she says, in a dull. and gies quickly on-

Lady Branksmere, ex ow tone. "One only. hat you should avoid isfaction to you. But out that," he goes on, ram to-morrow will rid leave as suddenly as I t do this thing. I as-eason why you should," re haughtily. n," breaks out Staines suppressed passion. the past, I am not. I ever have come here-

ere ?" she demanded

ere," he says, slowly. that? Did you not was mad when I ac-Branksmere's-invitarefuse it. But now w that I have seenmemories force them-I feel I dare not reourself about that, of riel, coldly. se me," declares he.

erently. he cries, vehemently. forgotten?" ys stoutly.

it," protests he. pace of time to have Nay, I defy you to t. Now and again the pure sweet past breast. Yet love to you what it was ne Muriel, as only a an. You betray-low, standing here more, you tell me ace even in vour ng to you whether she, slowly. "I t who broke faith?

y pleased if you little while," she ation," declares t defiantly, and patiently down mself all but in me Salt. a paper before ntly on "How me salt." From r and affinities geological ages. hat the waters salt from very t by no means fully saline as here were two account for the om very early First, by supters were satwere neld in rounding the dly, that the ss resembling present day ht that they Hunt, that rine largely the primeval roportion of chlorine was d in river lakes they alinification Throughout e lakes had vers, bringdsediments silicates. vere preciplakes, and the atmosar as it engredients. quantity. e lakes bearbonates. The ocean nagnitude. o the consea might same way Oroomiah. and many mmon the . When surround to conie resultas Dr. ses, were e process streams d borderarried on ding the aters to a of forms se which sent day. ed to inid azoic the first over the om the se gelaawn of fficient of a viously under ber of armed

ou," icily. fear my presence here

Chief Justice Johnston, of the Montreal steam barge, and both were drowned. Superior Court, is seriously ill from an attack of inflammation of the lungs.

It is again reported in Ottawa Official circles that the Mounted Police and Indian Departments will be amalgamated, with Mr. Fred White, the present Controller of CANADIAN.

Mounted Police, as Deputy Minister.

A young woman named Mary Baptist was found dead the other morning in Toronto under suspicious circumstances. The authorities are reticent, but the facts of the case so far as known will be ventilated at a coroner's inquest to be held.

There has been another death in the small pox hospital at Winnipeg, Man., the Eva Adams.

Mr. William Sullivan, a resident of The cholera, which appeared some time good deal of space; and that such Hamilton, and agent for an English carpet ago in the workhouse in Quimper, Departdeprived of his eyesight Tuesday. Some through the town. years ago he lost the sight of one eye while suffering from an attack of typhoid fever, have resumed the offensive against France of the youngest child now living—these are and the other eye was injuriously affected. While returning from a visit to an oculist | ing the action of the Government of Siam. | must see the fair for himself. he suddenly became completely blind.

Tuesday. He then gave himself up to the police. The first bullet struck the woman in the shoulder, the second in the forehead, and the third in the hand. The husband and wife had been separated for some time, and the woman had declined Bridgman's request to return to him. Mrs. Bridgman's wounds are of a serious character.

Mr. David McLean was loading glass into a waggon at Hamilton Monday morning, when the horse became frightened and ran away. Mr. McLean jumped from the waggon and rushed into the nearest surgery. Blood was pouring from a cut in his leg, and before it could be staunched the unfortunate man was so weakened that death resulted in a short time. The manner of the accident is unknown.

Mr. J. H. Turner, Minister of Agriculture in the British Columbia Government, who is at present in Ottawa, says that the Redistribution bill was not passed last session as, had it been based upon the

Mr. Frank McLeod, employed in Sicklesteel's stave mill at McGregor, Ont., met drawn in between the pully and the belt, of starvation. Upon his falling ill he had and he was dragged under the shaft. The been suspended, and as his salary had arm and shoulder were pulled from his body amounted to only $130 a year he had been and his face was horribly crushed. He unable to save anything to pay either for lived for an hour after the accident.

The Managing Committee of the Montreal General hospital has refused to grant second son of the Czar, has fallen in love basing their objection on the ground that pose the match. there exists no facility for the separate edu- The German Army Bill was rejected or cation of women in the hospital, and that the co-education of the sexes has already to 162. The Emperor immediately dissolvbeen disapproved by the Governors.

The strike of the dock labourers at Brisreturned to work unconditionally.

Stratford-on-Avon last year.

Mr. Gladstone has offered the position of poet laureate, made vacant by the death of Lord Tennyson, to Mr. John Ruskin, the

The first shipment of Canadian cattle for the season arrived in Liverpool yesterday | States who have enlisted in the movement | sections of the Province, and the dismorning. The commissioners appointed by to free their native country. the British Board of Agriculture are keeping the animals apart from all others for inspection.

Mr. Michael Davitt, anti-Parnellite member of North-East Cork, who was recently declared a bankrupt, being unable to pay the costs connected with the election contest in North Meath, has applied for the Chiltern Hundreds.

have had intentions of murdering Mr. which their juice contains; that of the Gladstone, was again before a London police | cherry, plum, apple and pear, from the magistrate and was remanded, as the medi- malic acid in their pulp; that of goosebercal officer was not prepared to pronounce ries and currants, black, red and white, upon the question of his sanity.

was exploded in the quadrangle of the Four and tartaric acids; that of the mango from Courts, Dublin. The walls of the court citric and a very fugitive essential oil; that buildings were not injured, and no person of the tamarind from a mixture of citric, was hurt. It is not believed, says a special | malic and tartaric acids; the flavour of asdespatch, that the purpose of the persons paragus from aspartic acid, found also in throwing the bomb was to sacrifice human the root of the marshmallow, and that of of the leading Chicago papers for saying, is life, as at night the vicinity of the courts is | the cucumber from a peculiar poisonous indeserted.

UNITED STATES.

World's Fair complain that they are being and this is one of the wise provisions of natover-charged for power, and some of them threaten to withdraw their exhibits.

Miss Frances Willard, the temperance advocate, has entirely collapsed as a result of her years of hard work. She has been ordered to Switzerland for the entire sum-

The paid admissions to the Chicago Fair on Saturday did not total fifteen thousand. The Board of Lady Managers have put oil. The Jerusalem artichoke contains 1412 themselves on record as favouring the opening of the fair on Sendays.

The President of the World's Fair has ces not yet clearly defined."

decided that any body of men, no matter how large, will be permitted to march inside the Fair grounds, provided they have paid their entrance fee.

Willoughby and Florence Thompson, Mrs. McLean, thirty-five years of age, brother and sister, 21 and 19 years of age and wife of Mr. Kenneth McLean of Woodrespectively, were rowing upon the river stock, Ont., committed, suicide on Thursday at Detroit on Sunday afternoon when their boat was upset by the swell from a passing

It is stated that Mr. E. A. Macdonald, o Toronto, has formed a syndicate in New Thirteen thousand people have to be pro- York, to build an aqueduct and canal from vided for in Montreal in connection with Georgian bay to Toronto. The plan calls the great Christian Endeavor Convention in for the expenditure of fifty million dollars.

Carlyle W. Harris, a medical student, of

There has been a serious uprising in Nicaragua, and three important cities have been captured by the insurgents.

Russian cotton spinners boast that they will soon be in a position to dispense with American cotton altogether, drawing their supplies from the trans-Caspian region.

The report received in Madrid that the victim of the disease being a woman named | chief Cuban rebels had surrendered is not | credited at Key West.

warehouse, was suddenly and completely ment of Finisterre, France, has now spread of the wealth and progress of the nations

The French Chamber of Deputies has re- Therefore it is that I shall be compelled Courtland Freeman Bridgman deliberate- jected the proposition to tax foreigners res- in these letters to confine my attention to Hyderabad was loaded with coal at Swan- inch layers by dragging a beam over it, then ly shot his wife three times while they were ident in France, but has adopted a my own country and especially to my own > country to register. The St. Petersburg Church Messenger says that out of the one thousand pilgrims journeying to Nazareth the majority perished from exposure during the terrible weather encountered on the way.

> The destruction by fire is reported of the British steamer Khiva off the Arabian coast, with a heavy loss of life of Mohammedan

> Benjamin Guerra, secretary of the old American League of Cuban Patriots in New York, says that the Revolutionary party will be supplied with abundance of money from America; but that care will be observed not to violate international law.

pear that the Pope is preparing an ency- world at large. Canadian nickel, being contrary winds were met. Capt. Scott was For some unexplained reason many designclical to the European powers setting forth at the present time a trump card, so about to give up in despair and start for ers of locomotives have been opposed to census returns, which were notoriously in- are being made for what looks like an arm- centre of the Court. There are huge boul and almost an entire suit of sails was lost. the length of ports of a number of engines correct, it would have been unfair and un- ed expedition from that place to aid the ders of nickel, The weight of water that came thundering from 18 and 19 to 23 inches, and the Big stave-cutting machine his left arm was A school teacher of Pilsen, Austria, died food or medical attendance. It is rumoured that Grand Duke George, the petition of a majority of the Governors with a telegraph clerk in the Caucasus, requesting the Committee of Management where he is staying for his health, and as to issue to two women students of Bishops' he is not expected to live and is determined College permission to walk the hospital, on marrying her, his parents will not op-Saturday in the Reichstag by a vote of 210

ed Parliament, and the new elections are ordered for June 15th. There is great excitement in Berlin over the result.

Sir Francis Jeune, president of the Engtol, England, has ended and the men have lish Court of Probate, has declined to interfere in the case of the Dowager Duchess The trustees of Shakespeare's birthplace of Sutherland, whom he committed to Holreport that six thousand Americans visited loway gaol, holding that the matter should apple orchard of the world, but no other be referred to the Home Secretary for conclusion can be come to, from an inspec-are half a million of Cubans in the United the pomological section, from The Acids of Fruits.

Mr. George W. Johnson, in his "Chemistry of the World," says, in describing the "vegetable food of the world": "The grateful acid of the rhubarb-leaf arises from which it contains ; the acidity of the lemon, orange and other species of the genus citrus William Townsend, the man supposed to is caused by the abundance of citric acid from a mixture of malic and citric acids ; being offensive to some stomachs. It will The exhibitors in Machinery hall at the the early commencement of the summer, ure for supplying a blood purifier at a time when it is likely to be most needed. Beet-root owes its nutritions quality to about nine per cent. of sugar which it contains, and its flavor to a peculiar substance containing nitrogen mixed with pectic acid. The carrot owes its fattening powers also and blistering power from a volatile acrid annex. per cent. of sugar and 3 per cent. of inulin (a variety of starch), besides gum and a pe-

A CITY OF PALACES.

Dreamland—The Immense Cost of the ternational Display.

a City of Palaces in two short years, and just opposite the cereal court, and has ed. It will be noticed that the process is New York, in February, 1891, poisoned his equally marvellous when we realize that in been mounted on its big truck, but this not unlike that used for drawing cartridges. wife, then a girl of 19, whom he had secrettwo years nearly all the beautiful structures with the dairy cans, and many other feaThe tubes produced are any diameter bewill have disappeared, leaving nothing but tures of interest must wait for another tween a sixteenth of an inch and an inch ing an overdose of morphine, which he told a memory behind. A mere enumeration of letter. her was quinine for the cold from which she the buildings conveys no idea of the city; Just a word to intending visitors. The The St. Andrew's Society of Ottawa has was suffering. He was brought to trial, nor does a statistical array of figures give a World's Fair is not completed yet; probappointed a committee to take steps tofound guilty, and was electrocuted at Sing conception of its vastness. What ordinary ably not more than half the exhibits are boxes are attached to the cars, and whenbuildings included within the walls, can result. including the Midway Plaisaunce; that it has a lake frontage of a mile and a half; that an expenditure of $40,000,000 on the part of the World's Fair Company, foreign Governments and Concessionaires is represented, and of at least $250,000,000 on the part of exhibitors. That the exhibitions of Paris, Philadelphia and Vienna could be placed in Jackson Park and still leave a

> A STUPENDOUS AGGREGATION has never been gathered together before and It is stated in Paris that the Siamese probably never will be again in the lifetime and it is charged that England is support- true statements, but after all is said, one in a hallway on Beaver Hall hill, Montreal, resolution requiring foreigners living in the Province. Canada has been favored by the Directorate in having a choice place in every building, and Ontario's Commissioner, N. Awrey, M. P. P., has secured for his province the most prominent corner in each court, so that the Premier Province has in every instance the importance which is its wealth is only beginning to be realized, half-frozen men whenever an opportunity which steam enters the cylinder. When an and the extensive display made by the occurred. The men assert that many times engine is running at the rate of fifty miles Bureau of Mines, and installed now the young women made their way forward an hour the time that is given to the steam under the superintendence of Mr. David when ladders, pieces of boats, and hen to pass in and out of the cylinder is very Boyle of Toronto, will be the means of in- coops were all awash. From authentic information, it would aptroducing it most thoroughly to the The gale lasted nearly a week and then get in order to flow in the proper manner. the inevitable crisis to which the crushing to speak, Mr. Boyle has allotted it San Francisco via the Cape of Good Hope, making these ports as large as could easily the place of honor, and a grand trophy of when on Oct. 12 it came on to blow again. be done, but recently the Pittsburg, Fort A Key West special says preparations the mineral in all its stages occupies the All the temporary yards were blown away Wayne and Chicago Railway has increased and a square block of the clear product on board bent the deck beams and the vessel Four road has placed nearly forty locomo-A special despatch states that it is alleg- weighing some 4,000 pounds; with ingots began to leak. The cargo shifted again and tives in service with ports of 23 inches in ed that the police authoritits of Rome have of nickel and copper-nickel alloy; gold- everybody prepared for the worst. A con- lingth. with a terrible death the other morning. been subsidized by the proprietors of the bearing quality, silver in the rough, and ference of the officers was held in the cabin, The system of oiling the engines of the While endeavoring to shift a belt from a gambling houses to leave them unmolested. every mineral substance of value, with and it was decided to make for the Falkland East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Raillithographic stone, marble and granite and Islands. The men were exhausted by this way is to allow so much oil to so many miles most exquisitely polished, and everything were sick and did not care whether they comotives, making a distinction between labelled so that the most casual observer can lived or died. The Captain's daughters the different classes. From thirty to thirtypick up a good deal of information unassist- went among them, bound up their wounds, five miles to a pint of lubricating oil and of the mining building and just north of the Captain put a "stick" on the sly, per- oil is considered good service for large pasthe big coal pyramid, is at once artistic and suaded the men to return to duty. Five senger engines on heavy trains. For conforceful, the arch being flanked with ten days later Port Stanley was reached, and solidation freight engines twenty-five miles highly polished granite columns, and the for the time the trouble was over. It took to a pint of lubricating oil and seventy-five corners by huge marble pillars. On one hundred days to repair the ship, and to 100 miles to a pint of cylinder oil is conthe north wall is a geological map, then another start was made. 12x18 feet, on which the location of the principal minerals is plainly marked, there being also a compendium of Ontario's mining laws, and statistical information, as to population, etc. These and besides several smaller maps and photographs, the Some of Those Used in the Days of Our entire exhibit being most unique, are already one of the chief attractions of the building.

FRUIT AND FLOWERS.

It is no small boast that Ontario is the inches. tion of the thousands of plates of fruit that A New York Times special is authority crowd the tables of the Ontario court in for the statement that there will be a great the western annex of the horticultural club. uprising of the Cubans against Spanish rule | building. These were collections of Mr. A. in the first week of June, and that there H. Settel, of Grimsby, Superintendent of C. 1053. play may be fairly considered a representative one, leading fruit growers everywhere having lent their co-operation. The fruit was kept in cool storage here during the winter, and though it was shamefully neglected by the Storage Company, enough was rescued to impress the malic acid and binoxalate of potash visitors most favorably, and to compel the most flattering compliments from visitors. Besides the natural fruit, there are some 1500 glass jars, containing everything in the line of fruit, from the smallest to the greatest. These have been preserved in acid solutions which retain the natural appearance, and are most artistically arranged in pyramids and on shelves. It is the reign of Henry VII. Late on Saturday night a dynamite bomb | that of the grape from a mixture of malic | intended during the season to have consignments of fresh fruit forwarded to Chicago as it is ready so that the exhibit will always be fresh and novel. In the big greenhouse is Ontario's floral Exhibit, which I have the authority of one the most complete in rare tropical plants of gredient called fungin, which is found in any in the building, and that is saying not to sugar and its flavor to a peculiar fatty next week. They are in the main horti- she has been deprived of her children, or The surgeons thoroughly explored the cultural building—distances are long in with the dry-eyed appeal of the talkative died in great agony, with repeated efforts to About five hundred business places in culiar substance to which its flavour is ow- these quarters—is the agricultural build- lunatic. It would indeed seem that tears vomit, which continued until death ensued. Milwaukee were closed on Wednesday in ing; lastly garlic and the rest of the onion ing, in the southeast corner of which is give relief to feelings which, when pent A post-mortem examination revealed the chservance of Revivalist Mill's mid-week family derive their peculiar odor from a Sabbath. Over five thousand conversions yellowish, volatile acrid oil, but they are the north front. The design of the Ontario occupying ileges of reason to be able to weep. Amid mass surrounding it, and, putting out straw, in ornamenting the central trophy, and the railing, together with corn of some The World's Fair Buildings and Grounds 13 varieties. It is not pretended for a -To the Visitor They Are a Veritable | moment that Ontario can compete with Enterprise-Ontario's Part in the In- states as a corn growing region, or can at- is described in an English technical jour-"How shall I describe what is indescrib- every other cereal, as can be judged from received from the steel works in the form able?" said Julian Hawthorne in one of his the numerous samples of seed grain in glass of sheets, from which flat circular discs articles on the World's Fair, and the thought bottles, we easily hold our own. The name are pressed into the form of shallow cups, is echoed by your correspondent. Pages of of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, which are then pressed through dies of print would not begin to do justice to the appears frequently on the trophy, and rightly gradually decreasing diameter, until they Great White City, nor suffice for even a bare so, for no institution in America can attract have assumed the form of a tube of the re

C. W. Young.

TWO BRAVE GIRLS.

the Crew of the Hyderabad.

arrived at San Francisco from Swanses, weather by a person some distance from a Capt. D. F. B. Scott had his two daughters street through which cars run. with him, and both the young ladies assert | Even the gentle nannie goat is forced to that they never want to make a similar aid the engineer down in New Mexico, if trip. This is the Hyderabad's maiden at- we are to believe recent accounts of the tempt, and Capt. Scott hopes he will never | construction of an earth dam 85 feet high have a similiar experience while he remains and over 1,000 feet in length near Santa Re. skipper of her.

After being launched and fitted out, the sand and gravel and leveling it off into 3sea and started for San Francisco. All sprinkling the top with water, and finally, went well until Sept. 9, when the ship ran keeping a herd of 115 goats in motion over into a storm. The stanchions gave way, the top. When the animals were first put boats were smashed, the galley was washed to work they tired easily and were able to overboard, the cabin was flooded, and final- stand it but a part of the day. They were ly the cargo shifted. While the ship was fed for a few days on peas and hay, which lying on her beam ends the fore-topgallant brought them into good spirits, and were mast went by the board, and it looked as afterward able to run about all day. Goats though the ship was doomed.

It was regular Cape Horn weather, and India, but this is probably the first dam the men were almost dead from cold. In that has been consolidated in this manner Let us take a look first at the Mineral spite of the fact that death was imminent, in the United States. Department. The importance of Ontario's the Captain's daughters were not dismay. One of the interesting features in the mineral resources has long been acknow- ed. They made coffee over the coal oil design of many new locomotives is the inledged, but the vastness of our mineral stove in the cabin and served it to the creased length given to the ports through other building material, many specimens time and refused to work. Many of them for passenger, freight, switch and work lo-The facade, fronting on the main aisle and, with steaming hot coffee, into which from 100 to 125 miles to a pint of cylinder

WEAPONS OF WAR.

Forefathers.

The Greek pike was 24 feet long. The mediæval lance was 18 feet. The standard Roman sword was 22

The rabbis say Cain killed Abel with a David slew Goliath with a sling-stone B.

The cross-bow came into use in the twelfth century.

Projecting engines were first invented by the Greeks.

Mixed chain and plate armor was used from 1300 to 1410. but a light cuirass.

The French infantry were armed with is encouraging. the pike until 1640.

Damascus blades were famous all over the world B.C. 500.

Greek swords were short cut-and-thrust eaf-shaped blades. The crossbows of the fourteenth century weighed fifteen pounds.

Insane People Cannot Cry.

all fungi, and is the cause of the cucumber a little. The utility of growing palms with madness is the utter absence of tears After a short time Leake began to suffer and ferns and such things may be disputed amid the insane. Whatever the form of with acute pains in the region of his stom-Large numbers of sailors have deserted be observed that rhubarb is the only fruit by cavillers of the utilitarian stamp, but madness, tears are conspicuous by their ach, and applied to a physician, who diagfrom the British warships in New York which contains binoxalate of potash in con- there are rich people whose hobby it is to absence, as much in the depression of nosed his trouble as indigestion and proharbour, likely attracted by the higher pay junction with an acid. It is this ingredient indulge in such a pastime, and the heauty melancholy or excitement of mania as in ceeded to treat him for it. which renders this fruit so wholesome at and luxuriance of these specimens will have the utter apathy of dementia. If a patient But the pains increased and it soon beits influence in dispelling to some extent the in a lunatic asylum be discovered in tears came a matter of impossibility for the sufidea that has too long prevailed that Canada it will be found that it is one beginning to ferer to retain any food except such as was is for the most of the year a land of ice and recover, or an emotional outbreak in an administered in a liquid form, and the decsnow. The display of plants was made up epileptic who is scarcely truly insane; while tor began to suspect that the cause by Messrs. Houston and Ewing of Toronto. actual insane persons appear to have lost of the trouble lay beyond the ordin-The vegetables, of which there is a large the power of weeping, it is only returning ary phases of indigestion, and declared an quantity, are not yet fully arrayed, owing reason which can once more unloose the operation necessary. It was with difficulty to vexatious delays of various kinds, but fountain of their tears. Even when a luna- that Leake was prevailed on to submit to it is expected will be ready for inspection | tic is telling one in fervid language how | this, but he finally consented. oil; the horse-radish derives its flavor cultural building just north of the fruit the outrages that have been perpetrated on abdomen and intestines, but without findherself, her eye is never even moist. The ing any disturbing object, though it was obready gush of tears which accompanies the served that the stomach was distended to About a mile to the south of the horti- plaint of the sane woman contrasts strangely nearly twice its normal size. Leake finally nutritious of gummy and glutinous substan- section is particularly attractive, the var- all the misery of the insane they find no shoots, had actually attacked the walls of ious grains and grasses being used in the relief in tears.

ENGINEERING NEWS.

An ingenious method of making weldless, cold-drawn tubes for machine parts, Iowa, Kansas, Illinois, or other Western where strength and accuracy are required, tempt to vie with them in this extent of | nal. The steel from which the new tubes their exhibit in this particular line, but in are made is of a special quality, and is catalogue of the attractions. It is, in truth, more general attention as a training school quired shape, closed at one end. This end a dreamplace; marvellous as having become for scientific farmers. The big cheese is is cut off after the final drawing is completmind can realize anything more than an fully installed, and no one who can possibly ever a person wishes to mail a letter he has impression of bigness, from the fact avoid it should come here before the middle only to stop a car and drop the envelope in that there are 633 acres and 200 of June, at least, as only disappointment its box, for which privilege he is charges 2c. The convenience of such a system in suburban districts is apparent, for while the Government is constantly increasing the speed and number of the mail trains there is very little progress in delivering the letters after they have been received or How Capt. Scott's Daughters Cheered up in collecting them for mailing. Another advantage lies in the great ease with which The British ship Hyderabad has just a letter could be mailed in disagreeable after a most eventful voyage of 272 days. letter box or a post office, but living on a little, and it needs all the opening it can sidered good service, and for switch engines forty-five to fifty miles to a pint of lubricating oil and 125 to 150 miles to a pint of cylinder oil. These figures represent good average practice, but they are frequently exceeded with light trains, there being a record of a light passenger locomotive running 200 miles with but a pint of cylinder

This structure was formed by dumping have often been used for such a purpose in

One of the convenient uses to which electricity is being applied is in the operation of traveling and stationary cranes. Before its use for such a purpose the driving, in The helmet of Richard L weighed 25 any convenient and practical manner, of this kind of machinery was a puzzling problem. Rope drives and square shafting were extensively introduced and fulfilled the requirements, but there was always a feeling that something better could be designed. Electricity has been used with much success, however, on traveling cranes and it now is being introduced for jib and The pulley-drawn crossbow had a range other stationary cranes. For the latter purpose the motors are made of special form and drive the hoists through cut spur gears The motors are of a slow-speed type, which can be reversed or driven at variable speeds by the man in charge. It was a more diffcult problem to fit electric apparatus to a Gustavus Adolphus abolished all armor jib crane than a traveler, and the fact that it has been done successfully several times

A Tree Started in His Stomach.

A Trimble, Tenn., dispatch says :- A Shields were not used in England after strange case is puzzling local medical practitioners, and the most prominent of the fraternity from Memphis and Nashville. John Henry Leake, a stalwart negro living on the plantation of R. L. Strong, a week or two since ate a lemon and swallowed one of the seeds, which, it seems, lodged in his stomach, and, attracting to it a certain proportion of the food subsequently eaten by him, was soon surrounded by a clot or mass One of the most curious facts connected of matter which gradually grew larger.

the stomach as a creeping plant does a walk