DOWN ON THE FARM

Down on the farm, 'bout half past four
I slip on my pants and sneak out the door
Out of the yard I run like the dickens
To milk ten cows and feed the chickens
Clean out the barn, curry Nancy and Jiggs
Separate the cream and slop the pigs
Work for two hours then eat like a Turk
And by heck! I'm ready for a full day's work.

Then I grease the wagon and pit on the rack
Hitch up the horses, hustle down the lane
Must get the day in for it looks like rain.
Look over yonder! Sure as I'm born
Cattle on rampage and cows in the corn
Start across the medder, run a mile or two
Heaving like I'm wind-broke, get wet clear through.
Get back to the horses, then for recompense
Nancy gets a-siraddle of the burbed wire fence
Joints all aching and muscles in a jerk
I'm fit as a fiddle for a full day's work.

Work all summer till winter is nigh
Then figure up the books and heave a big sigh
Worked all year, didn't make a thing
Got less cash now than I had last spring
Now some people tell us that there ain't no hell
But they've never farmed, so how can they tell
When spring rolls 'round I take another chance
While the fringe grows longer on my old grey pants
Give my 'spenders a hitch, my belt another jerk
And by heck! I'm ready for a full year's work.
