On Thanksgiving day Mr. Richard Lee of Mount Horeb passed over to the great majority. He had suffered for about three weeks with an abscess on the liver, but had only been under regular treatment for a few days. Mr. Lee was a son of Mr. Thomas Lee, who is still living, although considerably over one hundred years of age. He was a brother to Mr. William Lee of Mount Horeb, and Mrs. Thomas Paul of the 13th concession. Mr. Lee was 53 years of age and unmarried.

Cavanville.

Senior II.—Cassie Bullen, Laura Coe, Elva Elliott, Bertie Rea, Annie Twamley, Ella Graham, equal; Maud McKnight.

Omamee.
On Monday another of our old and much respected citizens passed quietly away. Mrs. Thornton came from Ireland to this country while it was sparsely settled. She and her husband made their first home a short distance east of Omamee, but afterwards moved to a farm west of the village where they resided for a great number of years. Mrs. Thornton had one of those peculiarly pleasant and sympathizing natures which call forth the love of even mere acquaintances. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community even though the deceased was called away at the ripe old age of eighty.

Universal Testimony
Cannot be disputed, and the case is yet to be heard from in which Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor has failed to perform a perfect cure. This with painless and rapid action and freedom from annoyance during use. The great corn and bunion cure stands unrivalled. Sure, safe, and painless. Beware of frauds offered as substitutes for the great corn cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, proprietors. Use no other.

The Post Office Department announces the issue of a new eight-cent registration letter stamp. Five cent registered stamp cannot now be purchased, and those registering letters will have to purchase the eight cent stamp issued for that purpose.

School Section No. 11 Emily.
We have recently had another visit from Mr. Vanduson of Grimsby, and it is the wonder of this neighborhood what these, of late frequent, visits will result in.

Quite a family gathering took place on Wednesday, at Mr. James Morgan's of this section, the occasion being the marriage of his daughter, Maggie, to Mr. Bow of Toronto. The young couple left the same evening for their home in Toronto, carrying with them the good wishes of the people for their future happiness.

Some time ago there was considerable talk of repairs being made at the school house in this section, but as yet nothing has been done. Now, your honorable correspondent would suggest that a porch be erected over the door to keep out the cold winter blasts. We might suggest that the trustees make a little raise in the teachers salary, as never before has this school been in a more flourishing condition and the credit is entirely due to our present teacher. We hope these matters will be duly considered by our worthy trustees and that they will not consider the suggestions presumptuous on the part of your correspondent.

Centreville.
The ladies of the Centreville Presbyterian church deserve great praise for the elaborate dinner which they prepared for the many friends that partook of it on Thanksgiving day, after which there was a grand concert in which both Peterborough and home talent took part admirably. The Rev. Mr. Pilkie of Baillieboro gave an excellent address, and the chair was ably occupied by the pastor, Rev. James Cattanaach. Proceeds about $75.

Miss Cattanaach is visiting her brother Rev. Jas. Cattanaach.

Miss Effie Larmer of Westwood spent a few days Thanksgiving week at the home-stead.

Misses Allie and Dell Fanning of Lindsay spent Thanksgiving day with the Misses Brown.

Some of the members of the Y.P.S.C.E. went to the residence of Mr. J. Robertson, South Monaghan, on Monday night, Dec. 20th, where their pastor, Rev. Jas. Cattanaach, boards and presented him with a beautiful ur coat, thus showing their due appreciation of his ministerial labours among them, which only commenced last summer. After the presentation they had refreshments and spent a pleasant time with the pastor and host and hostesses.

REPLY BY THE PASTOR.
My Dear Young Friends,—This valuable gift of which I had no even an inkling and that I do not deserve from you is quite an agreeable surprise to me. Although I cannot find words to express my thanks yet I assure you that when I feel its warmth the kindly feeling which I cherish in my heart for you all will be stirred up to take a still deeper interest in your spiritual welfare. Accept my thanks for your gift and many kindnesses to me since I have come among you.

I remain your ever loving pastor.

CENTREVILLE—ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.
Things are very quiet here at present, so there is not much news. Our general store is closed and no likelihood of its being opened for some little time.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. R. Dawson and daughter, who on Thanksgiving day were thrown from their buggy, are recovering although very slowly.

The ark is not yet completed, nor is it likely to be for some time.

We are to have a grand concert in the Agricultural Hall here on Thursday the 14th inst. The Stuart Concert Co. of Peterboro have engaged the hall for that night. From their past record we anticipate great things. From our acquaintance with Prof. Stuart we are confident it will be worth hearing. Prof. Stuart, is a great comic and impersonator. His several characters are very amusing.

Commendable.
All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

A Georgia editor, in a fit of desperation dashed off the following: "The wind bloweth, the farmer soweth, the subscribers oweth, and the Lord knoweth that we are in need of our dues. So come a runnin' ere we give a gunnin', this thing of dunning' gives us the blues."

Stomach Ache.—We all know what it is; we acquired a perfect knowledge of the "Pet" in our youth, after a raid on things we were expressly forbidden to touch. Our mother gave us Perry Davis' PAIN-KILLER then, and, strange to say, no other remedy has been discovered to this day to equal it. Old popular price, 25c. for Big New Bottle.

The best medical authorities say the proper way to treat catarrh is to take a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla.
