EDITORIAL OF SORTS
 The Millbrook council has been the main topic of discussion for a couple of weeks now, so I think I will continue by complimenting them on the improvement they made in the roads around the town last week. The substance they put on the roads should keep the dust down and make a better road to drive a car on, but it is the same old story as a gentleman of the town said. Some people do not appreciate a good road and by some people we mean the Halfwits of course.
 Halfwits don't appreciate anything. They get a good car and they see how fast they can throw the pistons out of it. They get a good set of tires on their car and they see how fast they can wear them down to the cords. It is the same with the roads. They spin the tires on it and see how fast they can tear it up and turn it back to a dusty old thing again so that when they go by people sitting on their verandahs, have to go inside or choke on the dust.
 I imagine by now some our readers are getting sick of hearing about halfwits, but there are also people who are sick of hearing them tear up and down the streets. Well maybe if enough people get sick of hearing them and about them in our editorials and then maybe something (I don't know what) will be done about them, and the councils' and the people's new roads will last longer and be safer to travel on.

Top-Rated Athlete ... First-Class Banker

To most people that might appear to be a strange combination. But it's not when you get to know John Edgar, Assistant Accountant at the Guelph Branch of The Toronto-Dominion Bank. Like most of the enthusiastic young men at "The Bank", John takes a keen interest in sports activities. He spends most of his spare time golfing, playing hockey or swimming. He's also an ardent collector of stamps and coins.

John is enthusiastic by nature. During his four years service with "The Bank", his genuine interest in people has won him many friends among Toronto-Dominion customers. Typical of the hundreds of friendly, efficient men and women you'll meet in our branches from coast to coast, John Edgar takes great pride in the "interested" kind of service he has to offer. Visit any of our branches soon and see for yourself why ...
