren sent the local boys west and of course everyone was curious as to where to. We heard they had two big fires in Toronto, but they didn't go there because they weren't away long enough.

IT HAPPENED TO THE RIGHT MAN

A local district man attended an auction sale in Peterborough out of curiosity recently. He edged his way to near the front and as he stood there an old frined of his at another point waved his hand to him at which he recognized the gesture by "nodding" his head. Immediately the auctioneer shouted, "sold for 50c" and handed him the article. The man was dumfounded, he didn't know that he had bid on anything, but at 50c decided to take it rather than cause an argument, and to his delight it turned out to be an old fashioned mustache-cup, (right up his alley), as he happened to be a collector of these antiques and it was worth considerable more than 50c.

The moral of this story is don't nod to your friends at an auction sale, and if you have to sneeze get out of view of the auctioneer, or you may come to, and find you bought yourself a "white elephant".

FENION RAID MEDAL SHOWS UP IN VILLAGE

A Fenion Raid Medal given to veterans of the 1866 raid, was brought to The Reporter Office by Mr. Geo. C. Ells-medal was given to his grandfather who was a member of the militia at the time of the raid.

These medals are fast becoming rare.
