The Annual Halloween Party for the children of the community, sponsored by the Lions Club, was held in the Armories and, although many of the youngsters in the community were confined to their homes with "Oriental whooping cough," there was plenty of enthusiasm and the goodly number that turned out, adorned in a wide variety of weird and wonderful costumes that gave the judges plenty of trouble picking the winners.

Those catching the eyes of the hard pressed judges were: 2 to 5 years—1st, April Kent; 2nd, Nancy Agnew; 3rd, Robin Godfrey.

5 to 8 years, girls—1, Cynthia Reynolds; 2, Debby Fawcett; 3, Peggy Ridge.

Boys—1, Ronald Guthrie, 2, Kirk Godfrey; 3 Johnny Larmer.

8 to 12 years, girls—1 Janice Edwards; 2, Beatrix Ridge; 3, Joan Armstrong.

Boys—1, Billy Olan; 2, Wayne Trick; 3, David Reynolds.

12 to 15 years, girls—Genevieve Gulliver. Boy, Ashton McMaster.

The pairs class was won by Carol Ridge and Donna Murney dressed in black and white stripped jail-bird costumes. These children and teen-agers rate a rousing round of applause for the effort and originality they put into preparing their costumes. Without them there would be no party. A word of appreciation to the adults who turned out in costume, to add to the fun of the evening.

The children played the games with plenty of vigor and enthusiasm and partook of the candy, apples, oranges and "cokes" with equal enthusiasm. Finally they were entertained by the showing of a number of enjoyable films shown by Mr. Goheen.

The Lions extend their sincere thanks for cash donations to the following: Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Campbell, Mrs. P. I. Bentley, Mr. George Ellsworth, Mr. Cecil Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Palmer, The Gertrude Shop, Mr. and Mrs. Wilf Elson, Mrs. Edith Elson, Mr. John Coulter, Mr. and Mrs. Reg Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. M. Kinsman, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Calette, and to Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Crowley for a gift of candies and The Mirror-Reporter for printing.

A hearty thanks to Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. Payne and Mrs. Gray, members of Lady Lions for acting as judges and discharging their duties so efficiently. And finally a thunderous Lion Roar that would bring "Sputnik" Mk II crashing back to earth, dog and all, for Lion Laverne Fallis chairman of the Boys and Girls committee.

tee for all the hard work he so cheerfully did in organizing the party, also all the Lion members who were able to turn out and help with the games.

The monthly dinner was postponed from the usual first Monday till the third Monday, (Nov. 18th) due to their being several Nimrods in the club and the deer season being at hand. Best of luck to our rifle tottin Lions.

The best turnout of Lion members for some time attended the monthly business meeting which was held Monday evening, of last week. These meetings have taken on a "new look." After the business session, at which there was a good deal of enthusiastic discussion, all pertaining to administration and activities of the club, a social hour of playing cribbage and so on was enjoyed by those present, and this type of business meeting will develop as time goes on. Don't miss the next one Lions!

For the dinner meeting on November 18th, the guest speaker will be Col. Patterson, superintendent at the Millbrook Reform Institution. One Hundred per cent turnout will be the order of the evening.
