lest, Toronto

OUR OWN H CURE HOME

recipe will give a ctive mixture, which for years by doctors cure coughs, whoopand bronchitis:corice..... 1/2 oz. ascara..... 1/2 oz. 1 02.

..... 6 oz. tspoonful every two-Children in proporthe items separately

"Oh, don't get scared.

derstand it; of cours bstinate skin trouble than imes lingers for years, but a short work of it. Also,

id von lie in bed till led you at seven, as led the pleasure of

is going to sleep two

e worst cough—quick est cold—and SAFE

antee Coughs

oughs & Colds

oeney back. 34 years

Shiloh's Cure. 25c.,

Cures

"I know it, mam-

insure permanent cure.

ase. I--"

out of it."

at a small expense. LARMING. "I can't make any-similar feeling.

"Pore Miss 'Ope! To think she'll frantic brushing at her hair would give surance. only get that one chance of a weddin' it any other appearance than that of in 'r life-onless she should be left a a very drowned and depressed rat's; widder, which ain't likely, nor to be and nothing could hide the fact that she 'oped for-and then to 'ave a weddin' had been crying. like this 'ere. Why, I'd a' done bet- With a whole army of terrors knockter for 'er if she'd bin rae own gal. And | ing at her heart, she opened the door,

"Mrs. Anderson is a great invalid." of the glamor that had hung round the western Traction Company's crossing at at $4 to $4.75 per cwt.. with an occa- a man named Raltheson were arrested

Mrs. Brooks snorted.

MILLBROOK AND OMEMEE MIRROR Durham and Victoria Standard

MILLBROOK ONT., THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 1908,

C. W. RICHARDS, Publisher and Proprietor

A Terrible Temptation

$1 per annum.

"And I'm sure I trust it may," the

OR, THE FAMILY RING

CHAPTER VI.-(Continued). tion. "perhaps it will all turn out for

"Thank you for being so kind," she said girlishly; "I must have been nervcus; it is all so strange-and I do want mummy."

VOL. 19. NO. 35.

alone, and her eyes filled again with 'er Pere Miss 'Ope, which I didn't look at the books and magazines up- side, 52c track Toronto; No. 2 mixed, tears, but she was mistress of herself, oughter call 'er that no more now, see on the tables. and after an almost imperceptible pause in she's a married lidy. Ah well, mar- The room were that stiff unhomelike Buckwheat-66c. furned towards where the two men riage is a lottery, and I only 'ope and aspect, which an unused room is apt

Her glance shyly sought Miles' face, which had relaxed some of its sternness, and he put out his hand to her the soft answer, but Grace's heart was his wife.

ang?" he asked, looking at the clergy- and would not be thrust aside. "I should like just to give your wife whither her boxes haed preceded her, when, two hours later, Anderson came in favor of always giving every newly bade her make herself at home, and curled up in a big arm-chair, reading said, as Mr. Wise folded the sheet of She was still upset and overwrought you. I've got a lovely book here." paper, put it into an envelope and by the ceremony she had just been handed it to Hope, "take good care of through; the big sombre house, with der.

every woman should have her 'lines." overawed her, and Mrs. Devon the "that's right.' Hope took the envelope, with a very housekeeper, had neither the faculty for His thoughts were running anxiously vague idea of what its contents signi- making her feel at home, nor the least upon the patient he had seen before he fied, ramming it into her pocket in a desire to do so. hurried, childish fashion that brought | The doctor's sudden marriage had sorbed him, making him forget the back Anderson's frown.

"That will do,' he said impatiently, keeper, and Mrs. Devon was not the ly empty drawing-room. just take care of it. that's all: and now kind of woman who would go out of He sat down in the armchair, holding we had better go."

own kindly features; it began to dawn have appealed to her; but on the con- front of him, dull resentment burning upon him that this was not quite an trary, the girl's appearance prejudiced within her again. Was it resentment, ordinary orthodox wedding. He shook the housekeeper against her from the cr was it merely a sick longing for hands silently with the newly married very moment they met. pair, then with Sister Grace, and fin- With a dignity that terrified Hope, able to give that something a name? ally with Mrs. Brooks, whose long Mrs. Devon conducted her upstairs, She was not in the least in love with Pork-Short cut, $22.75 to $23 per

Marriage is -- He broke off with door and left Hope standing in the mid- -wanting in what? abruptness; and without attempting fur- die of her bedroom, looking blankly at She looked doubtfully at his bent to 10%c; breakfast bacon, 15c to 15%c; ther to enlighten them on the subject her own forlorn figure in the glass; dark head, his absorbed face, his eyes green meats out of pickle, 1c less than ei marriage, he added almost hurried- looking next with a shudder round the fixed with such intentness on the glow- smoked. "God bless you-God bless you!" and se small and out of place. Miles and his wife passed from the If this was what being married of only four hours old should not be riage awaiting them outside. Mr. Wise overtook ner in the aisle. "She is very young," he said tenta- band leapt up in her heart.

"Yes-she is very young."

ter Grace answered nothing, and the tolerably alone. clergyman's sentence did not finish as A sob rose in her throat; still look- "You seem to forget we were only bags; milled mouille, $28 to $32, and sion on Tuesday. The accident took day. he had intended that it should-I hope ing at her own reflection in the long married four hours ago," she burst out pure grain mouille, $35 to $37 per ton. place on Thompson & Egan's sub-conthey will be very happy," he ended. glass, a sharp pang of pity for the suddenly. "I hope they will," was the grave re- white robed girl with the sad tear-fill- Miles started violently, and looked $1.70 per bag. sponse; by that time they had reached ed eyes shot through her heart, the sob up. Not only had he forgotten his There is no change in the condition station gang employed in taking out a the street, where a finy crowd had col- became an audible sound, and two tears wedding, he had forgotten Hope's very of the local cheese market except that small rock cut. The explosion was a

I want mummy." -

But Grace's smile and sigh came very self go in a storm of crying.

Sister Grace turned back to join Mrs. cried to her heart's content, she felt hung loosely about her. Brooks, who had been engaged in a relieved, and distinctly botter. She confidential chat with the clerk. The unpinned her hat, washed her face, and, two witnesses to the wedding, the two mindful of the Cisapproval Miles had who seemed to be Hope's only women bestowed upon her tousled hair, she of curls into an appalling smoothness "Call that a weddin'?" one good lady sadly unbecoming to her. remarked scornfully; "one kerridge. She next took off her wedding gown a result of the inflammable celluloid pure lard, 12½c to 13c; kettle render- store on the pretence that his father taxes for 1908 as security.

away with a sniff, and an indignant She had not laid out her money citement, which, fortunately, was not 75 to 89; live, $6.25 to $6.35. certainty that she had wasted half an wisely, and the garment she now put attended by scrious consequences, the

'is ma not there nor nothin'. Don't and stole down the stairs to the drawseem to me respectful to 'is wife, is ing-room, which impressed her as be- Four persons are lying in the hospitals

Grace said gently, "she was not able thought of living in a house was be- Simcoe Street at 6 o'clock on Thursday sional bid of $4.50 for an extra choice while on duty. Among the goods al-enough if the doctor ad a married a her. This room was so big, and she daughter Beatrice, was crossing the brought $4.50 to $4.85 per cwt.. medium bags of sugar. grand lady with a lot o' money. She'd had never lived amongst such beauti- tracks, when one of the heavy cars to good ones were, worth $4 to $4.40. a' got up from 'er bed o' sickness then, ful furniture, nor had her feet ever struck the vehicle, slewing it around and and common to medium $3 to $1 per Il lay a presty penny. Ain't took no sunk into such soft carpet. She sat throwing the occupants heavily to the cwt. Choice cows were quoted at 83.notice o' Miss 'Ope neither, she ain't. down beside the fireplace and waited ground. Hardiman was knocked un- 50 to $4. medium at $3 to $3.25. com-Wrote a note as stiff as you please, timidly for the next experience. conscious, and was thought at first to be mon at $1.75 to $2.75, canners 75c to sayin' she was goin' to Bournemouth, It came in the shape of a smart par- seriously injured, but at the hospital he $1 per cwt.

Hope stared at the tea-tray, its shining silver, its delicate china, and at the dainty food which reposed in the "Tea' in Mrs. Brooks' establishment signified a very sloppy tray, a loaf of bread, and an unpleasant dab of but-

Having lived all her life in lodgings, it had never been Hope's lot to see such thin crinkly slices of bread and butter: such delicate scones and pretty little cakes as were now spread out before her. But, poor child, she was hungry, ravenously hungry, excitement and nervousness having deprived her of any appetite for the sausage with which Mrs. Brooks had presented her before she dressed for her wedding. And the parlor maid's searching kiln dried, 66%; some old No. 3 yel landlady eanswered lugubriously, "but gaze being withdrawn, she sat up and low offering at 72c, with few buyers. 'in catching of 'er up that short over which life looked less gloomy, and she pray that this one, 'ull turn out all to bear in a house where no mistress reigns, but Miles had tried, up to his "Yes, we must hope and pray," was lights, to provide some amusement for

"Come, my dear," he said, "we must way back to the hospital, and for the directions, and as he had bidden the "One moment," the latter answered, his big gloomy house in Harley Street, self in the contents of one of them, and

Miles smiled and patted her shoulthem, my dear. I agree with Mr. Wise, its huxurious, unaccustomed furniture "That's right," he said absently came in, the anxiety of the case ab-been bitterly resented by his house- novelty of finding a wife in his usualher way to try and make another per- his hands towards the fire, his brain Mr. Wise looked from the doctor's son happy or at ease; she was quite still wholly occupied with the grave irritated countenance to Hope's troubled devoid of motherly instincts, otherwise condition of the sick man he had left; one. There was bewilderment on his Hope's small wistful face must needs and Hope stood on the hearthrug in something she missed without being drawn out signature of her name as first to the great drawing-room, then her husband. She liked and admired barrel; mess, $18 to $19. a witness had considerably retarded the to the big bedroom in which the girl's him profoundly, his proposal to marry Lard-Tierces, 11%c; tubs, 12c; pails, boxes looked painfully small and her had wakened in her a passion of 121/4c. He did not find his voice until An- shabby, after which she said softly:- gratitude which might very easily have Smoked and Dry Salted Meats-Long derson thanked him briefly for all that "You would wish to change, no doubt, deepened into love. But she did not clear bacon, 10c to 10%c for tons and be had done, then he said gently:— | madam. Tea will be ready at half- love him. and yet she instinctively felt cases; hams, large, medium and light, "I must wish you both all happiness. past four," and upon that she shut the his treatment of her was wanting in 14c to 15c; hams, 12%c to 13c; backs, great unfamiliar room in which she felt ing coals, and there stirred within her an assured conviction that a husband vestry and down the church to the car- meant, she was very doubtful whether so wrapped up in his own meditations she did prefer the lodging in Gower as to make him oblivious of his wife. development in the local flour situation. Sister Grace followed more slowly; Street and Mrs. Brooks' company, and Ignorant as she was of love and mar- Choice spring wheat patents, $6.10 to a spark of resentment against her hus- riage, and of all that the words imply, $6.40; seconds, $5.50; winter wheat pat-Surely to-day, their wedding day, he rose up and protested against his be- in bags, $2.60 to $2.65; extra, $2.05 to might have stayed at home to have tea haviour. She remained silently watch- $2.10. 'I hope"-Mr. Wise paused, but Sis- with her, and to help her feel less in- ing him for a few more moments, then Manitoba bran, $23.50 to $24; mid-

her wrath boiled over.

ready driven away and were out of hate that horrid housekeeper-and oh! mind by that absorption in his work. Septembers, 131/2c to 131/2c. "Good-bye," Mr. Wise said, shaking The last words burst passionately were lifted towards Hope. The strong transacted in butter, but supplies are the sister's hand again, "I hope they from her lips, she sank down upon the hight from the electric lights fell upon limited. Grass goods, 28c; current resofa, and for a few moments let her- the girl. Anderson was stirred to a ccipts, 26c to-27c.

(To be Continued.)

----MACHINE EXPLODED.

en was not only badly cut and made, audience escaped in safety through a Mrs. Brooks gave vent to a somewhat but its color was precisely the one rear exit. The picture machine was above all others she would never have being operated in the window, and the "Well!" she said, "I ain't one as worn: a strong shade of fawn was not large plate glass was shattered. The 'olds with too much show, but I never intended for a complexion so sallow as blaze was extinguished by the firemen, see a more measley sort of a concern, hers; and the final glance she gave at but not before considerable damage had if you'll excuse me sayin' so, than that berself before she left the room con- resulted. There was no insurance on there weddin' in all my born days." | vinced her that she had never looked the machine, which was valued at $350, She panted a little as she spoke, find- worse in the whole course of her life. and which, with other articles, was ing it difficult to keep up with the sis- No pulling at the luckless gown completely destroyed. The damage would persuade it to set properly; no to the building is fully covered by in-

TROLLEY HITS SLEIGH.

Four Occupants Thrown Out and Sus. Winter, $1.171/2 f.o.b. affoat. tained Injuries.

longing for the shabby lodging-rooms den and his ten-year-old son Albert, $4.50 per cwt.

BREADSTUFFS.

Toronto, Jan. 21.-Manitoba Wheat-No. 1 northern, $1.22; No. 2 northern, $1.17; feed wheat, 70c; No. 2 feed, 66c. Ontario Wheat-No. 2 white, 98c to ter, which you applied to the bread 98%; No. 2 red, 98c; No. 2 mixed,

> Barley-No. 2, 76c to 79c outside; No. extra, 75c to 76c. Flour-Winter wheat patents for export, offering at $3.85, bids around $3.75; Manitoba patents, special brand

> $5.80 to $6; seconds, $5.20 to $5.40; strong bakers', $5.10 to $5.30. Peas-82c to 85c outside. Rye-No. 2, 80c to 81c. Corn-No. 2 yellow American, 64%c to 65c, Toronto freights; No. 3 yellow.

it ain's what I call a very good start, enjoyed a very excellent meal, after Quotations on Canadian corn largely a bit of a blot, and lookin' fit to kill even ventured to move about her and Oats-No. 2 white, 49%c to 50c out-

Bran-$19 outside; shorts, $21.50.

COUNTRY PRODUCE. Trade in poultry shows little increase full of misgivings as she wended her Plenty of books were strewn in all Young turkeys, extra choice. 14c to 16c not detain this gentleman any longer. rest of the day Hope's wis!ful face and bookseller to send in novels likely to Young geese 9c to 11c We have done all the necessary sign- tear-filled eyes obtruded themselves please a young lady, Hope found many Young ducks 9c to 11c of them attractive in appearance. In- Chickens, choice 8c to 10c Miles took his wife straight back to self in the contents of one of them, and large straight back to self in the contents of one of them. married wife her lines. It implies no promptly departed to visit some of his absorbedly, and unaware of his entrance until he spoke to her. Then trance until he spoke to her. Then the trance until he spoke to her trance until h Inferior 20c to 21c three weeks. In that time the father twins, in job lots here.

Eggs-Steady, storage selling at 21c James Fallis, Sr., died on the 28th of to 22c per dozen in case lots; selects. December from erysipelas and blood at $1.75 to $2.50 per dozen. $1.80 to $1.85 for hand-picked. Potatoes-70c to 75c per bag in car best known in the town.

lets on track here. Baled Straw-Quiet at $9.50 to $10.50 per ton on track here. Baled Hay-Timothy $16.50 to $17.50 in car lots on track here.

PROVISIONS.

MONTREAL MARKETS.

some instinct, hitherto asleep in her, ents, $5.75; straight rollers, $5.50; do...

lected, as crowds will, to see a wed- fell over and rolled down her cheeks. existence; he had forgotten where he stocks are considerably less than they premature one, and took place while to kay out Prince Rupert. "If only Mrs. Brooks was here," she was sitting, and the fact of her pres- were last week. November tail-ends, seven of the gang were at work. Two The bride and bridegroom had al- gasped out; "it's so-so lonely, and I ence had been wiped entirely from his 12%c to 12%c; Octobers, 12%c to 13%c; were thrown out of the cut, but were His eyes still looked dazed as they A fair volume of business is being blown to atoms, and the remaining strong sense of irritation when he saw A fair volume of business is being ciose together, and the clergyman sigh- Being very little more than a child, how red were her eyes, how sallow her transacted in eggs. Newly-laid, 30c; seed too, as he ran down the steps and that storm, like storms in Nature, face, and how terribly, glaringly unbelects, 24c to 26c; No. 1 limed, 20c to 21c. cleared the atmosphere. When she had coming was the unshapely frock that Provisions—Barrels short cut mess. $22.50 to $23; half barrels, $11.75 to long cut heavy mess, $21 to $24; half barrels do., $10.50 to $11.25; dry salt

BUFFALO MARKET.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 21,-Wheat Spring, dull; No. 1 Northern, $1.16; No 2 red. $1.04; winter, easy. Corn-Lower; No. 2 white, 61c; No. 2 yellow. 62c. Oats-Firm: No. 2 mixed, 54%c; No. 2 white, 54%c. Barley-$1 to $1.15. Rye -No. 1, 90c asked, track.

NEW YORK WHEAT MARKET. New York, Jan. 21.-Wheat-Spot easy; No. 2 red, $1.05% elevator; No. ? red, $1.07 f.o.b. affoat; No. 1 northern

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Milch cows sold at $40 to $55 each enforced against Russia, ly from head to foot, not omitting to notice the redness of her eyes and the LEADING MARKETS for choice, and $25 to $35 for common to fair. Calves were slightly higher at 3 to 61/2 cents per pound.

Export ewes sold at $4 40 $4.40. bucks and culls, $3 to $4, and lambs $5 to $6.25 per cwt. Select hogs sold at $5.70 and light and fats at $5.45 per cwt.

HAMILTON BOY KILLED. Was Slashed With Knife by Companion to the hospital, and it was thought at first that his injuries were not serious. ter and cheese had been consumed at cheese export to Great Britain by leaps and bounds. Mr. Ruddick thought, He weakened very rapidly, however, and passed away about midnight. Kirkpatrick was arrested soon after the fight took place on a charge of wounding. but it is likely that he will be called upon to answer a more serious charge

Cheese-13%c for large and 13%c for and mother and a son-in-law have all died under peculiarly sad conditions. 25c to 26c per dozen in case lots; se- poisoning. His son-in-law, Alex. Brodlects, 25c to 26c. New-laid from 30c to dy. 48 years of age, was at the death hed and contracted the disease the fol-Honey-Strained steady at 11c to 12c lowing day, and died on Jan. 8. Mrs. per pound for 60-pound pails, and 12c Fallis, aged 70 years, was almost imto 13c for 5 to 10-pound pails. Combs mediately stricken down with the same fatal malady, and she too passed away Beans-$1.70 to $1.75 for primes and about eight o'clock on Thursday night. The family are amongst the oldest and

> SNOWBALLS QUENCHED FIRE. Population of Pennsylvania Mining HAPPENINGS FROM ALL OLL THE

Town Adopts Novel Expedient. A despatch from Johnstown, Pa., says: Probably the most remarkable manner of extinguishing fire occurred on Thurs- Telegraph Briefs From Our Own and day at Poswell, a mining town near here, when hundreds of men, women, boys and girls saved the town from destruction by throwing snowballs. The town has no fire department and water is scarce. The flames had gained much headway and in a big-boiler was stored sufficient powder to blow up the village. ing ice. As a last resource practically the entire pepulation began throwing snowballs by thousands, made from soft, wet snow. and after a time prevented the explosion and confined the flames to a half-dozen

FOUR RUSSIANS KILLED. Another Explosion of Dynamite on the

A despatch from Kenora says: Four dlings, $27 to $29 per ton, including men were killed in a dynamite explo- ed to death at Coleridge, Alberta, on Fri-Rolled oats-$2.75; corn, $1.60 to tract of the National Transcontinental, killed by the shock. Two others were three suffered serious injuries. The station gang were all Russians, and in the excitement and terror of the moment the survivors were not able to give the names of those killed.

PUT POISON IN CHOCOLATE. $12.25; clear fat back, $23.50 to $24.50; Beamsville Boy .Played a Dangerous Trick on a Playmate.

friends, left the building side by side. wrestled valiantly with brush and Accident at a Moving Picture Show at rels plate beef, $13.50 to $15; half bar- A peculiar case of poisoning occurred to Tokio, accepting Japan's assurances ried in Canada two years ago, drowned rels do., $7.25 to $7.75; barrels heavy at Beamsville on Thursday. A young in regard to restricting immigration. mess beef, $10 to $11; half barrels do., boy named Karr procured some Span- Winnipeg asks the Bankers' Associa- Wednesday. A despatch from Ingersoll says: As $5.50 to $6; compound lard, 10c to 11c; ish fly blister at Dr. Fairfield's drug tion to loan the city $12,000,000, with Col. Goethais, Chairman of the isthand a 'crsepital nuss, and one other and hung it in the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the moving piction for the cupboard, taking film becoming ignited, the cupboard, tac lidy, for the only guests. Call that a from her box one of the other dresses ture machine at the Theatorium excording to size; breakfast bacon, 14c curing it he met some boys who had founding of Quebec will be held in Auat $300,000,000. she had bought with the money given ploded on Thursday night and the build- to 15c; Windsor bacon, 14%c to 15%c; some chocolates. He got a piece of the gust, and the Prince of Wales may The total enrollment of students at And the contemptuous dame moved her by Anderson for her trousseau. ing caught fire. After considerable ex- fresh killed abaltoir dressed hogs, $8.- candy and placed some of the mixture come. inside, and gave it to a boy named George Chambers, found guilty of a This is a decrease of twenty-six from Russell, who ate it. Russell was taken series of highway robberies in Toronto, last year. violently sick a short time after, but was sentenced to imprisonment for life | An Ohio man has offered to substiby prompt medical assistance the poil on Friday. son was ejected and the boy soon re- The Government have passed an order if necessary on condition that $3,000,covered. County Constable Tufford is in Council abolishing the coasting privi- 600 is paid his family. investigating the matter.

> CIGARS AND WHISKEY. Employees of C.P.R. Charged With Wholesale Thieving.

A despatch from Winnipeg says : Complaints have been reaching the Canadian past regarding shortages in freight in Winnipeg. In some instances whole cases of cigars have gone astray. On Wednesday at noon five employees. Toronto, Jan. 21.-Little was doing in named Sidney Mason, Ernest Haigh, ing most terribly big. Already some as the result of an accident at the South- exporters' cattle. A few bulls were sold Robert Thompson, Gavin B. Landels and "I'll be bound she'd a' come fast that were small and familiar crept over loseph Hardiman and his twelve-year-old Choice loads of butchers' steers worth of cigars, bottles of whiskey and here and there by individual priests

Attended Convention Held Largely at Woodstock.

A despatch from Hamilton says: A At the Western Dairymen's Conven-lag named Cummings, employed at the tion held in Woodstock last wetk, Mr. minion Government, pointed out to the McPherson shoe factory, died at a late John McQuaker of Owen Sound, Pre- convention that the countries which are hour on Friday night from wounds re- sident of the association, stated in his likely to compete with Canada in supceived in a fight with another work address that the past year had been a plying the world's demand for cheese man named Kirkpatrick in that estab- good one in the dairying business in and butter are Siberia and Australia. lishment on Friday morning. The western Ontario. About $25,882 had, These are the countries which are showstory as told to the police is that Kirk- he said, been spent in improvements on ing the greatest growth in their butter patrick seized a knife when the fight factories, and $16,954 on creameries in exports during the recent years. Denappeared to be going against him and the territory. The prices for dairy pro- mark and Holland offered keen compeslashed Cummings several times in duots during 1907 had been generally tition in the cheese industry; New Zeathe face. The wounded man was taken high, and a larger percentage of but- land, too, had been increasing her counted for by Mf. I. Hr Grisdale of that country. The Argentine Repub-Ottawa as due to the fact that farmers lic, so often rumored to be a coming will not make all-year contracts with competitor in the dairy market, would owing to the fatal termination of Cum- their help. "Let me tell you this," he never, Mr. Ruddick thought, become said; "you can get labor, and good la- a serious factor in the situation. Irebor at that, if you will engage your land had developed a creamery indusfind other employment. You pay high ter was nearest to Canadian in quality. keep him from year to year." Mr. figures showing that Canada's exports Grisdale held that dairy farming was of dairy products had increased bethe most profitable form of agriculture tween 1868 and 1903 from $550,000 to for Ontario. To get the utmost profit $24,712,000. Since 1903, the banner year from the farm, however, he insisted in the industry, exports had been-lowthat the soil should be worked to a er. For the year ending March, 1908, greater extent; that the farmer should the exports would probably be not keep all the cows possible, and that he more than $20,000,000.

LACK OF FARM LABOR.

regard to a rotation of crops. CANADA'S COMPETITORS.

however, that the making of cheese in New Zealand might fall off, since but-The scarcity of farm labor was ac- ter was the proper dairy product of should pursue some definite plan in Hon. Nelson Monteith, Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, outlined briefly the measures which the Government are taking for the protection and de Mr. J. A. Ruddick, commissioner on velopment of the dairy industry.

CONDENSED NEWS ITEMS leges enjoyed by foreign vessels after this year.

GLOBE.

Other Countries of Recent Events.

CANADA. The St. Clair River is filled with float-dead on Friday. Three new smallpox cases have been reported in Hamilton.

Brockville children cannot skate on the rink unless vaccinated. The C. P. R. trains will be running suggestion was concurred in by both into Portland, Oregon, early in March. sides, and Hon. Frank Oliver stated the Hon. George A. Walkem, ex-Premier Government had been considering the of British Columbia, died at Victoria. matter for some time. Thirteen men are at work on the municipal stone pile at Peterboro.

Conductor J. A. McDougall was crush-A five-year-old girl died at Montreal from drinking lye given to her as a joke by a young boy. The Grand Trunk Pacific has employed a couple of Boston landscape experts

Flogging is proposed by E. N. Lew- E. Redmond in reuniting the Irish Na-M. P., for those found guilty of tionalist forces. stabbing or shooting. Gall's vital statistics show a decrease ers of Wm. O'Brien, were ejected from a n deaths and an increase in marriages | meeting of the directors of the United Smallpox cases of a mild type are reported from Stonewall, Carman, and Rosser, in Manitoha. Winnipeg's Board of Control will attempt to collect $12,000 in fines from the street railway.

ern lines of the C. P. R.

Bronsdon's candy establishment at Montreal and Rae & Donnelly's werehouse were damaged by fire to the xtent of $20,000 on Friday. Fort William has offered Port Arthur $75,000 for the electric railway lines within the corporation of Fort William, with half the equipment, Earl Clark, a St. Catharines newsboy, was sentenced to five years in the victoria Industrial School for keeping change for a dollar in selling a paper. Mr. Hawthornwaite introduced a motion in the British Columbia Legislature to impeach Lieutenant-Governor Dunsmuir for disallowing the Natal act Mr. B. Edwards of Hamilton dropped without the advice of his Ministers. The Speaker would not accept the resolution. Hon. Clifford Sifton suggested in the House of Commons that the Government take steps to assist western farmers to secure a supply of seed grain. The

GREAT BRITAIN. *

Three girls lost their lives in a factory fire at Scranton, Pa., on Friday, Negotiations between British millowners and cotton-operatives have been William O'Brien and Timothy Healey

Two Nationalists from Cork, support-have promised to co-operate with John

Irish League at Dublin on Wednesday.

UNITED STATES. The United States will withdray, nor Cuba in February of next year A Toledo youth killed as mother that F. W. Peters, Winnipeg, has been ap- he might get her money to pay his pointed general traffic manager of west- loard and her jewels for his sweet-herself in a bathtub in New York on

Harvard University this year is 5,763. tute himself for Thaw and be executed

Duluth, 81.21% f.o.b. affoat; No. 2 hard Pacific headquarters for many weeks New Moorish Sultan Takes a Long Threatened Step.

ginning to wear away. A shamefaced night. A sleigh containing Albert Mur- length for the shabby ledging reason and proclaimed out the country is formed. A despatch from Tangier says: The will shortly be proclaimed at Fez, and custody are some hundreds of dollars threatened in Morocco and proclaimed cut the country is feared.

FEARS FOR COAST TOWNS. and chiefs, seems now to be beginning in earnest. Mulai Hafid, who is now A despatch from London says: The acknowledged as Sulfan throughout Tangier correspondent of the Times It is expected that the Belgian Parlia- Morocco, except in the coast towns, telegraphs that the Moroccan situation mentary Commission will reject King has formally proclaimed a Jehad, and has been made more serious owing to Leopold's Congo treaty, though it will public criers are exhorting the people the proclemation of the Jehad, or boly and would be pleased to see Miss 'Ope for maid bringing tea, and Hope was was found to be but slightly hurt. Bea- A few lots of stockers and feeders Japan has warned China that she will all Christians. There is great excited steps are necessary to protect Euro-when she come back. Pore young lady, nervously conscious of the searching trice Hardiman and the elder Murden were sold at $3.50 per cwt. Light stock- cease paying duties on her goods sent to ment in the city. Mulai Hafld is re- peans in the coast towns. It is believe she cried a bit over that note. I know.' giance cast at her by the servant, a were slightly injured, and the Murden ers were worth $2 to $2.75 per cwt. Manchuria unless the customs laws are ported to be marching to attack the ed no Europeans are now in the inter-French. It is expected that the Jehad icr.