Wajsh & Clarke BUGGIES, WAGONS, AND CARTS.

Alex. Ferguson has arranged to sell the

Brantford Carriage Co.'s Buggies, and Carts THE FINEST IN THE DOMINION. and they are offered at low prices

THE BAIN WAGGON Is the lightest running, and is a general favor. It is a model of strength and durability. Its gears are soaked in boiling oil, expelling all moisture and imparting great toughness to the wood. The patent truss axle adds greatly to the value of the wagon. I control the sale of this wagon in the Townships of Cavan and Manvers.

All Kinds of Repairing

SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO CARRIAGE PAINTING.

Commendable. All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Centreville. Since the last time we were at Fraserville we noticed that Mr. Monney who lives about two miles from here has erected a fine two storey brick house which presents a grand appearance from the beautiful site on which it is situated.

Mr. David Hater of Otomabee was visiting the homestead in Cedar Valley last Thursday.

Mr. Geo. Byers, son of Mr. Wm. Byers who has been in New York State during the past summer returned home last Friday. Welcome back.

Rev. Dr. Smith of Queen's College, Kingston will deliver his postponed lecture in the church here next Friday night under the auspices of the Centreville Ladies Auxiliary of the W.F.M.S. Do not fail to hear the Rev. Dr. for it will be a rare intellectual treat.

We regret to note the illness of Mr. R. Fair of Peterboro', a former resident here but hope that he will soon recover.

As we have been absent from home spending a few days in Peterboro' with friends our letter is shorter than usual this week.

Mount Pleasant. Rev. Jas. Cleland of Port Hope officiated in Rev. J. Ewing's pulpits on Sabbath last.

Mrs. John Sadler passed peacefully away on Saturday last at 9 a.m. having reached the ripe old age of 85. She had never recovered from the effects of a fall she had received a short time ago. Her daughters were at her bedside when her spirit took its flight and so easy was the departure that they were not able to know, definitely, when the separation occurred. Her remains were interred in the Presbyterian cemetery on Monday last at 2 p.m. Mrs. Sadler had resided in the village for a long time and was esteemed by all who knew her. Four of her daughters and her son John of Toronto, were present at the funeral and also during her illness showing by their untiring watchfulness their great devotion during the last hours of Mother's life. The relatives have the entire sympathy of the village and community in the sad bereavement.

Master John McCall has returned from the northwest. Wednesday of this week, Hymen has another celebration near our village. We await developments before proceeding.

A crowd of serenaders struck our town last Friday and rent the air with discordant acclamations. We are told they were calling on the newly married couple to pay their respects.

The death of Mrs. Jas. Hunter occurred at 10 a.m. on Sunday last at the early age of 34. He illness had been a long and patient one. She leaves behind a young daughter the only solace to her bereaved husband. The funeral took place at the back church burying ground on Tuesday at 1 p.m.

St. I.—Laura Coe, Ella Graham, Roy Lough, equal; Maud McKnight, Bertie Red, Annie Trandley, equal; Elva Elliott.

On Wednesday afternoon one of those quiet, fashionable weddings, which now seem to characterize the times took place at the Methodist Parsonage, Cavanville, the contracting parties being Miss A. Bertha Cook, M. M., daughter of the Rev. W. H. Cook, and Rev. J. W. McCollum, B. D., Carlisle, N. Y. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. McCollum of Millbrook assisted by Rev. J. Kilgour of Fraserville, and Rev. Thos. McKee, Pontypool, in the presence of about one hundred guests. The bride was attired in cream silk, trimmed with Irish silk lace and ribbon. The usual bridal veil was decorated with lilies of the valley, making a lovely contrast with the bride's costume. The bridesmaid, Miss Lottie Cook, sister of the bride, was also nicely attired in cream cashmere and silk, trimmed with Irish point silk lace and ribbon. Mr. Geo. Nickle of Toronto University acted as best man. The groom is pastor of the first Presbyterian church, Carlisle, N. Y., and graduated from the Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, New Jersey, and Albert College, Belleville. He graduated from the seminary in May last. Since last September he has been in Carlisle, N. Y. The bride is a talented artist and musician. The bridal party left Cavanville for Millbrook, where they took the train for Toronto. They will also visit New York City and Albany. One tendered them, and also at Carlisle. The good wishes of many friends go with them.

Prevention is Better. Then cure, and those who are subject to rheumatism can prevent attacks by keeping the blood pure and free from the acid which causes the disease. You can rely upon Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for rheumatism and catarrh, also for every form of scrofula, salt rheum, boils and other diseases caused by impure blood. It tones and vitalizes the whole system.

Hood's Pills are easy and gentle in effect.
