CANADIAN.

Troop & Son, the shipbrokers of St. John, N.B., have failed with liabilities of more than $200,000.

tug E. C. Oggles, and about four miles of | The police of each country will arrest forgill net, the property of the Sandusky Fish | eign Anarchists and send them back to Company. They were caught fishing near | their own countries. Pelee Island in Canadian waters.

A cargo of grain has arrived in Montreal from Chicago in eight days, which is said to be the quickest time on record.

The Archbishop of Ontario has withdraw his name as one of the vice-presidents of he English Church Union.

The police census of the city of Toronto has been completed, and shows that on the night of November 5th the population was 188,333.

So satisfactory is the financial state of affairs of the John H. Stratford hospital at Brantford, Ont., that the city grant of $2,-

John McNabb, an old man, who was found unconscious in Sylvester Bros.' elevator Toronto, on Thursday last, died at the General hospital on Saturday. A postmortem examination disclosed the fact that his spine had been fractured. The circumstances connected with his death are rather suspicious.

ing bread to hungry approants. One news item reads: "A wor item re suspicious.

Several people on the Chicago express of the Michigan Central railway which arrived at Niagara Falls on Saturday afternoon at five o'clock, saw a boat with two men in it her for three months. She had sold all that struggling in the Canadian rapids. The boat disappeared, and is supposed to have gone over the Horse Shoe falls.

arrived at Halifax on Saturday night from | and ill, and she knew no one to leave her Hamburg, reports that on the 14th inst. baby with. She tried employment agencies he had lived all his life within thirty miles she fell in with the steamer Dominion, of and ready-made clothing stores; and then the Dominion line, on fire. She lay by she gave up the struggle in the midst of the until the following day, when the fire was city of New York. Nor is her case a soli- ling plan. Some day he would go to the considered to be under control. The Domin- tary instance. The Mail and Express re shore and camp out there for a week. This, ion was seriously damaged, and one hundred | presentative went to the Intelligence Offices and eighty head of cattle were burned, and and found there frank evidence of the their remains thrown overboard.

The stockholders of the Niagara Falls and Clifton Suspension Bridge Companies intend to petition the Dominion Parliament for the privilege to lay tracks on their present structure, immediately below the American Falls, for the purpose of running electric, cable, or horse cars.

who sold Hooper the prussic acid with fainted on the floor. She had been sitting which the latter is said to have killed his here all the forenoon. After she came to, wife, died suddenly in Montreal on Sun- we asked her what was the matter, and wreck Canadian Pacific railway trains have Just think of that." been made lately, and the railway authorities are at present investigating the matter.

Judge Gill, in the Montreal Superior Court, condemned the Windsor Hotel Company to pay fifteen hundred dollars damages to Mrs. Williams, the widow of a railway porter, who was killed by the hotel elevator three years ago.

Joseph and Edgar Pocock, who rented a a good place not to go to just now. The calculated, as his wife approvingly remarkfarm at Glenboro, Man., disappeared on the products of New York labor are good ed, to "for ard the v'y'ge." He had at last 16th of October, and have not been seen competitors to protect our labor against begun to see his way clear, and he looked since. A search party started out yester. for many a day. day, as there are strong hints of foul play-

M. Jule de Smedt, a Belgian, lately arrived in Montreal, has submitted to Mayor Desjardins an elaborate scheme regarding a co-operative bread company. He proposes each, payable in five instalments of one dollar each, extending over the five months from December to April.

The Catholic Church authorities of Montreal have refused to allow the remains of on. Mr. John F. Gourley, formerly of Boston and Montreal, who died recently at Medi- whose life will touch yours that you have cine Hat, N. W. T., to be interred in the better goods and lower prices than they can Roman Catholic cemetery, on the ground get anywhere else. that he married a second wife, after obtaining a divorce from his first. The matter men who never advertize are out-stripping teams were ready, and Eli mounted to his

The great English coal strike is ended, and work was generally resumed at the collieries yesterday morning.

In an editorial dealing with agricultural matters, the London Times says Canadian timothy hay is now recognized as being as good as the best available hay of natural home growth.

The London Times, in an article on the colonies, says that one of the first results of the re-election of Sir William Whiteway in Newfoundland will be a demand upon England to fulfil the pledges made to the colony regarding the French shore.

UNITED STATES.

The financial condition of the city of Chicago is very distressing. She will begin next year with current liabilities of one million three hundred thousand dollars.

Convicts employed in the Pratt mines, near Birmingham, Ala., set fire to the bathhouse on Friday morning in the hopes of being able to escape in the confusion. In this they failed, but two white convicts, who were asleep in the bath-house, were burned to death.

Minister Blount's report to the United States State Department delares that Minister Stevens was directly responsible for the overthrow of the Queen of Hawaii, and that without his intervention the provisional Government could not have been established.

GENERAL.

It is stated in St. Petersburg that negotiations are in progress for a visit of the Russian Mediterranean fleet to Constantinople.

The Madrid newspapers voice the public clamour to thrash the Kabyles, and thus seriously embarrass the Government, who fear that they will be compelled to

A despatch from Meshed, in Persia, says | water will take a brownish hue. that two-thirds of the important town of Kuchan, in Khorassan, was destroyed by

but no one was injure

The German Government has decided to establish a permanent military camp at Malmedy in Rhenish Prussia as an offset to the strong earthworks France has constructed at Maubeugo, on the western frontier at Belgium.

Acting upon the initiative of Spain the European Governments have agreed to keep Dominion Government officials seized the a very close watch upon the Anarchists.

Hard Times in the States. The stringency in commercial affairs in the States, though perhaps eased to some he lok it out and laid it on the bench beextent by recent legislation on the silver question, is still severely felt, especially in ening himself with the air of a man to whom the cities. In New York, according to the it falls, after long pondering to take some press of that city, there is already great decisive step. "No; it don't seem as if 't destitution among the laboring classes. It was goin' to happen," he owned. "It lookis a most erroneous notion for a poor man ed pretty dark to me all last week. It's a to imagine that financial crises have nothing good deal of an undertakin', come to think to do with him. Sooner or later—or both it all over. I dunno's I care about goin'." to do with him. Soundert or his life in a _ "Why, father! After you've thought direct way that few of the financial kings about it so many years, and Sereno's got One is not needed, and the Council will be know. What is a financial crisis on Wall the tents strapped up, and all! You must street is apt to be a food crisis in the tene- be crazy!"—"Well," said the farmer, gently, ment. The New York Mail and Express as he rose and went to carry the milk-pails has been investigating the state of affiairs into the pantry, calling coaxingly, as he in New York city, and things do not look did so, "Kitty! Kitty! You had your immensely better than they did a few milk. Don't you joggle now!" For one weeks ago when the World was distribut- eager tabby rose on her hind legs in purring because she could not provide food for herself and her child. She preferred poison to starvation." She was a young wife with a she had to sell. Investigation by the reporter showed that she had scrubbed for a living the present undertaking was one involving The German steamer Markomannia, which | could get no work, because she was in rags pinching hardness of the times. One of the woman clerks he saw said that she had never seen such hard times before. "Last year at this time," she added, "we placed more servants in a single day sometimes than we do now in a week." An agent in another office gave similar testimony, saying among other things: "Why some of the people who come here Mr. R. W. Webb, the Montreal druggist | are hungry. The other day a young woman what do you suppose? The foolish thing No less than seven distinct attempts to had had nothing to eat for a day and a half.

Similar testimony is given by the columnful. It covers all classes of workers who Eli had been solemn and tremulous, as with are dependent upon getting employment in joy; but now on the eve of the great event. order to make a living. This one investi- he shrank back from it with an undefined gation, referred to, touched servants, clerks, notion that it was like death, and that he nursery governesses, fancy cooks, butlers, was not prepared. Next morning, however, actors, actresses, school teachers, private when they all rose and took their early tutors, mechanics of all sorts, stenograph- breakfast preparatory to starting at five, he ers, typewriters, draughtsmen and the showed no sign of indecision, and even went Two young and prosperous farmers named whole range of wage-earners. New York is about his outdoor tasks with an alacrity

When to Stop Advertising.

An English trade journal once requested a number of its largest advertisers to give horse's pail swang below. "Well, father," to start a company with a capital of seventy. | their opinions concerning the best time to | called Hattie, her rosy face like a flower five thousand dollars, in shares of five dollars | stop advertising, and the following replies were received :-

When the population ceases to multiply and the generations that crowd on after you and never heard of you, stop coming

When you have convinced everybody

When you perceive it to be the rule that They ain't very big." At length the two beach. There he saw two shadowy figures, your sight solely through the discreet use leaning on the pump, chewing a bit of straw, of the mighty agent.

shrewdest and most successful business by a sense of the unusual. "Well, good-by, men concerning the main cause of their pros- Luke," Mrs. Pike called, over her shoulder;

When every man has become so thoroughly a creature of habit that he will certainly buy this year where he bought last

When younger and fresher houses in your ine cease starting up and using the newspapers in telling the people how much better they can do for them than you can.

way and fail than take advice and win. When nobody else thinks it pays to ad-

The largest gasometer in the world is at here, ain't it, facher ?" called Sereno, as East Greenwich, Eng. When full it contains they passed a sterile pasture which two 12,000,000 cubic feet of gas. It weighs 2,- plodding men and a yoke of oxen were re-220 tons, is 180 feet high, 250 feet in dia- deeming from its rocky fetters. "There's meter, requires 1,200 tons of coal to fill it a good deal of pasture' in some places that with gas, and cost $300,000.

The navigation of the Dead sex is the lat- together," returned Eli; and then he was As he jogged homeward, the dusty roadd travelers, while he has brought home with est step in oriental progret. The Sultan has silent, his eyes fixed on Doll's elequent sent two sailing boats there ne for freight ears, his mouth working a little, for this and one for passengers. Wal Hamid is progress through a less desirable stratum of going to try to make money out of the salt, life caused him to cast a backward glance bitumen and sulphur of the lake.

The boatfly passes the greater part of its ife swimming and diving in the water. It those who he we lived long together, strokis the terror of all other aquatic insects and ed her black silk visite, and answered, Eli, leaping from the wagon as if twenty has been known to kill those that are five with a well satisfied nod: "I guess we and six times its size. Snowdon, in North Wales, is the highest mountain south of the Tweed, and Scaw Fell Pikes in Cumberland, the summit of which is 3,166 feet above the sea level, the greatest elevation in England. The best way to ascertain whether or not But when he came back, carefully bearing the "infernal and noxious fuel." A royal coffee has been adulterated is to pour cold a pail brimming with cool, clear water, his preclamation having failed to abate the water on it. If pure it will color the water face expressed strong disapprobation, and nuisance, a commission was appointed to

A negro in Floyd County, Georgia, dress- out o' the cistern." But the others could the first offense and by demolition of the ed himself in a sheet a few days ago and find no fault with it, and Sereno drained the furnaces for the second. Finally, when an earthquake, and it is feared that the loss of life is very heavy.

An atternate of a started out at dusk to "score the life out of" a white woman, against whom he had a life out of a white woman was life out of a wh An attempt was made in Mazze ies on grievance. He intercepted her as she was pretty particular about water, father." Wednesday night to blow up the residence returning to the house from the well and she of Gen. Mathelin with dynamite. A breach came near beating the life out of him with ed, "Brackish, brackish!" as he began no other crime than that of using coal for in Upper Silesia, where the metal is made

FARMER ELFS VACATION.

"It don't seem as if we'd really got round to it, does it father?" asked Mrs. Pike. The West was paling, and the August insects stirred the air with their crooning chirp. Eli and his wife sat together on the washing bench outside the back door, waiting for the milk to cool before it should be strained. She was a large, comfortable woman, with an unlined face and smooth fine auburn hair; he was spare and somewhat bent, with curly iron-gray locks, growing thin, and crow's-feet about his deep set gray eyes. He had been smoking the pipe of twilight contentment, but now

Mrs. Pike came ponderously to her feet, and followed with the heavy, swaying motion of one grown fleshy and rheumatic. She was not in the least concerned about Eli's change if mood. He was a gentle soul, and she had always been able to guide him his own good fortune, and she meant to tolerate no foolish scruples which might of the ocean, had never seen it, and ever in his starved imagination, was like a dream of the Acropolis to an artist stricken blind, or as mountain outlines to the dweller in a lonely plain. But the years had flitted past, and the dream never seemed nearer my eyes." completion. There were always planting, haying, and harvesting to be considered, and though he was fairly presperous, excursions were foreign to his simple habit of life. But at last his wife had stepped into the van, and organized an expedition, with all the valor of a Sir Francis Drake. "Now, don't you say one word, father," she had said. "We're goin' down to the beach, Sereno and Hattie and you and me, and we're goin' to camp out. It'll do us all

For days before the date of the excursion well satisfied when his daughter Hattie, and Sereno, her husband, drove into the yard in a wagon cheerfully suggestive of a wandering life. The tents and a small hair trunk were stored in the back, and the under the large shade-nat she had trimmed for the occasion, "guess we're goin' to have a good day."

He nodded from the window where he was patiently holding his head high and undergoing stangulation, while his wife, breathing huskily with haste and importance, put on his collar. "You come in, Hattie, and help pack the doughnuts into that lard-pail on the table," she called. "I guess you'll have to take two pails. will likely be brought before the civil their neighbors in the same line of business. place, where he looked very slender beside When men stop making fortunes right in his towering mate. The hired man stood and the cats rubbed against his legs, with When you can forget the words of the tails like banners; they were all impressed and Eli gave the man a solemn nod, gathered up the reins, and drove out of the yard. Just out-side the gate he pulled up. "Whoa!" he called, and Luke lounged forward. "Don't you forget them cats! Get up, Doll!" And this time they were

For the first ten miles of the way, familiar in being the road to market, Eli was placidly cheerful. The sense that he was When you would rather have your own going to do some strange deed, to step into an unknown country, dropped away from him, and he chatted, in his intermittent, serious way, of the crops and the lay of the land. "Pretty bad job up along ain't fit for nothin' but to hold the world where the rose of dawn was fast unfolding- has corrected the observations of earlier over his own smooth, middle-aged road.

"We've prospered, ain't we, Maria?" he said at last , and his wife, unconsciously following he, thoughts, in the manner of ain't got no cause to complain. But Eli ate sparingly and with a preoc cupied and solemn look. "Land father !" said his wife, "you ain't eat no more'n a was thinking, with a passion of loyalty, of time of Edward I.

the clear, ice-cold water at home, had never been shut out by a pump from the splashing bucket and chain broke every to cause almost day the image of fern and moss. His throat grew parched and dry with longing. When seemed to them that they could taste the been recorded and Tire incedie street saltness of the incoming breeze; the road been regarded as a model of finance, corwere glaring in their brightness. It was a Frederick May, the trusted cashier of such new world. And when at last they emerg- an institution, should have allowed parental ed from the marsh-bordered road upon a feeling to overcome his sense of duty with-Mrs. Pike faced her husband in triumph.

"There, father!" she cried. "There 't is!"

the commercial world for the history of board in front of him. He looked pale.
"Why father," said she, impatiently, "ain't dence and conservation communication and the last three years has furnished too many incidents which justify the belief that business pruyou goin' to look? It's the Sea!"-"Yes, dence and conservative commercial methods yes," said Eli, quietly; "byme-by. I'm appear to be waning in presence of the goin' to put the horses up fust."-" Well, I widespread craze for sudden riches. Refernever!" said Mrs. Pike; and as they drew ence was made in these columns at the up on the sandy tract where Sereno had time of the break in industrial securitiepreviously arranged a place for their tents, she added almost fretfully, turning to Hattie "I down the first sector the business methods that had led up to that Hattie, "I dunno what's come over your disastrous depreciation, methods that even cast his eyes at it." But Hattie ness at that time. It was pointed out that understood her father, by some intuition of the energies of business men connected with up his mind to it pretty soon. Here, let's not to the production and sale of the com-

speak; he only looked at the sea. The storms of any moment. two sat there, chilled and content, until six o'clock, when Mrs. Pike came calling to them from the beach with dramatic shouts of: "Supper's ready! Sereno's built a burn-fire, and I've made some its annual blue-book containing statistics of tea!" Then they slowly made their way maritime disasters on the British coast durback to the tents, and sat down to the ingthe year which ended June 30, 1892. Some evening meal. Sereno was content, and of the figures are not a little startling. It Mrs. Pike bustling and triumphant; the appears, for instance, that in the period mere act of preparing food had made her | mentioned there were 4710 casualties in all. feel at home. "Well, father, what do you or 512 more than in the preceding year. Of think?" she said, smiling exuberantly as | this total, 1866 were serious disasters or she passed him his mug of tea. "Does it | total wrecks, which resulted in loss of life come up to what you expected? Eli turned in 163 cases. Collisions were responsible upon her his mild, dazed eyes. "I guess for no less than 1580 of these disasters. Of it does," he said gently.

That night they sat upon the shore while | were either British or colonial. The localithe moon rose and laid in the water her ties of the casualties, excluding collisions. majestic pathway of light. Eli was the were: East coast of England, 782; south last to leave the rocks, and he lay down on | coast, 593; west coast of England and his hard couch in the tent without speaking | Scotland and east coast of Ireland, 1231; "I wouldn't say much to father," whisper- north coast of Scotland, 93; east coast of ed Hattie to her mother as they parted for Scotland, 168; and other parts, 263; total, the night. "He feels it a good deal."- 3130, or 406 more than in the previous year. "Well, I s'pose he is some tired," said It has been found, as a rule, that the east Mrs. Pike, acquiescing, after a brief look | coast is the most dangerous to shipping; of surprise. "It's a good deal of a jaunt, but, curiously enough, for the last three but I dunno but I feel paid a'ready. Should | years a change has occurred, and the west you take your bairpins out, Hattie?"

She slept zenudly and vocally, but her husband did not close his eyes, he looked, though he could see nothing, through the opening in the tent in the direction where lay the sea, solemnly clamorous, eternal responsive to some infinite whisper from without his world. The tension of the hour was almost more than he could bear; he 1881-82, 4367; 1882-83, 4363; 1883-84, 4405; longed for morning in sharp surpense, with 1884-85, 3764 1885-86, 3596; 1386-87, a faint hope that the light might bring re- 4224; 1887-88, 4004; 1888-89, 4272; 1889lief. Just as the stars faded out one lumin- 90, 4244; 1890-91, 4198; 1891-92, 4710. ous line penciled the East, he rose, smooth. Total, 111,696. Sereno and Hattie. She hurried forward to Dr. J. W. Gregory, of the Geological Demeet him. "You goin' to see the sunrise, partment of the British Museum of Natural too, father ?" she said. "I made Sereno History, has reached London from East come. He's awful mad at being waked up." Africa, having accomplished an ascont of Eli grasped her arm. " Hattie," he said in a Mount Kenia under very difficult conwhisper, "don't you tell. I just come out to ditions. No previous explorer had sucsee how't was here before I go. I'm goin' ceeded in going higher than 14,000 feet, home-I'm goin'now!"-"why, father!"said but Dr. Gregory passed the record by 3,000 Hattie ; but she peered more closely into feet, but was stopped 2,000 from the sumhis face, and her tone changed. "All right," mit by a cornice which he could not surshe added cheerfully. "Sereno'll go and mount without assistance, and which his harness up."-" No ; I'm goin' to walk."- | native companions would not approach, "But, father-"-" I don't mean to break being afraid of the ice. He found the up your stayin' here, nor your mother's upper part of the mountain almost com-You tell her how't was. I'm goin' to pletely glaciated above 17,000 feet, and saw for, pa, you must take one horse, and you much more extensive then that of Kilimacan send Luke back with it Friday, zo's we Njaro. Previous explorers had surmised sides bloomed with flowers of paradise, anf him nearly a ton of specimens of various the insects' dry chirp was as the song or kinds, geological, zoological and botanical, angels. Hedroveintothe yard just at the tur- which will increase greatly the present of country fires curls cheerily upward in Africa. promise of the evening meal. "What's bu'sted?" asked Luke, swinging himself down from his load of fodder-corn, and unharnessing Doll. "Oh, nethin"," said years had been taken fron his bones, "I guess I'm too old for such jaunts. I hope vou didn't forget them cats."-[Selected.

It is said that when coal was first used in bird!" And he answered: "I guess I'll go England the prejudice against it was so over to that well and get a drink of water, strong that the house of commons petition-I drink more'n I eat when I ain't workin'." ed the king to prohibit the further use of very slightly; if mixed with chicory the he smacked his lips scornfully. "Dreadful ascertain who burned "coles" within the flat water !" he said. "Tastes as if it come City of Lundon; to punish by branding for In the records of the Old Tower there is an was made in the wail of the orderly-room, the iron bucket she carried. He is in the bit in Doll's patient mouth. He fuel contrary to royal edict; this in the from calanine and zinc blended by sistil-

The Bank of England Scare,

The news received by cable the other morning reflecting on the management of to cause almost as much surprise as if it were news of some vagaries they were within three miles of the sea, it among heavenly bodies, so long has was ankle deep in dust; the garden flowers rect methods and stability. That Mr. ridge of sand, and turned a sudden corner, out check from the directorate is another But Eli's eyes were fixed on the dash the commercial world for the last three father. There's the water, and he won't were only too common in all lines of busilove, though not of likeness. "Don't you joint stock corporations in the United bother him, ma," she said. "He'll make States for some time back had been devoted lift out these little things, while they're modities in which they dealt, but to the unharnessin', so they can get at the tents." exploiting and manipulating of the stock Mrs. Pike's mind was diverted by the of the company. The former is business, exigencies of labor, and she said no more; the latter gambling, and owing to its but after the horses had been put up at a prevalence many of the commercial calas neighboring house, and Sereno, red-faced mittes that have been recorded are due. with exertion, had superintended the tent. The English newspapers at that time raising, Hattie slipped her arm through her made similar comments on the improper father's and led him away. "Come pa," conduct of American business concerns. she said in a whisper, "le''s you and me and it is evident from the despatches anclimb over on them rocks." Eli went, and ent the mismanagament of the Bank of when they had picked their way over sand England funds that the American papers and pools to a headland where the water were nearly ready to return a tu queque. interfere with its result. For Eli, though thundered below, and salt spray dashed up We in Canada are sometimes regarded by in mist to their feet, he turned and looked our neighbors as slow, but the familiar at the sea. He faced it as a soul might face proverb is that slow and steady wins the Almighty Greatness, only to be stricken race. We have been so slow that the evils of blind thereafter; for his eyes filled painfully stock gambling have not invaded our busiwith slow, hot tears. Hattie did not look ness world. The old basis of trade, namely at him, but after a while she shouted in his producing something that people want to ear, above the outcry of the surf : "Here, buy, is still the object of our industrial pa, take my handkerchief. I don't know energies, and that it has been a safe motive how't is about you, but this spray gets in is testified to by the fact that amid commercial disasters all over the world our Eli took it obediently, but he did not little corner of it has been subjected to no

Allandred Thousand Wrecks. The British Board of trade has just issued the 4710 vessels figuring in the report, 4209 coast has proved more disastrous than any other. The total loss of life was 565. The following figures show the number of wrecks on the coast of the United Kingdom for the last twenty years: 1872, 2381; 1873-74, 2191; 1874-75, 4259; 1875-76, 4554; 1876-77, 5017; 1877-78, 4436; 1878-79, 3716; 1879-80, 3138; 1830-81, 4297;

Ip Mount Kenia 17,000 Feet. evidence of the glaciers having had a much Hattie turned and whispered to her hus- greater extension than they have now. band a moment. Then she took her father's The principal glacier is now readvancing, hand. "I'll slip into the tent and put you but he thinks this may be only a seasonal up something for your breakfast and lunch- change due to heavy rains. It is evident, eon," she said. "Sereno' gone to harness; however, that the glaciation of Kenia is can get the things home. What do that Kenia was topped by a crater full of we want of two horses down here at snow; but Dr. Gregory found the top two and ninepence a day? I guess I consisted of the central core of an old volknow." So Eli yielded; but before his wife | cano, of which the crater has long disappeared he had turned his back on the sea. appeared. In several other respects he ning of the day, when the fragrant smoke knowledge of that part of British East

A Want of Crime.

Last year we predicted a wave of crime for the fall and winter, following both the Chicago exhibition and the depression. It is upon us now and there is not a day that passes that more than the average number of crimes are not reported. Such a state of things is inevitable with hundreds of thousands of people in the neighbouring republic, and the worst is not yet, for as the weather gets keener the misery will become greater and the destitute will grow more desparate. It is a grave question how multitudes of people, not only in America but in Europe, are going to pull through the next few months at all, but the strangest feature is the apathy being shown by the different governments when they must know Germany is the greatest zinc-producing But Eli still azor his head, and ejaculat- account of a man who was hanged there for country of the world. The main district is lation.

HOUSI

The Old Where the old pine st. Guarding alone its dy From the winds Thick And the cruel winter There stands half hid, The logs that remain

The path is winding t From the old stage ro And the flowers plant Still bloom as sweet t And the ivy yet by n Oh that the years mig To look from to-day t

Bring back the scenes And place each form And to hear the voice Ring out once more i See Grandma knittin Stockings and socks

While we for whom

Thought little of wor

And never were read Up in the attic of th Grandpa with pipe is While mother is great And Rover out side v Is keeping vigilance Filling the hearts of Who come at night t

"How calm it seen

been so? No; things were q

When we fished in th Whose waters turne The mill which at th The gay little ones in So I hope you may s

A sentinel yet for m You've been so faith To more than the on And before you die j And drop there a to

A Wi " Don't tell mot fit if you do. T

danger, but she fre The speaker was years of age, and h several companion happened to be pas "Frets over not she went her way. there are of whom their children, and

It is undeniably who fret unnecessa have the greates children. The rea themselves to fre little consequence, power of influence

There is a wise who is almost con mind on account ness. One day a casual call, foun quite unable to at about the house. "What is the r any one sick ?" "No," replied

ing, half crying; foolish. The tru erected a trapeze and I am greatly that one of them "Why don't y it down, then? should like to see trouble that cou You are surpris about those boys Her voice wa aroused the moth visitor to the v group of boys sight of.

"Isn't that bo she asked: "Yes," was th " And who ar "I really don

"I do. They Styles, two of the It would hurt have my boys prefer to run th the trapeze; the

The visitor tr " You have taug "Yet, I do not keep our boys them to have am of worry to ours "Very nerve every sort of l mother with a s that I am natur to find danger i that it is perfe boys to enjoy pl ment of danger, to engage in it consent. If my trapeze, I wor home, where I attention in ca I have conclude lesser evils, I de enjoyment by le it makes me." " Well, I bel ful stay-at-home "And I know ence," replied me a 'right goo as good as a bo surprised if the tion I have end with them wh fun'!" This simple is There are sure the useful lesso

A Potato Sal small slices. T lows : Break tablespoonfuls tablespoonful o ful of mustard. water and stir sistency of crea pour over the p

Salmon and that has been r one third of its well together. pepper and ma these in flour a brown on a wel so that both si