CAVALIERS ODDFELLOWS.
Montreal Star.
On account of misrepresentations the Canadian Order of Oddfellows was said some time ago to be cut off from connection with the Manchester Unity. The Grand Lodge officers of the Canadian Order wrote to the A. M. C. and Board of Directors, and today Mr. H. Davis, secretary of Metropolitan Lodge of the Canadian Order of Oddfellows, received the reply that the Canadian Order still enjoys the same full privileges with that ancient and extensive society, the Manchester Unity, as it always heretofore experienced.

PETERBORO CHEESE BOARD.
All the Factories Sold—The Price Was 7-8c, Only Two Factories Going For Less—3-7-1885. Boarded.
The factories sold readily at the meeting of the Cheese Board Tuesday afternoon. All the factories except two sold for 7c. The buyers present were Messrs. Jones, Fitzgerald, Hodgson, Madden, Spence, Cook and Wright.

COMMITTEE REPORT.
Mr. Drummond read the following report:—
GENTLEMEN,—Your committee appointed to investigate the charge against certain factories for selling of the Board has been unable to expel, but, as there had been two marks and no sale with very hot weather and the salesman stating that their factories were filled, therefore under the extreme circumstances we would recommend that the matter be dropped.
