ART REID GROWING CABBAGE BY THE BUNCH

A Ripley "Believe it or Not" featured a cabbage with more than one head on the one root. This has been definitely surpassed in Millbrook as Mr. A. Reid had one on display with 7 heads on the one stem, five of them were solid, and combined equal to an average size cabbage. The other two were the runts of the crop, not having become solid. Had Art let it grow a little longer this process would have likely been completed.

It sure looked odd to see Mr. Reid carrying around a stock with all these heads on, and it is the first bouquet of cabbage we ever witnessed.
