

It Takes More Than Good Intention

TO BE A GOOD EXECUTOR

IT TAKES "KNOW HOW" — TRAINING, EXPERIENCE AND SKILL.

A trust company does not die or move away, or go on holidays, and—Compensation to a Trust Company for handling an estate is allowed on the same basis as to an individual private executor.

WEDDING

Moffat—Bristow

A quiet wedding took place in the parsonage of the United Church, Bethany, on Saturday afternoon when the Rev. R. R. Bonsteel officiated for the double ring ceremony, uniting in marriage Miss Gayle Martha Bristow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Bristow of Bethany, and Mr. Allan Dentzel Moffat, son of Mrs. Moffat and the late Dennis Moffat of Fraserville.

The bride chose a waltz length gown of white satin, with fitted bodice and overskirt of nylon net. A headdress trimmed with sequins held her fingertip veil of embroidered tulle illusion, and she carried a cascade of red roses.

Her bridesmaid was Miss Leona Moffat, sister of the groom, who wore a waltz length dress of yellow taffeta and net with matching accessories and a nosegay of yellow and white mums.

The groom was attended by Mr. Bruce Peel of Peterborough.

Following the wedding a reception for about forty guests was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lamb.

Receiving the guests, the bride's mother, Mrs. Bristow, was wearing a gown of white floral taffeta with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother, Mrs. Moffat, also receiving, was wearing blue glazed cotton dress with white accessories and corsage of white carnations.

Later the couple left on their wedding trip, motoring through the United States, the bride travelling in a pink taffeta dress with matching hat and accessories.

They will make their home at 748 Water Street in Peterborough.—Examiner.

IF EVERYONE

By Seymour Taylor

If everyone who drives a car Could lie a month in bed, With broken bones and stitched-up wounds,

Or fractures of the head; And there endure the agonies That many people do, They'd never need preach safety

Any more to me or you. If everyone could stand beside The bed of some close friend And hear the Doctor say "No Hope"

Before that fatal end, And see him there unconscious Never knowing what took place, The laws of rules and traffic I am sure we'd soon embrace.

If every one could meet The wife and children left behind And step into the darkened home

Where once the sunlight shined, And look upon "the Vacant Chair,"

Where Daddy used to sit, I am sure each reckless driver Would be forced to think a bit. If everyone who takes the wheel Would say a little prayer,

And keep in mind those in the car Depending on his care, And make a vow and pledge himself

Never to take a chance. The Great Crusade for Safety Would suddenly advance.

BEWDLEY REGATA DRAWS LARGE NUMBER

Speed, spray and cheering crowds highlighted the Bewdley Regatta last Wednesday afternoon, July 31st, as top outboard racers, swimmers and canoe experts competed in the many events featured in the Community Board of Trade program.

Boys and girls, women and men, experts and amateurs took part in a varied, well organized regatta, sponsored by the municipal merchants, providing a day of much entertainment for the thousands of local and visiting spectators.

Opening feature in the regatta was a parade through the main street composed of old-time cars, bicycles and bands and novelty surprises.

A parade of boats, canoes, cruisers and sail crafts decorated with colorful flags introduced the day's races, which began with the men's double canoe race. This event was easily won by Perry and Austin Taylor, with Doug Farr and Dan McLeach coming second.

The day's regatta was ended with a big dance held in the evening in the Bewdley Hotel.

CANADA'S GROWING CITIES

Metropolitan Toronto is rapidly overtaking Montreal as Canada's largest city. Census figures for 1956 released by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics show that Toronto enjoyed a population increase of almost twenty-one percent in the last five years. Montreal's growth in the same period was only fourteen percent.

The population of Toronto in mid-1956 stood at 1,347,905, a gain of 230,435 since 1951 when the last decennial census was taken. Metropolitan Montreal's total was 1,595,327, an increase of 199,925 in five years.

Hamilton's metropolitan area population increased by 25 percent since 1951, Ottawa's by nineteen percent and Windsor's by seventeen percent.

An interesting fact about Toronto's rapid growth is that the population of the city proper actually declined by 13,658 during the last five years. Montreal's, on the other hand, jumped by 72,928. Toronto's population stood at 662,096, compared with 675,754 in 1951. Montreal recorded 1,094,448 people, as against 1,021,520 five years ago.—War Cry.
