Like a Waterfall Great Suffering After the Grip

Tremendous Roaring in the Head Pain in the Stomach.

To C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"Two years ago I had a severe attack of the Grip, which left me in a terribly weak and debilitated condition. Last winter I had another attack and was again very badly off, my health nearly wrecked. My appetite was all gone, I had no strength, felt tired all the time, had disagreeable roaring noises in my head, like a waterfall. I also had severe headaches and a severe sinking pains.

Severe Sinking Pains
In my stomach. I took medicines without benefit, until having heard so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla, I concluded to try it, and the result is very gratifying. All the disagreeable effects of the Grip are gone, I am free from pains and aches, and believe is surely curing my catarrh. I recommend it to all." GEO. W. COOK, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

The Millbrook Reporter.

R. R. ELLIOT, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

THURSDAY, MAY 4, 1893.

SIR OLIVER'S gang in the Toronto legislature have decided not to prohibit the retail sale of liquor. Mr. Meredith prepared the bill, believing it to be a long step in advance towards temperance, but Mowat and his supporters voted it down.

The world's fair at Chicago and the spring fair at Millbrook opened on the same day, and the Chicago fake wasn't in it so far as our people were concerned. The people of this neighborhood stayed at home, supported home enterprise and admired Cheneau and Tom Donaldson's Jersey and the other sights on the grounds.

WHEN the temperance people of Manitoba clamored loudly for prohibition, Premier Greenway told them he would take a plebiscite and ascertain whether a majority of the people wanted prohibition and if they did—well, they would see. The vote was taken and the people declared by a large majority for prohibition—and they are still seeing! Mr. Greenway told them he was glad to learn that the people were so favourably disposed towards temperance, but really he could do nothing for them. Now Mr. Mowat is going to play the same game.

TOWN COUNCIL.

The Monthly Meeting of the Council—Port Hope's Check Proposed—Tenders Awarded—Committees Appointed.

A meeting of the town council was held on Monday evening.

A communication was received from the mayor of Port Hope, thanking the Millbrook council for their kindness and promptness in tendering the use of the steam fire engine on the occasion of the fire at Trinity College school.

Tenders were received from Messrs. W. Thexton and John Martin for the supply of lumber and cedar to the corporation during the coming season. Mr. Thexton's tender was for $11.50 per thousand, and Mr. Martin's was for $11. In the greater convenience in getting large or small lots as may be required from time to time and the saving which would result in the cost of carting, it was decided, on motion of Coun. Campbell, seconded by Coun. Bateson, to accept Mr. Thexton's tender.

Several accounts were passed and ordered to be paid.

A form of resolution endorsing Port Hope's application to the legislature through Mr. Campbell for an amendment to the municipal act, was laid on the table and the council was asked to adopt it.

Coun. Elliot said he certainly would not move it, for he was strongly opposed to the proposed change, as it was perhaps the greatest piece of cheek he had ever known to emanate from that town. What Port Hope wanted was an amendment to the municipal act which would enable that town to send from three to six representatives to vote on the choice of the county town. They were not prepared to go into the county and assist in sharing its responsibilities and expenses, but now that they thought something was to be made out of it and they might by this sharp practice and spiteful retaliation secure for themselves the county town they were willing to condescend for one meeting to sit with and confer with the representatives of the county. For his part, Mr. Elliot said he was not prepared to help Port Hope at the expense of Millbrook. There was a probability of one if not both of the Monagans entering our new county, and if that were true, and he had reason to believe it was, then Millbrook should enter the list herself and fight for the county town. It would be most centrally located and would be the point most easily reached either by driving or by the railroad, which was a strong lever in our favor. It is the duty of the people of Millbrook to build up this town, rather than engage in the re-construction of other places, and strongly oppose the passage of the bill before the legislature.

Coun. Campbell asked if there was any possibility of a separation of the counties. Reeve Ferguson said there would be a separation as sure as Coun. Campbell occupied his seat at the board.

Coun. Elliot said he was quite sure of it, and that was one reason why council should take steps to apprise the committee of the house of its objections to the measure.

After some further discussion Coun. Bateson moved, seconded by Coun. Campbell, that the Reeve and Coun. Elliot be a committee to appear before the committee of the Ontario legislature and oppose the passage of the bill.

The matter of securing a new lamp-lighter was referred to by Coun. Campbell.

On motion of Coun. Elliot, Couns. Campbell and Bateson were appointed to have Allen's bill placed in a proper condition and to oversee the construction of the new bridge near Mr. Collins' mill.

Mr. Jas. Handley was appointed to collect the balance of the taxes now out-standing.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Opened on Monday—President Cleveland Touches the Electric Button.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Grover Cleveland, president of the United States, surrounded by the members of his Cabinet, by high officials of the United States, by a numerous and distinguished representation from lands across the sea, and by a mighty throng of American citizens, to-day pressed the electric button which set in motion the miles of shafting, the innumerable engines and mechanisms and the labyrinth of belting and gearing which make up the machinery of the World's Columbian Exposition.

At the same moment a national salute pealed forth from the guns of the Andrew Johnson, lying off the exposition grounds in Lake Michigan; seven hundred flags released from their "stops" at a concerted signal swung loose and streamed out under the sky in scarlet, yellow and blue; over in machinery hall a great roar arose and the turrets of the building nodded as the wheels began to turn and a greater volume of sound arose from the throats of the concourse of people who thus acclaimed the opening of the greatest achievement of American pluck, enterprise and generosity.

It was a state and civic holiday too, and all the employees of the public buildings freed from their desks, joined the current which set toward Jackson Park. Nine o'clock saw every available means of transportation to the fair grounds tested to the fullest capacity and in some cases beyond it. Meanwhile the procession was in course of formation. At the head was a platoon of mounted police, and next in line was company B and company K of the Seventh United States cavalry. The fourth division being the special escort, consisted of the Chicago Hussars. Twenty trumpeters heralded the approach of the Hussars, and bringing up the rear of the Military division was mounted troupe B of the Illinois National Guards. The procession of carriages was led by a vehicle containing the national commissions. In the seventh carriage sat the President of the United States, and on the opposite sat President T. W. Palmer and H. N. Higginbotham of the World's Columbian Exposition.

The foreign division was inaugurated with the fourteenth carriage. This was occupied by the Dukes of Veragua, Commander Dickens and others.

The fair sex appeared for the first time in the vehicle which followed the Duchess of Veragua, being escorted by Mrs. Potter Palmer, who did the honors as president of the Board of Lady Managers, and by Mrs. Dickens. The Ducal party was followed by carriages occupied by ambassador to England, Thomas F. Bayard, ex-Minister to Belgium, Lambert Tree; Major-General Miles and aides, and Governor Altgeld; the carriage of Mayor Harrison who was accompanied by three members of the Board of Aldermen, brought the rear.

The procession was attended by continued cheering. Up to the boundaries of the pleasure the welcome had been distinctively American, but from there to the gates it partook of a cosmopolitan character.

Strongly Endorsed.

The advertising of Hood's Sarsaparilla appeals to the sober, common sense of thinking people, because it is true; and it is always fully substantiated by endorsements which in the financial world would be accepted without a moment's hesitation. They tell the story—HOOD'S CURES.
