Millbrook News.

Mrs. Ross Kelly, of Port Hope, is a guest of her niece, Mrs. R. H. Edmunds.

Mr. John Deyell was in Toronto this week attending the funeral of the late Dr. J. H. C. Fisher.

Mr. John McBride was in Cobourg on Monday and took a trip through the House of Refuge and found it fitted up with all modern conveniences. There were old people, young people, short people, tall people, in fact all kinds of people there, and everyone was comfortable and happy. Mac says it is just the place for to spend the winter months—free from every wind that blows, & when the mercury drops to 36 below zero outside, it is like June weather inside this splendid building. Mr. McBride congratulates Mr. McMillan as being a first class Manager.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wilson and daughter, Hazel, of Port Hope, were guests at the home of Mrs. C. W. Richards on Sunday.

Bracelets, Necklets, Rings, latest designs and settings. Gentlemen's tie Pins, fobs and charms, at special prices, at J. Steele's, Millbrook.

Mr. Robert Read, of Toronto, gave the Mirror a call yesterday. He was here with his son, Frank, attending the funeral obsequies of his mother, the late Mrs. Read. Mr. Read attended the Millbrook Public School during the time Messrs. Preston, Knight, Moyles, and Dimsdale were the Principals and he has many interesting narratives of those days. Mr. Read has made a success in life, and he is at present the head member of the firm of Read & Co., contractors, who make a specialty of heating and ventilation. He is an interesting conversationalist, and his many friends here were pleased to meet him.

Mr. John Smith, of South Monaghan, delivered a load of clover seed on Tuesday, Feb. 18th, to Mr. R. J. Doak, Millbrook, that netted him the handsome sum of $900.00.

DIED
In the City of Toronto, on Saturday, Feb. 15th, 1908, Matilda Read, relict of the late Robert Read, aged 81 years.

The funeral took place from the residence of her cousin, Mr. W. G. Russell, King St., Millbrook, on Monday, and was largely attended.

Presentation and Oyster Supper.

On Friday, Feb. 14th, an enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Staples, the occasion being the presentation of an address and Morris Chair to Mr. Edward and Misses M. and L. Richardson. Despite the downpour of rain that evening, the neighbors turned out in large numbers. The following address was read by Deputy-Reeve, Mr. T. A. Kelly.

Mr. and Misses Richardson. It is with regret that we your friends and neighbors, have learned of your intended departure from our midst, we feel that we cannot let this occasion pass without in some manner showing our appreciation of your good citizenship.

For years it has been our privilege to know your household in genial friendship. In the varied walks of neighborly and social intercourse, you have contributed abundantly towards making life pleasant in the circle in which you have moved. We do not forget that when the laugh was meretricious, your happy presence added pleasure to the scene, and when sorrow visited our homes, your acts of kindness and words of sympathy made the sorrow lighter.

Recollecting the pleasant years made agreeable through your acquaintance, your neighbors herewith present you with this chair and desire your acceptance of the same. This gift is presented as a slight token of the high esteem in which you are held by us. May it adorn your home in the future, and may Providence spare you for many years to enjoy the comfort it may give, and may it remind you of the happy days spent in this good old neighborhood.

R. S. STAPLES
T. A. KELLY
F. M. STAPLES
Signed

Mr. Richardson, in reply, thanked the friends for the gift and said it was something he never expected, and it was with a feeling of regret that they were leaving the neighborhood, where they had spent so many agreeable and pleasant days. His home would always be open to his old neighbors, and hoped that they would often partake of the hospitality he would at any time be pleased to extend.

Following the presentation were several short speeches, after which the company were invited to the dining room, where the oysters were served up in good style, and the table fairly groined with its burden of all kinds of delicacies, that the ladies of the neighborhood know so well how to provide. After supper, vocal and instrumental music and games were indulged in until the early hours of the morning. A hearty vote of thanks was given the genial host and hostesses, after which all wended their way homeward.

Mr. and the Misses Richardson will reside in Peterboro.

HOCKEY MATCH.

Millbrook Wins Return Game.

On Tuesday last the Lakefield Junior Hockey Club came to Millbrook and played a return game with the Junior Hockeyists of this town, which resulted in a win for Millbrook by a score of 5 to 2. The game was fast and clean throughout, but the home team showed that they had practiced hard since their game last week at Lakefield.

The score at half time was 2 to 1 in favor of Millbrook. Nellis and Smith did the scoring for the visitors, while Edmunds scored 3 and Natrass and N Mitchell one each for the locals.

The lineup was as follows:
Lakefield position Millbrook
Clarke goal W. Mitchell
Glass point H. Handley
Gordon c point R. Fair
Smith centre C. Natrass
Nellis rover E. Sootheran
Max r wing R. Edmunds
Carew l wing N. Mitchell
N. Dunsford umpire J. Steele
Timer W. T. Wood
Referee W. O'Brien

There was a fairly good attendance and all present enjoyed the game very much.

WEDDING BELLS.

GIBSON—RODDY NUPTIALS.

At "The Manse," Millbrook, on Wednesday, Feb. 19th, 1908, a very pleasing event took place, when Miss Lillian Gibson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt Gibson of Carmel, was united in wedlock by the Rev. Wm. Johnston, to Mr. Nelson Roddy, of Virden, Man.

The bride looked very pretty in a brown tulle dress trimmed with sequin over turquoise. The groom was a Cavan boy, going with his parents to the West when quite young, and has grown up with that country, which has been described as a country of magnificent distances. The happy young couple intend leaving for their future home early in March. The bride's going-away dress is of brown ladies cloth, with hat to match. It is somewhat singular that so many of our estimable young ladies are being carried off to the West; there must be more aggressiveness about the young men from the West than marks those at home, or loss is a decided gain to that prosperous young country.

The Mirror joins in best wishes to this popular young couple.

TO THE FARMERS OF CAVAN AND THE ADJOINING TOWNSHIPS:

Now is your time to leave your order for fencing. The prospects are that the wire will be higher. I am in a position to furnish you with any style of fence or quality of fence, from 30 cents per rod to $1.75 per foot. You can have your choice of six different makes. All orders left in on before the First of March will have Two cents a rod rebate. You can have it shipped when you want to use it. So you have to pay no sooner than if you ordered it just when you were going to build. Some times it is hard to get fencing on short notice. If wire should go down in price you will get the benefit of the drop. Steel gates always on hand.

I am agent for the Galt Art Metal Co. Any person that intends to use any Steel Shingles, Siding or Ceiling will do well and save money by calling, seeing samples and have prices quoted. It will last a life time. I also handle the best hayfork goods on the market. Prices right, work guaranteed. I represent one of the best nurseries in Canada and furnish hard but reliable, hardy trees and shrubs. Your order placed with me insures healthy stock, true to name and at reasonable prices.

FOR SALE—One large, second-hand Straw Cutter, in good working order. Will exchange it for hay, wood or potatoes.

Will be at my Shop every Wednesday and Saturday afternoon. Next door west of James Donaldson's pump shop.

Frost Wire Fence Co's Convention a Big Success.

The fourth annual convention of the agents of the Frost Wire Fence Company, Limited, which opened here on Wednesday, recalls to public attention the almost unparalleled success of a company which, starting less than ten years ago as a "one man concern," survived the first few months of the quietude and financial loss that generally go with a new business venture, and, having figuratively found its feet, grew and expanded in such rapid manner that today its products are known the world over, and its motto, "Not how cheap, but how good," is recognized by the mercantile world as the unvarnished truth.—The foregoing is only a paragraph from the Hamilton Spectator's over four column writeup, which gives a description of their large buildings, the machinery, &c. Also an account of the banquet, the toasts, a list of the agents in attendance, etc. Mr. Albert Payne, agent for this section, regrets that he was unable to attend. Mr. Payne is one of the Co's most successful and popular agents.

OBITUARY.

The Late Mrs. Robert Read, Sr.

There passed away in the City of Toronto, on Saturday, Feb. 15, in the person of Matilda Petch, relict of the late Robert Read, and eldest daughter of the late Robert Petch, an old and most highly respected lady.

Deceased was born in Toronto in the year 1826, consequently she was in her 82d year at the time of her death. She was married to the late Robert Read, Architect, of Toronto, in 1846; to this union three sons were born, only one of whom survives her, namely, Robt, of Toronto, with whom she lived from 1882 until her demise; her youngest son, James, at the age of 17, was accidentally shot to death; Wm. died on the farm N. E. of Millbrook, in 1877, after farming for three years. The late Robt Read, died in 1853. He was educated in Trinity College, Dublin, and was well up in his profession of an Architect.

The late Mrs. Read resided in Millbrook and Cavan from 1859 to '82, when she moved to Toronto. She was a faithful member of the Methodist Church, and lived a beautiful christian life.

Her remains were brought to Millbrook via the G. T. R. by her son and grandson, and the funeral took place from the residence of her cousin, Mr. W. G. Russell, on Monday afternoon, and interment at Gardiner's Cemetery. Rev. G. K. Clark conducted the solemn and impressive services at the house and grave. Quite a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends were present to pay their last respects to one whom they loved.

Among those from a distance were: Messrs. Robert and Frank E. Read, and Mr. John Russell, Professor in Mathematics, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. A. Russell of Ashburnham, and Dr. Russell of Baillieboro.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. Col. Sutton, and Messrs. Albert Payne, Samuel Russell, J. C. Kells, John Whitfield, M. Gardiner.

Recent Death.

There departed this life, on January 21, an excellent character, in the person of Miss Harriet Graham, of the village of Bethany, township of Manvers Like Martha, of the Scriptures, she was marked by unusual domestic concern, ready hospitality, strong fraternal love complete submissio to her Lord, and great confidence in His love and power. And she loved Him with her whole heart, and strove earnestly to do His will. She leaves one sister, Mrs. Blakeley of Bethany, and four brothers, James and Thomas R. of the same place; William S., of Mount Pleasant, and John, of Millbrook, to mourn her demise. But "they sorrow not as those who have no hope"—Christian Guardian of Feb. 19
