Our extensive and growing trade enables us to buy in large quantities and consequently can buy and sell at the closest figures.

—The Peterboro Examiner says; Miss Annie Kells, Millbrook, is the guest of Mrs. R. H. Kells, London-st. for a few days.

—Miss Nellie Lockhart, of Brighton, who has been visiting at the residence of Mr. Jos. Kelly, Cavan, spent a few days with the Misses Pentry last week.

—Mr. J. Crocker, of the Dominion hotel, has had erected within the past week a driving shed for the accommodation of the public, which takes the place of the one destroyed by fire last year.

—Do not buy the inferior quality of Paris Green which is sold by some dealers, but go straight to A. T. Elliott's drug store and get the best English green at 25c. a pound.

—The old dilapidated side-walk in front of the Dominion hotel has been replaced by a new one, which considerably improves the appearance of that portion of King-st.

—Tom Kemble, the entire horse owned by Mr. James Forster, died on Wednesday last from the effects of a kick received from another horse. This is a heavy loss to Mr. Forster as he only came into possession of the animal this season.

—Mr. John Johnston of North Monaghan is doing an excellent business in the sale of the Provan hay forks. This is without doubt the latest and best fork now in use. It has been in competition with the best in the market for six seasons and its superiority over all has been so clearly proven that it is now generally admitted. Every farmer will find it to his advantage to consult Mr. Johnston regarding his hay fork.

—At the meeting of the counties council last week the sum of $100 was granted to assist Millbrook in opening the new street.

—The report that Grand Master Wallace will address the Orangemen at Port Hope on the Twelfth is incorrect. He will speak in Nova Scotia on that day.

—The Port Hope dominion day celebration committee will charge 35 cents for admission to the grounds, instead of 25 cents as formerly. It seems to be a pretty stiff price to see a fake show.

—As some of our customers were unable to consult Mr. Jury on account of the excessive heat Tuesday, he will return on Saturday next and may be found at A. T. Elliott's drug store from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

—Just arrived at R. J. Doak's, the largest prettiest and cheapest stock of wall paper ever shown in Millbrook. See this stock before buying. Remnants of last year's stock sold at great sacrifice. Buy early and secure the plums. 10

—This is the weather which makes the hard overworked citizen feel like getting out of town and heaving himself to some watering place where the aquatic piscatorial and natatory diversions which are so indigenous, so to speak, to such habitations, may be universally participated in.

—Retiring from business. Having decided to leave town I have resolved to run off my stock at greatly reduced prices. Call at once and leave your order for photos. First-class work guaranteed regardless of price. F. W. PEACY. 25-2

—A garden party under the auspices of Ebenezer church, 12th Con. of Cavan, will be held at the residence of Mr. David Sharpe on the evening of Friday, June 23. The Citizens' band of Millbrook will be in attendance. A good programme of vocal and instrumental music will also be rendered. Gates open at 7 o'clock, tea served at 8.

—Rev. Mr. McCamus, the new pastor of the Methodist church here, will arrive to-day, and to-morrow evening will be given a reception. Rev. Mr. Young will not take charge of his new appointment in Peterboro until next week, as Mr. Locke does not leave till then for his post in Toronto. Mr. Young will officiate in Little Britain next Sunday.

—At the last joint meeting of the directors of the East Durham and Cavan agricultural societies the following resolution was adopted: Moved by Capt. Winslow, seconded by Mr. J. W. Martin, that the thanks of this meeting be tendered to Messrs. Stratton and Campbell, M. P. P's, for their influence in having the agriculture and arts act amended so as to suit the municipal grant in Cavan, and the secretary be instructed to send a copy of this resolution to each of these gentlemen.

—The travelling dairy from the Ontario agricultural college paid a visit to our town last Monday and was visited by a goodly number of ladies and gentlemen from the surrounding neighborhood. Prof. Dean did the talking and Mr. McTavish made the butter from cream supplied by Capt. Winslow. The lecturer, however, did not tell anything about butter making but what almost every farmer's wife and daughter knows.

—The counties council has appointed a committee consisting of Messrs. Preston, McCallum, Fowlds and Alex. Ferguson, to investigate and report on the advisability of establishing a house of refuge for these united counties, also the cost of the maintenance of the poor under the present system, the cost of maintenance in counties which have houses of refuge and the probable cost. This resolution was carried on a division of 21 to 19.

—One of our enterprising farmers feels very much disgusted just now. The other day while he was in the barn he saw a me straw moving, and after watching it for some time concluded that it was a weasel. A stuffed weasel is a far better weasel than a live one, so our friend concluded that he would give Squire Gillott a job. He went into the house and loaded up his shot gun with a good big allowance of shot and, returning to the barn, he "let her go, Gallagher," and after she went there was a stillness that was almost as thick as Dr. Gordon's breath. Our gallant friend then lifted the straw up to get the weasel, and he got it, but it wasn't a weasel. It was a setting turkey, and it was a dead turkey, and the shot had broken all the eggs.

—The bass and maskinonge season opened on Friday last, and many of our people have availed themselves of the opportunity of visiting Rise lake and enjoying the splendid fishing to be found there. The fish never were more plentiful nor more easily caught than now and we know of no more delightful trip than a sail on the lake with a trolling line astern. Mr. Arnott of the Lakeview House, is very courteous to all who seek his aid and advice, and his charges for boats, etc., are exceedingly low. With a nice cool breeze blowing over the water and half a dozen four pound bass in the bottom of the boat, anyone might well feel happy, and that seems to be the experience of everyone who goes out fishing from Bewdley.

—The committee for the arrangement of the Presbyterian Sabbath school excursion and picnic have now made final arrangements as to the date, etc. The excursion will take place on Wednesday, July 5th, by G. T. R. to Chemong, thence by steamer Maple Leaf to the beautiful summer resort on Buckhorn lake. This will be one of the most delightful trips of the season, affording as it does a good view of the Indian village and a sail through the beautiful waters of Chemong and Buckhorn lakes, the scenery of which is unsurpassed in Canadian waters. Trains will leave stations as follows:

Garden Hill, 7.38; Summit, 7.48; Millbrook, 7.55; Frazerville, 8.08. Fare from Garden Hill, 85c.; Summit, Millbrook and Frazerville 75c.; Childrea under 12, 35c. The Citizens' band of Millbrook will be in attendance and every other provision possible is being made to make the outing an enjoyable one.

—A revolting story of cruelty to animals comes to us from the neighborhood of Bewdley. It seems that a brute in human form was leading a two-year-old colt to pasture the other day and the animal somehow stepped on the man's foot. The fellow lost his temper and taking a club he belabored the poor beast until its tongue hung out of its mouth. He then tore the tongue out of its mouth and turned the colt out in the pasture. A neighbor very mercifully shot the poor thing and put an end to its sufferings. We cannot conceive of a form of punishment that would be sufficient to mete out to the miserable scoundrel.
