Catarrh, Heart Failure, Paralysis of the Throat

"I Thank God and Hood's Sarsaparilla for Perfect Health."

"Gentlemen: For the benefit of suffering humanity I wish to state a few facts: For several years I have suffered from catarrh and heart failure, getting so bad I could not work and

Could Scarcely Walk

I had a very bad spell of paralysis of the throat some time ago. My throat seemed closed and I could not swallow. The doctors said it was caused by heart failure, and gave medicine, which I took according to directions, but it did not seem to do me any good. My wife urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, telling me of Mr. Joseph C. Smith, who had been

At Death's Door

but was entirely cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. After talking with Mr. Smith, I concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. When I had taken two bottles I felt very much better. I have continued taking it, and am now feeling excellent. I thank God, and

and my wife for my restoration to perfect health." HARVEY HEED, LACEYVILLE, O.

HOOD'S PILLS do not purge, pain or grip, but act promptly, easily and efficiently. 2c.

The Millbrook Reporter.

R. R. ELLIOT, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

THURSDAY, JULY 6, 1893.

The Dominion government has refused to pardon Brass Dog Arnoldi, and the Dominion government has done quite right.

CHARLEY MACKINTOSH, M. P. of Ottawa, will become Lieutenant-Governor of the Northwest, and Alex. Ross, M. P., of Lisgar, will be the next Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba. They'll do.

It is exceedingly gratifying to learn that in the whole province of Ontario, after the most persistent canvassing, only about $600 could be scraped up to buy a present for Princess George and Princess May, of Teck to prove Canada's loyalty to Georgie's grandma. The people have done well in sitting upon such toadyism.

Major VanIngen's Death.

Cobourg World
In February last Abram J. VanIngen was seized with paralysis which, after many fluctuations, ultimately proved fatal on June 25th. Deceased was born at Schenectady, N. Y., in 1828, and was the eldest son of the late Wm. VanIngen. He was educated at Cobourg and followed mercantile pursuits here for several years. He then became mail clerk on the G. T. R. between Toronto and Kingston, and afterwards went into the auctioneer business in this district. For the past seven years he has been Collector of Customs at Newcastle. For 12 years he was Major in the 40th Batt. He has been elected several times Grand Secretary of the Loyal Orange Lodge for Ontario East, and was a member of St. John's Lodge, No. 17, A. F. and A. M. The funeral took place here on Wednesday, June 28th under Masonic auspices. Services at the grave were conducted by the Rev. Can on Sprague and Rev. W. H. A. French of Grafton, Masonic chaplain. The following representative Orangemen were present at the funeral:—Rev. J. I. Halliwell, grand chaplain, Vankleek Hill; Past Grand Master T. B. Collins, Millbrook; W. M. Johnston, Belleville; past grand lecturers, James Evans and R. H. Holland, Port Hope; County Master John Hughes, Newtonville; District Master E. J. W. Burton, Port Hope, J. J. Preston, Manvers, and J. R. Reid, Clarke. A beautiful tribute from the Orange Grand Lodge was laid on the tomb. Major VanIngen had hosts of friends who extend their heartfelt sympathy to his bereaved wife and surviving brother—Mr. W. H. VanIngen, Collector of Customs at Woodstock.

The Magazine of the Future.

The July Cosmopolitan will mark the most radical step ever taken in periodical literature. With that issue the magazine, unchanged in form, in fact, one of the best numbers of the Cosmopolitan ever issued, will be put on sale at twelve and one-half cents per copy—$1.50 a year. The cutting in half of a price already deemed low for an illustrated magazine is the result of an intention long since formed, to give to the public an illustrated monthly of the very highest class at such a price as must bring it within the reach of all persons of intellectual tastes, however limited their incomes. There are more than ten million readers in the United States and less than eight hundred thousand magazines are printed to supply their demands. More than four years have been spent in reaching the organization necessary for the production of the Cosmopolitan at this price, a figure hitherto undreamed of by the reading world. Each department of the work has been slowly perfected until with January number of this year one hundred and fifty thousand copies of the magazine were prepared upon presses and machinery of the most improved form, built with a view to producing the finest results at the minimum of expense—the only establishment in the world, it is believed, devoted exclusively to the printing of an illustrated monthly magazine. To establish a magazine upon such a basis at the outset was impossible. Only the rapid growth of the Cosmopolitan's editions, almost unprecedented in magazine records, has produced the conditions which make this departure from established prices possible. The Cosmopolitan promises to make the year 1893 the most brilliant in its history. No other year has seen such an array of distinguished names as will appear on its title page during 1893. De Maupassant, Mark Twain, George Ebers, Valdez, Shielhagen, Francois, Coppee, Flammarion, and Paul Heyse, are some of the authors whose work will appear for the first time during this year in the pages of the Cosmopolitan. Among the artists whose work will decorate its pages for the first time during 1893 are Laurens, Ponsaint, Viereg, Rochegrosse and Schwabe. William DeWitt Howells will be a regular contributor during 1893-94. A feature of the July number will be triple frontpieces by Rochegrosse and Guillonnet.

The Poor House.

The Campbellford Herald thus refers to the proposal of the counties council to erect a house of refuge for the different municipalities comprising the united counties: "It is encouraging to know that the councillors of these united counties are falling into line with the movement towards the establishment of a home for the poor. At the late session of the counties' council in Cobourg, a resolution was passed by a vote of 21 to 10, appointing a committee to report upon the advisability of erecting a house where the aged and crippled and the unfortunate ones in the great struggle for bread, might find a place in which to rest the remainder of their days. Perhaps the chief objection of some of the council to this movement is that of expense; but since it has been shown that the cost to each municipality in the maintenance of a house of refuge would be less than the yearly indigent fund, there ought to be a general feeling in favor of this laudable work. It is to be hoped the more generous, humane representatives of our counties' council will prevail over the penurious, stony-hearted fags, and erect this monument of good-will and love somewhere in Northumberland and Durham."

—Rheumatism Cured in a Day. South American Rheumatic Cure for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. 75 cents. Warranted by A. LEACH, Druggist.

The Flery Fluid at Cobourg.

Cobourg Post
On Monday afternoon a severe thunder storm visited Cobourg, but although no serious damage was done, there were some narrow escapes. During the storm Mr. Martin Pender was working in Mr. House's barn, when a flash of lightning struck the flag pole, splintering it considerably and sending Mr. Pender "all in a heap," and rendered him insensible for some little time. One of Mr. Crossen's horses was also knocked down, and for a short time affairs were pretty busy about the office.

A soft, fair skin is the result of pure blood and a healthy liver, to secure which, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the Superior Medicine. Ladies who rely upon cosmetics to beautify their complexions, should make a note of this, bearing in mind that they can't improve upon nature.

In old times it seemed to be thought that a medicine must be nauseating to be effective. Now, all this is changed. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one of the most powerful alteratives, is agreeable to most palates, the favor being by no means medicinal.
