SCHOOL TRIP

by Rosemary Richards

Thirty pupils of Grades 5 to 8 at Fairview & Zion Schools, accompanied by their teachers, Mrs. Larmer and Mrs. Robinson, and bus-owner Mr. Jerry Stock left Fairview School at 8 a.m. Tuesday, June 12, and rode to Toronto, where they visited Riverdale Zoo, Union Station, the Parliament Buildings and Malton Airport, where they received various small souvenirs.

A weary but satisfied group returned home at 9 o'clock after a very enjoyable day.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Richardson and girls.

Mr. George Ellsworth tells us that Mr. Fred White is "on the mend" in Civic Hospital, where he was taken week ago today for what we are informed was a hemorrhage in the head, but not of the brain. Mr. Ellsworth will visit him again today.

We are happy to hear that the Rev. Edgar Palfrey may be well enough to come home this weekend from Civic Hospital, where, in the past three weeks, he has had operation;

This getting up and going to work every morning sure breaks into my whole day.
