LADY LIONS ENTERTAIN

Monday evening the Lady Lions entertained the Lionettes of Newcastle at a dinner meeting in the Waiting Room. Boughs of cedar and bouquets of poinsettias centred the banquet tables and were also arranged about the room complementing the coloured lights on the Christmas tree. President Jean Winslow welcomed the ladies and asked Mrs. Liesemer to start the evening on the jovial theme which indeed it was. Paper bags were handed to each lady containing a hat and through a course of elimination each selected a chapeau which was worn during the dinner hour. Prizes for the hats, handsome and otherwise, were won by Lionettes Marion Knox and Irene Cunningham from Newcastle. Mrs. A. Spicer was pianist for sing-songs and also rendered a fine solo, accompanied by Mrs. Winslow. A lucky draw for a relish dish was won by Mrs. J. McMaster. Minutes and roll call were read by Secretary Mrs. H. Lancashire and financial report given by Treasurer, Mrs. A. Payne. Further plans for the Santa Parade were discussed and the committee chosen for the Christmas project were: Mrs. H. Kerr, Mrs. A. Payne and Mrs. J. Wright. An amusing kitchen contest was conducted by Mrs. S. Snelgrove which was won by Mrs. W. Haw.

TALENT SCOUT

Signed by CBC radio to launch a nation-wide search for talent, Fred Diehl will produce the new Trans-Canada Talent Show, a half-hour series designed to introduce talented newcomers to Canadian listeners. It can be heard weekly on the Trans-Canada network of CBC radio.

The ladies enjoyed a solo by Mrs. L. Winslow accompanied by Mrs. Spicer.

Lionette President Rene Megitt thanked the Club for the evening and the meeting adjourned.

A special vote of thanks is extended to all who helped make the evening a success. The executive convened the dinner, the decorating committee were Mrs. H. Kerr and Mrs. A. Payne; the entertainment committee were Mrs. E. Liesemer and Mrs. S. Snelgrove. Musical numbers Mrs. A. Spicer and Mrs. L. Winslow. Kitchen assistants were Mrs. S. Sloan and Mrs. D. Lunn. Servers were Misses Nancy Nattress, Karen Powell, Betty Raper and Bonnie Blencoe.
