HALLOWE'EN WENT LIMIT IN MILLBROOK

While most places report Halloween passing more civilized than usual, Millbrook pranksters had a field day as special constables were conspicuous by their absence and the "fun" makers had full swing. Baled straw was brought to the village from somewhere and what a mess of the street this made, about the only ones to appreciate it was the sparrows who seemed to have a banquet searching for the stray bits of weed seed that happened to get by in the straw.

The climax came early in the morning when a "parliament building" was set on fire which made it necessary to call out the firemen to extinguish it. This, according to all citizens, was going too far, but this prank no doubt, could be the result of the empty beer bottles seen on the street. Other foolish and dangerous stunts of tipping over heavy old cars and farm machinery in the middle of the road was also done.

As usual, before and after the treats in the Armouries given by the Lions Club, windows were soaped from top to bottom. This proved a blessing in disguise as many a window received a well deserved washing, including our own.

The evening and morning taken as a whole, resulted in no serious harm, as no one was killed, lynched or murdered.

Lion Activities

The annual Halloween party for the young fry has come and gone and goes on record as the biggest yet. There was a great variety of weird and wonderful costumes and the youngsters milled around and played the different games provided for them, receiving treats of apples, oranges and candy.

Those winning prizes for the best costumes are as follows:

Under 6 yrs.—1 Brenda Larmer, 2 Michael Challice, 3 David Powell, 4 Patricia Ridge.

6 to 9 yrs.—1 Peggy Lee Bremner, 2 Marie Larmer, 3 Peggy Ridge, 4 Ricky Guthrie.

9 to 12 yrs.—1 Carol Abbott, 2 Diane Olan, 3 Allan Pinck, 4 Robert Swartz.

12 yrs. and over—1 Joan Buott, 2 Fred Buott, 3 Billy Olan.

Pairs—1 Mary Liesemer, Marilea Buckham, 2 Lenore Buckham, Linda Snelgrove, 3 Margaret Ann Fowler, Joan and Julie Armstrong, 4 Barbara Reid, Gloria Smith, 5 Beatrix Ridge, Jan Scott.

Following the judging of the costumes and distribution of treats the children were shown a number of entertaining films.

The Lions Club extends sincere thanks to the many citizens for their generous donations towards this party, to Mrs. Payne and Mrs. Kerr who acted as judges, to Messrs. Fred Coulter, Billy Belch, Wilf Elson and Herb Kerr, who helped during the evening.

The regular monthly dinner was held in the waiting room Monday, November 3rd. The attendance was slightly depleted as a result of the deer hunt, nevertheless it was an excellent meeting. Lion President Ed. Nattress was in the chair and in the absence of Sec. Perc Hamilton Lion Ron Palmer looked after the minutes. Plans were completed for the "Bank of Light" project. Lion Lavergne Fallis was delegated as the Clubs representative on the Santa Claus Parade Committee. Preparations are getting under way for the Christmas Bingo and Fowl draw.

The highlight of the evening was the address by Lieut. Jerry Whitehead of the reformatory custodial staff. Mr. Whitehead gave a very interesting talk on his experience in Malaya while a member of the police force there following the second world war. The job of the police force there was to ferret communists from the jungle. From the description he gave of the Malayan jungle that was no easy task.

The speaker was introduced by Col. Hartley Paterson and Lion Earl Liesemer expressed the Clubs appreciation for a very interesting address.

Next meeting Monday, Nov. 17th and the Cabaret Dnce Friday, November 21st.

HELLO FOLKS! HERE WE ARE AGAIN

Well, after a week's rest from the old routine of getting out a paper, here we are again, and pleased, of course, to be informed we were missed, as some told us to our face they "missed our little paper". In fact one of our subscribers hurried in to pay her subscription for another year, fearing she was going to miss an issue, as her time was just up and she thought she had been cut off our mailing list for non payment of dues. Well we're hardly in the big town class yet who resort to this procedure, we give our readers a little time to square off before resorting to the "axe". Anyway we're glad to be back in your home, and although a more than usual lot of advertising space is taken up, it is all worth reading, and you are especially urged to read the full page ad on page 3 concerning the Ontario Hospital Insurance. This should interest everyone.
