Guthrie-Bigelow Wedding

Miss Janet Lillian Bigelow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bigelow of R.R. 1, Fraserville, and John Francis Guthrie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Guthrie of Millbrook, were united in marriage Saturday at the Bethany United Church.

Bouquets of summer flowers were the setting for the ceremony performed by Rev. R. R. Bonsteel.

Before the bride entered the church Mrs. Robert Burgess sang "Because," and during signing of the register she sang "The Wedding Prayer." The accompanying music was played by Mrs. Clarence Rowan.

The bride's gown had a bodice of Nalpac lace with scoop neckling outlined with applications of individual lace flowers, and the bouffant skirt of net over satin was highlighted by lace appliques shimmering with sequins.

Her shoulder veil of silk illusion was gathered to a pearl-trimmed lace hat and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and white shasta 'mums.

Mrs. Gordon Wood of Ottawa, Miss June Reid of Toronto and Miss Eleanor Rowan of Cavan were her attendants.

They were in street-length dresses of azure blue crystalite finished with back bows falling into streamers. Their headresses were bands of tiny flowers and they carried bouquets of pink shasta 'mums.

Mr. Donald Guthrie was his brother's groomsman and the ushers were Allan Bigelow and Lloyd Guthrie, brothers of the bride and groom.

Guests were present from Toronto, Orillia, Brampton, Ottawa, Peterborough, Bethany and Millbrook.

Receiving in the Sunday School room of the church, Mrs. Bigelow was wearing a dress in dusty rose shade trimmed with matching lace, a white hat and white accessories and corsage of pink sweetheart roses. The groom's mother was wearing an all-beige ensemble and her corsage was yellow sweetheart roses.

When the bride and groom left later to travel in New York State, Mrs. Guthrie wore a printed turquoise and white dress with white accessories and her corsage was of pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie will make their home at 465 Bolivar Street, Peterborough. —Examiner.

Seen On King Street During The Week

Stan Olan's Sawmill operating again. Can't hold a good man down, especially when he's full of ambition.

The sidewalks of New York have nothing on the sidewalks of Millbrook when it comes to youngsters playing on the street. It can also produce other interesting sights, such as a woman in a bathing suit with a hat on. Of course she may have just stepped out of a car for a few minutes, nevertheless she took no chances of anyone seeing her bare head.

The large elm tree back of the armourich still free of the Dutch elm disease. Let us hope it will always be such.

A load of pigs making music that would rival some of the squeals we hear on the radio, and the odd time the TV.

DOGS' DAY IN MILLBROOK YESTERDAY

Wednesday was dogs' day in the village when a fairly large number were brought to the Town Hall for Anti-Rabies vaccination.

From a rumour we heard, a coon was shot in the east end of the village last week that was said to have been frothing at the mouth. A good sign of rabies.
