OPPORTUNITY PRESENTS ITSELF TO MILLBROOK THEATRE PATRONS

Millbrook people who saw Walt Disney's latest live-action production, "Old Yeller", in Peterborough recently enjoyed it immensely. Those who missed it will have another opportunity to see it next week, when this delightful comedy-drama of a family and an "old yeller" dog will be shown at the Capitol Theatre, Port Hope, beginning on Monday. Shows begin at 6.45 and 9.00, daylight-saving time, and the management advise out-of-town patrons to come early in the week, when good seats will be more plentiful than they will be later.

NOTICE

Golden Sheaf Rebekah Lodge will hold a Baking Sale in the I.O.O.F. Hall on Saturday, May 10. Remember the date.

Mrs. Liesemer conducted a hat and card contest which was won by Mrs. J. Wright.

The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. A. O'Brien, May 26th.

Hostesses, Mrs. E. Liesemer, Mrs. H. Lancashire, assisted Mrs. Payne in serving a delicious luncheon during a pleasant social hour.

IN MEMORIAM

Elmer—In loving memory of a dear father William Elmer, who passed away one year ago May 1st, 1957.

Dear father you are not forgotten,
Though on earth you are no more,

Still in memory you are with us,
As you were before.

—Ever remembered by sons
William, Norman and John, daughters Mary and Sarah.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Suttle Pritchard who passed away May 1, 1954.

God took her home
It was His will,
Within our hearts,
She liveth still.

—Sadly missed by husband and family.

PRESENTATION TO REV. M. AND MRS. CASE LEAVING MILLBROOK

The Young People's Society, and the members of Zion Pentecostal Church, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Clark, Cavan village, on Saturday evening, April 26th, for a social evening and presentation to the Rev. M. and Mrs. Case, as a slight token of their appreciation for their work while here. Mrs. Case had previously been presented with a gift from the Women's Missionary Council of which she was president. The Young People presented them with a carving set, and the Congregation with a coffee table and a step-up table. A social time was spent with music and games. The thanks of the Committee is extended to all those who helped in any way to the success of the evening, especially to Mr. and Mrs. Clark for opening their home, and to the J. W. Haw Funeral Home, for the loan of their chairs.

BAPTISM AT BAILIEBORO

The infant son of Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Quinn was baptised at Christ Church, Bailieboro, Sunday morning April 27th, 1958, by the rector, his father. The names given the baby were David Kevin. The godparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harkness, Ida. Following the morning service, the baptismal party returned to the rectory at Millbrook for dinner.
