EDITORIAL OF SORTS

In to see us on Tuesday was Tom Scott of Niagara Falls, Ontario. Barney of the Cafe Barney brought him in. Tom is staying at Manvers Hill for a little of our peace and quiet while he struggles with a play for the legitimate theatre.

Tom has written publicity for Niagara's booming tourist industry. He was for some time with The Tussaud Wax Museum in Niagara.

Tom's poetry has been on radio and in The Canadian Forum. Most of his stories go to U.S. publications. We all may one day pick up a magazine and find in a story by Tom our very village as the setting for a mystery or a love-tale or a horror epic.

Some weeks ago we received from Ireland a copy of The Anglo-Celt, a 12-page newspaper serving Counties Cavan, Monaghan, Leitrim, Meath, Westmeath, Fermanagh, Louth and Longford. It (Please see next column.)

DARLING, WE ARE GROWING OLDER

On Page 3 Mr. Fowler announces his clearance sale. This happens once a year. It reminds us, now that we are growing older, Maggie, that the months go ever so quickly than they did. If you like quality goods at low prices, you will do well to visit the store during the sale.

Yours sincerely
 W. DeRose.

Dear Mr. DeRose,

We print the letter, but we doubt if it will help. We wish it would help. We, too, are aware of the profane & filthy talk of the few in Millbrook; but the many are clean-mouthed and decent. Please do not judge our village by the half-witted few. These few will either outgrow their thoughtless stage or become the fathers of foul-mouthed youths no wiser than themselves. Most of this gutter-talk is the bravo of youths who are unable to achieve in the things that really matter. Such will be the storeis of their lives. It is good that some sing in church choirs: maybe some of the decency that Jesus taught will enter them. All of us should learn what the great teachers taught, because all of us should be better than we are. Our ministers are trying to influence these young people for good. The Scouts, the Cubs, the Guides and Brownies are trying to teach the younger ones to value what is valuable and to ignore the junk. Our two schools are trying. There is even the rare pair of parents who are trying.

You mention that these young fellows mention girls by name. This is as the girls (Please see Page 4)

LETTER

Peterborough, Ontario,
 July 20, 1962.

Dear Sir,
 The Christmas tree pruning season is here again. I have worked the past few summers working on the trees and enjoyed the work. I have worked at different jobs and never heard such filthy talk as I have heard from the teen agers of your village, and talking about girls in the village, even mention their names.

A friend of mine was working there too, and he said that he wouldn't want to raise a daughter in that village.

Some of these young fellows come from respected families and one of them their father is a guard in the reformatory. The group of them took the hub caps off the car and filled them with stones.

their I.Q. is very low to stoop to such nonsense. I should mention their names but I'll have to ask my friend as he knows them all.

Some of these young fellows that work on the trees will be ending up in the reformatory. Some of them sing in a church choir too.

I hope that you will print this in your village paper, some people think "my boys wouldn't do that."
