

In Canada the return per dollar invested is higher on sheep than any other farm animal. Sheep are the only farm animals producing a prime product—wool — from grass alone.

Grace Church Ladies Aid

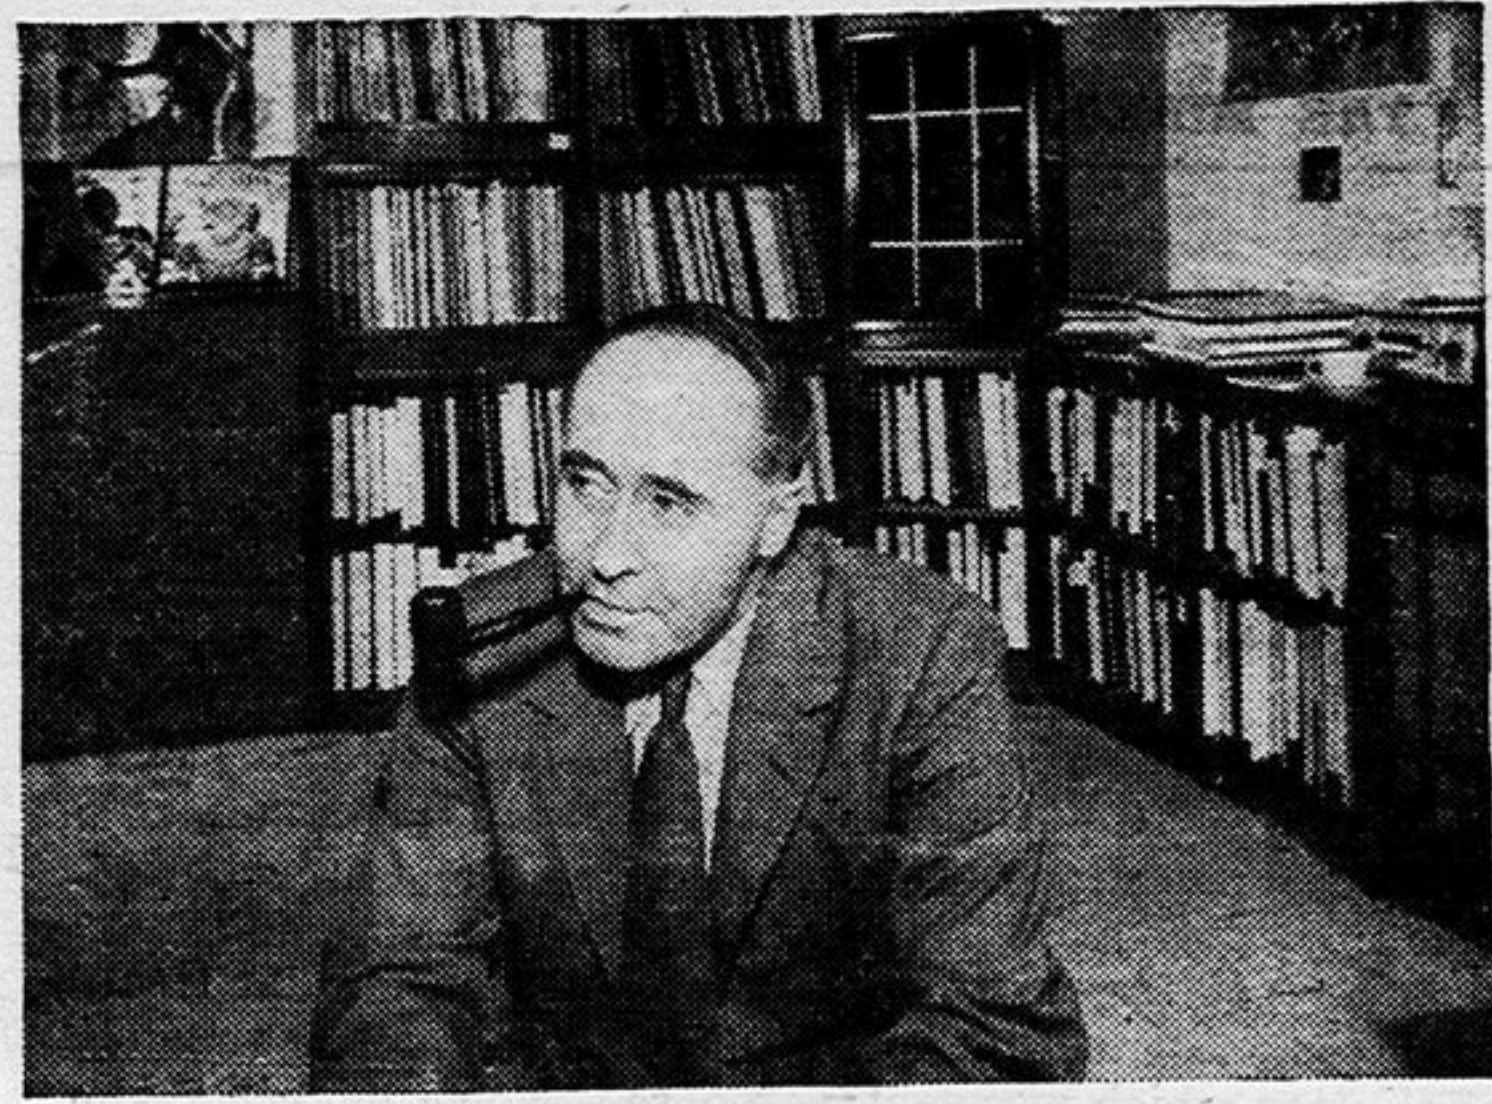

Grace Presbyterian Church Ladies' Aid held their May meeting at the home of Mrs. Eakins on Wednesday, May 6, with twelve members and one visitor present.

Mrs. L. Farrow opened the meeting with prayer; Mrs. Haw gave the Scripture reading of Psalm 26.

Hymn "The churches one foundation" was sung.

Roll called and minutes of last meeting read and adopted. Treasurer gave her report, and business was discussed.

Mrs. L. Farrow expressed her thanks to hostess for meeting, the next to be held at Mrs. Haw's on June 2nd. Meeting closed with Mizpah benediction. Hostess served a cup of tea.

HOST OF NEW RADIO SHOW

Host for CBC radio's new series, Festival in Sound, is Clyde Gilmore, newspaper columnist nationally known for his syndicated movie and record reviews. In Festival in Sound, he will present some of Canada's top vocalists and instrumentalists in the popular music field, including artists such as Phyllis Marshall, Phil Nimmons, Sylvia Murphy and Moe Koffman. This new program is broadcast twice a week, on Tuesday and Friday evenings, over the Trans-Canada network of CBC radio.

Sunday Morning At St. Andrew's

May 14th, Rev. Dr. Steed in charge.

The Scripture lesson— Luke 15:11-32. The parable of the prodigal son, but dealt in his sermon with "The prodigal father," under the following points:

The father. 1st Prodigal in his provision, able to grant the younger son's request, for his share in the protection in advance.

2nd Prodigal in his decisions. When he saw the restless discontent of his younger son and his irritation with the behaviour of the older brother, after warning him of the conditions he would find in the cities and towns, he grants him his request.

3rd. Prodigal in his patience with his two sons. God pleads with us, "Come and let us reason together, saith the Lord." Isaiah 2:18.

4th. Prodigal in his passionate love for his wayward son. Luke 15:20.

5th. Prodigal in his forgiveness. Luke 15:22.

6th. Prodigal in his pleasure, great feast of rejoicing in welcome to his returning repentant son. Luke 22:24.

God has made provision for all his children, but the abundant supplies are not properly distributed. That is human responsibility.

The senior choir contributed an anthem, and Mrs. Lawrence Winslow the solo, "Stranger of Galilee."

Closing prayer, "Lord make us worthy servants of Thee, and reflectors of the grandness of Thy character.
