"HOMES FOR VISITORS TO THE WORLD'S FAIR."

The above is the title of a very useful book just published, a copy of which can be seen at the G. T. R. town ticket office, Millbrook. It is certainly a complete work, as it furnishes a list of families in Chicago who will accommodate visitors during the period of the World's Columbian Exposition, also a list of the hotels in the city. Chicago is plainly shown in sections by map. Those who intend visiting the great fair should avail themselves of this opportunity of posting themselves, as all necessary arrangements as to rooms, etc., can be made before leaving home. The use of this book is offered free to all.

THE FINEST IN THE DOMINION, and they are offered at low prices

THE BAIN WAGGON

Is the lightest running, and is a general favorite. It is a model of strength and durability. Its gears are soaked in boiling oil, expelling all moisture and imparting great toughness to the wood. The patent truss axle adds greatly to the value of the wagon. I control the sale of this wagon in the Townships of Cavan and Manvers.

DISTRICT HAPS AND MISHAPS

Cavanville.

The Patrons of Industry held a very successful picnic on the ninth line of Cavan on Tuesday afternoon. There was a very large number of people in attendance and the weather was delightfully cool. Two prominent grand officers of the order had promised to be present and deliver addresses, but neither of them put in an appearance. A platform had been erected and a number of interesting speeches were delivered by Messrs. Acheson, R. Matchett, Isaac Preston, S. E. Ferguson, Geo. Campbell and Dr. T. G. Brereton. Mr. Sisson occupied the chair very acceptably. A baseball match between Cavanville and Millbrook attracted a good deal of attention, but owing to the lateness of the hour at which it was commenced, the game was not completed. The Millbrook brass band was in attendance and during the afternoon entertained the proceedings with some very choice music.

Farmers hereabouts are busily engaged attending to the all important duty of washing their sheep, large droves being washed in the tail race below the Cavanville mill every day. While Messrs. John and Chas. McNeil were engaged in this work on the 2nd inst., one of their large ewes died. Messrs. Weir and Twamley are running their saw-mill up to its fullest capacity every day in order to get through with the large amount of custom sawing they have on hand. Mr. Samuel Biglow of Cavanville is their head sawyer and first-class work is being turned out.

Our enterprising blacksmiths and carriage makers, Messrs. Dunsford & Fletcher and Mr. W. Finney, are busily engaged turning out buggies, wagons and carts, which are a credit to the makers. Farmers can always rely on getting a good job done by these first-class mechanics.

Messrs. Weir and Twamley intend placing their mill dam in a first class state of repair this summer, which it greatly needs.

Messrs. John Beatty and J. N. Morrow returned home safely after a visit to their friends in Peterboro'.

Mr. Albert Elliott, section boss on the C. P. R., is unable to attend to his duties on account of illness.

The Rev. Mr. Foster occupied the pulpit here on Sunday night and preached an eloquent sermon to an appreciative audience.

We understand that our Cavanville miller is about to close a bargain with Mr. Lang's Beatty for his cream trotter, "Dolly."

Pontypool.

Mr. J. D. Windell arrived home from Toronto last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Williamson of Lindsay, have been visiting at Mr. T. H. Williamson's.

Rev. Thos. S. McKee has been attending conference in Oshawa this week.

In Mr. McKee's absence, Rev. W. C. Windell occupied the Methodist pulpit on Sabbath last.

A foot-ball match will be played between the junior team of Bethany and Pontypool at Ballyduff on Saturday next the 10th inst. A lacrosse match between the crack teams of Lindsay and Millbrook will also be played on the same grounds.

Report of Public School examination.—Subject, Arithmetic. Marks to be obtained, 100. W. Kennedy 92; A. McRoberts 83; V. Cain 82; L. Coulter 59; E. Eldridge 50. Subject, Literature. Marks to be obtained, 100. W. Kennedy 90; A. McRoberts 82; V. Cain 68; E. Eldridge 35; A. Fair 25.

"Brace Up"

Is a tantalizing admonition to those who at this season feel all tired out, weak, without appetite and discouraged. But the way in which Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up the tired frame and gives a good appetite, is really wonderful. So we say, "Take Hood's and it will brace you up."

For a general family cathartic we confidently recommend Hood's Pills.

THE "REPORTER" from now Till Jan. '94 for 50c.

Centreville.

The Rev. Mr. McKenzie preached in our Presbyterian church last Sabbath and was highly appreciated by his many hearers. The Rev. Mr. Niven of St. Catharines will occupy the pulpit next Sunday.

Mr. R. Tait of Toronto spent Sunday at the home of his brother, Mr. J. Tait.

Mr. James Lang of Peterboro' spent Sunday with his brother, Mr. R. Lang.

Mr. and Miss Whittington spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Isaac Larmer.

Miss Wright of Millbrook and Miss Armstrong of Cavan, were the guests of Mrs. James Porter on Sunday last.

Several of our Presbyterian friends from this part were at the Presbytery meeting held in Millbrook last Tuesday, when a unanimous call from the Presbyterian church here to the Rev. Mr. Cattanach was handed in, and we are pleased to note has been accepted. The induction service will take place on the 27th June.

Mr. Jas. Peel had a ploughing bee on Friday last.

Kendall.

On Saturday afternoon, May 27th, a deep gloom was cast over the village by the news of the death of Miss Mary Etta McLean, one of the village's fairest daughters. She was 27 years of age, and a general favorite amongst her numerous acquaintances. Last Christmas, while on visit to her relatives in Port Hope, she was taken seriously ill, and after a long period of suffering died at the residence of her brother, Mr. James McLean.

The funeral from Port Hope was attended by many citizens of the town. The body was brought to the home of her sister, Mrs. J. D. Falls, Kendall, where services were conducted by her former pastor, the Rev. Mr. Courtice; thence the funeral proceeded to the family burying ground. Deceased was well-known throughout the surrounding country, and was beloved by all who knew her. She was an active worker in the Methodist church here, where she presided as organist for many years. The funeral was one of the largest ever seen in this vicinity.

The Orange lodges in this district will hold a grand picnic at Oak Hill on Monday next, June 12th. A grand time may be expected.

Garden Hill.

It is our sad duty this week to record the death of Miss Margaret Leith, who passed away on Thursday last in the 52nd year of her age. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, when the high esteem in which the family is held throughout the county was amply shown by the large number of people who turned out to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased lady. There were in the vicinity of 130 rigs in the cortege. Millbrook, Cavan, Manvers, Clarke, South Monaghan, Port Hope and other places all contributed their quota. The remains were conveyed to St. Paul's church, Ferrytown, where services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Rooney, at the conclusion of which, the interment took place in the burying ground adjoining the church.

One Minute Cure for Toothache.

Toothache, the most common and one of the most painful affections, is instantly cured by the application of Poison's Nerviline. Poison's Nerviline is a combination of powerful anodynes, and it strikes at once to the nerves, soothing them and affording in one minute total relief from pain. Mothers, try it for your children's toothache. Nerviline is sold in 10 and 25 cent bottles by all druggists.
