

Mrs. James Moore, of Lakefield, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. T. Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Armstrong entertained the Centreville Debating Society at their home last evening. Games and music made up an excellent program, after which dainty refreshments were served. Miss Crytal Stewart assisted her sister, Mrs. Armstrong, in entertaining. The Debating Society acknowledge it to have been one of the most enjoyable evenings they have had.

Miss Edith Puc is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. McLaren, Peterboro.

Mr. Robert Rosborough, of Peterboro, is a guest of his sister, Mrs. T. Hunter.

Mr. Ted Burnham has secured the position of Junior in the Millbrook Branch of the Ontario Bank. Success, Ted.

Mr. Roger Krieger, of Aledema, N. W. T., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Wm. Pendry and other friends.

Parents of children attending the Millbrook public school should read the report in this issue. The work of a number—especially that of some of the younger pupils—has not been as good as it should be, and we believe that parents can very materially assist their children to attain a better standing in their classes. Encourage and assist them with their lessons. It is your duty to do this. Don't blame the teacher for what may be your own negligence or thoughtlessness. A half hour of your time a few nights in each week devoted to assisting your children in their "home work" will aid them in the work of the following days and also help to make intelligent men and women of them, to be able to take high places in this glorious Dominion in the years to come. The above is applicable not only here but in every place where schools exist.

Miss Celia B. Ferguson, of Port Colborne, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. T. Hunter.

DIED

In Pontypool, on Sunday, Feb. 4th, 1906, Ellen McKennet, relict of the late John Coulter, aged 86 years.

THE LATE WM. R. BATESON BURIED WITH HONORS.

The remains of William R. Bateson, who died at Hot Springs, Arkansas, after serving in the army in the Philippines, arrived today. The funeral will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the home of Thomas Rabby, 231 Fifth Ave. Mr. Bateson was Mrs. Rabby's brother, and lived in Manistee until about ten years ago.—Manistee News, Feb. 1st.

This afternoon the remains of Wm. Bateson were laid to rest in Oak Grove, after a funeral service at the home of his sister, Mrs. Thomas Rabby, of Fifth avenue. Deceased's daughter, Mrs. Kilpatrick of Traverse City, was present. The pall bearers were members of Co. M. in uniform, and the Co. bugler also attended. The Hannah Rifles of Traverse City were represented by honorary pallbearers.—Manistee, Mich., Daily News, Feb. 2.

NO SWEARING ALLOWED.

St. Louis police commissioners issued an order recently prohibiting policemen from swearing while on duty, and since then Chief of Police Kelly issued an order that policemen shall arrest all persons who may be heard using profane language in the streets and in public places. Since the police board's order was issued one man has used profanity while on duty, and was fined $50. Some such law might be a good thing for Millbrook and most other places throughout the country. At the rate of $50 per "cuss" word the revenue of some towns would be increased at a rapid rate.

The services in the Presbyterian church last Sunday conducted by the Rev. R. B. Nellis B.A. of Mill St. church, Port Hope, were largely attended, especially the evening one; when an appreciative audience which filled the building listened to one of the best discourses that have been delivered in Millbrook.

Mr. Nellis has a fine gentlemanly bearing, is in possession of a good voice and a clear enunciation, on all sides were heard complimentary remarks, concerning his appearance, his message and his gifts. The musical part of the service was excellent, the choir was heard in an anthem and Mr. C. V. Pym in solo, which were rendered in good form. Next Sunday the pulpit will be occupied by the Rev. W. M. Mackay B.A. Peterboro, assistant pastor in St. Paul's; Mr. Mackay is a pleasing speaker, has a fine command of language, and will not disappoint those who delight in hearing the word expounded. The choir will assist in making the word profitable by the singing of an anthem; and Mrs. (Dr.) Snelgrove will contribute a solo.

COUGHERS, HAWKERS, SPITTERS!

Public expectation is against the common law, against the laws of health also. When the throat tickles, that's the time you need "Catarrhoxone"; it soothes away the irritation, cuts out phlegm and loosens the tight feeling. You'll quickly cure that Catarrh and throat trouble with Catarrhoxone. It positively prevents new attacks and cures catarrh forever and for all time to come. Don't take our word for it. Try Catarrhoxone yourself. Once used you'll be delighted with its pleasant and helpful influence.

Chills Prove Fatal!

If warmth and circulation are not promptly restored chills result in fatal pneumonia. This necessitates keeping Nerviline on hand. Taken in hot water it breaks up a chill in two minutes. By rubbing freely over throat and chest it prevents colds. No treatment so strong, so penetrating, so swift to kill pain and inflammation. Nearly fifty years record has proven the value of Polson's Nerviline. You should get a bottle to-day.

Why He Likes the Toronto Star.

"Do you know," said a prominent merchant the other day, "I like the Toronto Star better than any other paper I have ever read. It not only prints all the news every day, but it serves it up in an attractive, readable style. There is nothing heavy or dyspeptic about it.

"Then, its different departments are fine. I always read its market page. Its quotations are always complete and accurate, and it has 1-4s of information that I can get nowhere else. It's the best market page I know. My wife likes the woman's pages, and she's all the time reading to me things she sees in them. She thinks Madge Meriton's page every Saturday is especially fine—sensible, womanly, and cheerful. My boy Jack says the sporting page just suits him. He says there isn't a paper in Toronto can touch it on hocker and lacrosse and baseball news.

"In politics I don't always agree with the Star, but I will say this, that I never yet saw an editorial that was not a fair presentation of the case."

Another great thing about the Toronto Star is its cheapness. You can buy it and the paper you are now reading for one year for $1.75. This for the same edition of the Star for which the people in Toronto and the nearby towns pay $3.00 a year. The Star has a circulation of 42,000, being thousands more than the circulation of any other evening paper published in Ontario.

BIRD'S EYE VIEW OF THE STAR'S NEW HOME

The Star has installed in its building, lately completed, a mechanical equipment which in up-to-dateness and speed is not surpassed. As an illustration, its press capacity has been increased eightfold in the last six years, and even now it has been found necessary to make arrangements for further additions to its press capacity.

The rise of the Toronto Star in six years under its present management to the very front rank of Canadian journalism has been phenomenal, and that it is living even greater plans for the future is evidenced by the above-mentioned facts.

We are still able to offer you The Daily Star and the paper you are now reading for one year for $1.75.

THE LATE MISS

Last week we promised a fuller sketch of the life, funeral service of Miss Mar Rowan, whose death occurred on 23rd of January, 1906, early age of 29 years. We this better than by inserting the resolutions passed by the Board of the Presbyterian which the late Miss Rowan was a consistent member, and an appreciated organist:

At a conjoint meeting of the Board of Management of the Presbyterian Church of Ontario, on Thursday, 25th of Jan'y, 1906, the following Resolutions were adopted by a standing vote; and on Friday, 26th of Jan'y, 1906, the desire to be permitted to the Session and Board of Management in their resolutions:

RESOLVED, that we cherish fond remembrance for the life, spirit, the musical talents and of our late member and organist, and that we extend our sympathy on the occasion of their irremovable loss, and we commend them to the God of all comfort, who alone can make angels their spiritual comfort, and that they may be sustained, and that they may not sorrow, as they have no hope,—

RESOLVED, that we place a wreath on the casket,—

RESOLVED, that these resolutions be inscribed upon our permanent record, and a copy sent to Mrs. Rowan (family), and also to the Press.

The funeral services began by worship at the home conducted by Pastor, Rev. J. M.
