STILL NOISES.

OUR lines of Dry Goods are so well selected, so thoroughly reliable, so reasonable in price, that although they are inanimate, they proclaim their superiority.

WHILE THEY ARE SILENT THEY CRY OUT

People who are regular patrons of our store often marvel at the inducements we offer. Come see us. Goods speak for themselves.

Thread Talks
Ribbons Roar
Silks Sing
Calicoes Cry
Hosiery Hurrahs
Satins Shout
Laces Laugh
Flannels Fume

ANYBODY

Who has been unfortunate enough never to have visited our store should take the first opportunity to do so. Here he will find ANYTHING great variety to select from stands in strange contrast with our unvarying principle of selling everything at the bottommost margin. In doing this there is scarcely any profit on one article; but a little profit on each of many sales suits us better than a big per cent. on a few. In this way we have the pleasure both of success in business and of benefitting the many instead of the few. Can we not benefit YOU?

LONG INDUCEMENTS AND SHORT PROFITS.

THE remarkable facts in connection with our business methods are long inducements and short profits. We keep things moving, for to stand still is to go backwards. The way to push things is to offer more for less money than any one else. This we always do, and in doing it we are constantly dancing a business reel. The way to get yourself talked about is to be different from other people. Simulation and imitation are so common that no attention is paid to them. But by selling rich goods at poverty prices we not only create a desire for talking, but also a desire for buying.

VALUE.

The value of a dollar is generally put down at 100 cents. Those who buy of us, however, often carry away our goods feeling that they are getting the value of 200 cents for $1. We have only one object in advertising—to let the public know how thoroughly we combine perfection of style, fit and finish with moderate prices.

Vice-President—T. G. Kells.
Committee—C. Needler, A. Vance, H.
Hunter, H. M. Wood and L. F. Clarry.
Captain—W. T. Wood.

It was decided that the regular weekly
practice be held on Friday afternoons from four until seven o'clock. The club's material will be at the disposal of the members for practice every evening. The members are earnestly requested to get as much practice as possible as it is proposed to play several matches. The secretary solicits challenges from local clubs.

THE 24TH OF MAY.

The Queen's Birthday Celebrated in Grand Style in Millbrook.

The 74th birthday of Queen Victoria was duly celebrated here, the people turning out in large numbers to witness the sports at the fair grounds, which were conducted under the auspices of No. 1 fire company.

Shortly after one o'clock the Kalithumpians, headed by the citizens' band, emerged from the sheds at the Presbyterian church on Tupper-st., and proceeded along King-st., westward to the station, when they proceeded to the grounds. They were composi-ed of many grotesque and humorous representations, and afforded much amusement to the spectators along the sidewalks.

Arrived at the grounds an interesting lacrosse match took place between the Millbrook and Peterboro' teams, resulting in a victory for Peterboro' by two games. A good programme of sports was also gone through, the various events being keenly contested.

Colorless, Emaciated, Helpless
A Complete Cure by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

This is from Mr. D. M. Jordan, a retired farmer, and one of the most respected citizens of Onsego Co., N. Y.

"Fourteen years ago I had an attack of the gravel, and have since been troubled with my Liver and Kidneys

gradually growing worse. Three years ago I got down so low that I could scarcely walk.
I looked more like a corpse than a living being.
I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gravel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue.
HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA was recommended and I thought I would try it. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, suddenly less, the inflammation of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could get anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to

Hood's Sarsaparilla
I feel well and am well. All who know me marvel to see me so well." D. M. JORDAN.
