OBITUARY

ROBERT H. JOHNSTON

Robert H. Johnston, a retired farmer at RR 1, Ida, died at home Saturday, July 29, after failing health for two months. He was 80.

Mr. Johnston was born in Cavan, but his family moved to Port Hope while he was a boy, and he attended school there and at Welcome.

He returned to Cavan in 1912 and farmed the rest of his life.

He was son of William Johnston and the former Jemima Young. His wife, who predeceased him was the former Bertha M. Slighte.

He was a member of Springville United Church congregation.

Surviving are sons Percy of RR 1, Ida, Earl of Peterborough and Elmer of Hensall; and brothers Albert of RR 2 Peterborough and Charles of Victoria Harbor.

The funeral was held Tuesday. Burial was in St. John's Cemetery, Ida.

A CORRECTION IN THE CARMEL SCHOOL REPORT OF PROMOTIONS

The name of Jean Olan was left out of the list of pupils promoted, the which appeared in our July 13 issue. We regret doing so. Jean passed with honours into Grade 9 from Grade 8. How it happened that we omitted her name we do not know. What amazes us is that we got so many in & right.

OBITUARY

MRS. EDITH MITCHELL

The funeral was held Friday, July 28, of Mrs. Edith Gertrude Mitchell, 69, of Mount Pleasant who died Wednesday after long illness at the home of her son Sidney Mitchell, Birch Point, RR 2, Ennismore. The Rev. Edgar Palfrey officiated.

Mrs. Mitchell was the widow of the late Jack Mitchell.

Born in England, she moved to Mount Pleasant over fifty years ago. She attended St. John's Church, Ida.

Surviving are sons Sidney of Ennismore and William of Mount Pleasant.

Burial was in St. John's Cemetery, Ida. Pallbearers were Aubrey Bland, Ira Althouse, Ira and Harold Lowes, Leonard Hamley and Jerry Jackman.

"RE-BIRTH" OF THE BLUES

Eleanor Collins of Vancouver has been called "a great blues singer" by Variety, the show-business newspaper. Listeners can judge for themselves by tuning in her new radio show, Songs with Eleanor Collins. It can be heard Monday afternoons on the CBC Trans-Canada network.

PROFESSOR GEORGE SWINTON

Professor George Swinton of the University of Manitoba's School of Art is the expert teacher on CBC-TV's summer series, Art in Action. Seen every Sunday, the series is designed to show the nature, the scope and meaning of landscape painting, both traditional and abstract. The Winnipeg artist, who studied in Vienna, paints and sculptures on camera, showing what art is and how it has changed over the centuries.
