—Division Court on Monday helped to add to the number of farmers who came in to the spring fair. The sitting of the court was extended into the evening and even then some cases were held over for next court. Judge Ketchum presided on the bench.

—Messrs. W. T. Wood, B. Van Hornig and H. Hunter went out to Port Hope on Saturday to join with the town boys in a game of cricket with Trinity College. Beaver says they were beaten by five runs but the result would have been more disastrous had not been for the Millbrook contingent.

—The Rev. Dr. Armstrong of Ottawa, son of Mr. John D. Armstrong of our village is a candidate for the chair of apologetic and Church history in Knox College, Toronto, made vacant by the resignation of Rev. Prof. Gregg. Dr. Armstrong was unanimously nominated for the position at yesterday's meeting of the Presbytery of Ottawa.

—We have received a copy of the Huntsville Enterprise, a new paper started in the northern part of our province and in its general make-up and matter it has started right in from the first to give its readers a first-class paper. With the Enterprise at Huntsville and friend Whalley's new one at Parry Sound, the residents of the rocky north will not be at a loss for vigorous reading.

—We understand that Mr. Alf Raper has made arrangements to occupy the Dominion Hotel, intending to renovate it from cellar to garret and run it as a temperance house with special attention to the requirements of the travelling public. We wish him every success, feeling certain that the house will be properly conducted.

—Clara Ford had been acquitted by the jury of the murder of Young Westwood at the trial held last week in Toronto. The confession which she made after her arrest did not seem to be believed by the jury, she having sworn that it was all untrue and given under great pressure and agitation. While the verdict seems to have been received with approval, the unanswered question still remains, who killed the young man.

—Perhaps the best drove of cattle that ever came into Millbrook were brought in last week by Mr. Jos. Dawson of South Monaghan, to be shipped to the Old Country by Mr. Jno. Eakins. They were seven four year old steers, weighing 1500 lbs. each for which Mr. Dawson received the handsome sum of $500. Mr. Dawson fed these animals on his ranch in South Monaghan and there is little doubt that they paid him well and it would be a good thing if more of that class of stock were raised.

—We did not anticipate that our cotem. the Times would take kindly to our words of admonition, that something which is lacking in their upper story precluded any such hopeful conclusion, but there is a prospect that there will yet be a change of ways. We haven't lost hope yet, however, having observed others who had wandered as far from the path of self-respect and decency come to their proper senses. Neither are we anxious to have the last word with such fish-wife sort of individuals wherever in scattering their dirty offal which should be kept at home to cover up their own unsavory carcasses. Let us try to pull yourself together Mr. Times, although the task may be herculean.

—For his thoughts were, To vice industries, but a nobler deeds, 't'rous and slothful." and you will yet have me respect for yourself and receive from our cotem. that recognition which rarity is sure to bestow. It is time you had learned the old adage that "the who live in glass houses should not throw stones." If you could only see yourself as others see you, you will be with your remarks, hide behind the folds of the paper where only the aoids seekers would find you, being ashamed of yourself as you were of your article.
