Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 30.-More evidence has been secured in the Holmes tragedy, every item showing that the Pitezel boy was murdered in the cottage at Irvington by H. H. Holmes, and that the body was burned in the stove at night, and the charred bones jammed into the chimney hole. from Little Rock, Ark, says:-"J. C. Allen, alias Caldwell, the hor ethief, now serving a ten years sentence in the penitentiary here, has made a sta ement to Warden Moore regarding his knowledge of H. H. Holmes and his operations. In the course of his statement he said he met Holmes in Tennessee in 1892, and met Pitezel in Chicago later. Allen further said that Minnie Williams, who was living with Holmes as his wife, was present at a meeting in St. Joseph, Mo., of Holmes, Pitezel, and himself. The Minnie Willlams' property in Fort Worth was then and there deeded to Allen by Minnie Williams. The deal was made with the distinct understanding it was to be a swindling operation. Allen thinks that Minnie Williams was persuaded as scared into making the transfer of the property by Holmes. In a few days the property was transferred by Allen to Pitezel, Holmes making the transfer without Allen's knowledge or consent. Then, Allen continued, the party, with the exception of Miss Williams, went to Fort Worth, where they were joined by Patrick Quinlan. The latter and Holmes talked of a plan to kill Pitezel, who had $1,000 insurance on his life, because he was drinking, and apt to talk too much, and also knew too much.
