We study to please Give us a call. The Morton Studio, Millbrook.

Mr. J. A. Paterson, K. C., was a guest of R. v. and Mrs. Wm. Johnston, on Tuesday.

Mrs. H. W. Ball, of the Falls Line, Cavan, will receive on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Feb. 17th, 18th and 19th.

You mean to, but do it now—get your photo at the Morton Studio, Millbrook.

The Boharm Elevator and Trading Co., Limited, has sent a big order for harness to Mr. T. J. Lang. The harness is to be retained by the above firm, and this speaks well for Mr. Millbrook's leading harness maker, Mr. Lang, whose business is steadily extending.

Call and inspect our work. We will be pleased to have you. The Morton Studio, Millbrook.

Rev. Dr. Armstrong, Ottawa, attended the Banquet here on Tuesday.

The Scottish Cinematograph and Concert Co. gave two entertainments in the Cavanville Hall last week to crowded houses. The program was excellent throughout. It is safe to say that Mr. C. N. C. Laidlaw, the genial and popular proprietor and manager of the Co., has one of the best lot of films ever put on by any Co., and the high class selections by Prof. Hutchinson, and those rendered by the latest improved phonograph, proved a great treat. This Company should be well patronized wherever they appear.

The Millbrook hockey club met defeat at Bethany on Feb. 5th. Score at full time 3 all, but the score from the north west got two more in the after play.

Mr. Robt. Vance, of Battleford, and Miss Lila Vance, of Manvers, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Vance last week.

Mrs. Wm. G. Pender and Miss E. Kneger are visiting friends in Peterboro and Campbellford respectively.

Miss Minnie Nattrass returned on Thursday from a pleasant visit with friends in Lindsay and Ennily.

Mr. W. D. Gwynne was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Clarke, on Tuesday.

A Charity Pool, gotten up by W. I. Collins, was subscribed to by the following gentlemen: T. Leith, F. Pender, W. J. E. Gillout, J. Henry, T. Lang, Geo. Carveth, Dr. Deyell, A. W. Leach, W. Martin, G. Duncan, E. Burton, J. McBride, W. Pickup, Dr. Turner, H. & H. Nattrass, G. and F. Burnham, R. Watson, G. Dean, F. Haney, R. and J. Deyell, I. N. Thompson, L. Larmer, T. Campbell, Dr. Clark, J. Leitch, M. Patrick, H. Armstrong, T. B. and W. I. Collins, W. S. Given, H. I. Griffin, H. I. Griffin, H. Campbell, J. C. Kells, J. D. Fur, Dr. Montgomery, Dr. Jensen, T. Miller, R. Cochrane, J. R. Eakins, A. Vance, R. Doak, and C. Winslow. The total amount subscribed was $11.50, and we understand it has been put to a good cause. The pool was gotten up on the day of the race between Longboat and Shrubbs. The time and place of the 'draw' was a mystery, except that the promoter of the pool stated that it might take place before the race, however, subsequent events showed it to have taken place later, as two loads of wood and other necessities were 'drawn' to a couple of worthy and possibly needy citizens, and no doubt those who contributed to the 'pool', will feel the happier that their cash will help to warm the hearts and hands of needy citizens.

On Friday evening last the young Men's and Young Ladies' Bible classes were treated to a most enjoyable social and pleasant time by the defeated sides of the Membership contest. Addresses, solos, mouth organ selections, recitations and impromptu speeches made up a program of high merit, refined amusement and entertainment. The tree contest was thought provoking, interesting and enjoyable. Cake and coffee were served during the evening. At an early hour all repaired to their respective homes having enjoyed the evening program very much, and more enthusiastic than ever to promote the best interests of their respective Sunday School classes.

PRAISE FOR SAMUEL.

Editor World: Mr. Sam Hunter's cartoon, "A Skeptic" picturing Sir Wilfrid's memories of colder political weather than even Mr. MacKay now feels, must have delighted many men of both parties who remember when Grit ears tingled thru years of cold snaps, have stung the pleasantry up on my study wall, with many others from the same cheerful, witty hand and head. It seems to me that those of us who appreciate the genius of Mr. Hunter should occasionally get up in meeting and say so. That prophet deserves the honor in his own country. He is always incisive, yet never brutal, never brutal, never malicious, never wounding a heart—indeed, a great and genial caricaturist, always native in his zest.

E. W. Thompson.

Ottawa, Feb. 1, 1909.

Mr. Hunter is a son of Capt. J. Hunter, Millbrook, and we are all proud of his success.

Manvers S. S. Convention.

The Convention of the Manvers S. S. Association, which was held in the Presbyterian Church, Pontypool, on Monday, Feb. 1st, 1909, was the best Convention ever held in the Township.

The afternoon session was splendid, the Church being nicely filled with an interested and enthusiastic audience, while there were even more present at the evening session, which was equally good.

At the afternoon session the Rev. T. Snowden, of Janetville, gave an address on "Sunday School Work," and Mr. R. W. Clarke, of Millbrook, also gave one on "The Organized Bible Class." Both addresses were very interesting and helpful.

Mr. W. H. Hooper, of Pontypool, read a most excellent paper on "Qualification of a Teacher," which was followed by a discussion.

Mr. Wesley Glenn, of Pontypool, introduced the subject of "Classification of Scholars." Mr. Richard Wright of Lifford "How Best to Review," and Mr. T. Clark of Ballyduff "How to secure attention." All three subjects were fully and freely discussed.

Choruses were sung by Lifford and Manvers Choirs and much appreciated.

At the Evening Session two fine addresses were delivered one by Rev'd J. W. Poston, of Bethany, on "Home Training of Children," the other on "Development of a S. S. Teacher," by Rev. C. Adams, of Bethany.

Mr. Wm. Johnston, of Manvers, introduced the subject of "How Parents can Best Help the Sunday School," and Mr. E. Benson, of Pontypool, took as his subject "How to secure the regular attendance of teachers and pupils." Both subjects were fully and profitably discussed.

A Chorus by Bethany Choir was well rendered and enjoyed.

Mr. R. W. Clarke answered the "Question Drawer." The questions were numerous and covered nearly every phase of S. S. Work, and the answers were clear and helpful.

The following officers were elected for 1909:

President—W. A. Jakeman, Pontypool.
 Vice-President—Isaac Preston, Bethany.

Secretary—J. J. Clarke, Ballyduff.
 Treasurer—Heber Preston, Bethany Representative to Provincial Convention—W. A. Jakeman.

Millbrook Agricultural Society Officers.

At the annual meeting of the Millbrook Agricultural Society the following Officers and Directors were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Colonel D. Sutton.
 Vice—Wm. Hanna.
 Vice—T. A. Kelly.

Sec. Treas.—Major C. H. Winslow
 Directors—A. T. Armstrong, Robert Vance, W. T. Donaldson, W. H. Lough, C. McNeil, J. W. Hamilton, W. S. Given, W. F. Staples, G. Berr, J. L. Fair, Geo. Syer, L. Smith, N. McGill, J. Baptie, R. McCamus.

Honorary Directors—Wm. Vance, J. W. Morton, John Tait.
 Auditors—A. A. Smith, Wm. Vance.
 Delegates to Fairs and Exhibitions Association Convention—Robt Vance J. W. Hamilton, Major Winslow.

The Society is in splendid standing, and under the management of such an able Board of Officers and Directors, the Millbrook Agricultural Society has bright prospects for another successful year.

Laymen's Missionary Movement.

Grand Banquet in Town Hall, Hall, Millbrook, Last Tuesday Evening.

Several Young Ladies, Dressed in White, Were Waiters. Men of Great Ability Deliver Soul-Stirring Addresses.

The Banquet, under the management of the Laymen's Organization, held in the Town Hall, on Tuesday evening was attended by nearly 150 adherents of the Anglican, Presbyterian and Methodist churches.

The speakers for the occasion were Mr. John A. Paterson, K.C., and Mr. W. D. Gwynne, of Toronto. Their addresses were productions of eloquence, brilliancy and thought. Practical, interesting and fascinating were the splendid orations. Each speaker held the concourse of laymen in rapt attention, and facts of intense and importance were instilled into every mind, and will doubtless stimulate all present to greater and unflagging enthusiasm and activity in the Missionary cause.

The realms of missions were so vividly described and narrated that every individual was kindled with a missionary spirit. Home and Foreign missions were so brilliantly presented that every one present was made conscious of the responsibility of converting the world. The vital importance of missions to our spiritual and national growth was brought home to all with convincing effect. The history of this world-wide organization and other facts given by each speaker. Both are speakers of exceptional ability, intellect and importance. Each exalted our opportunity to assist in this God-given and blessed work.

Mr. Wm. Archer filled the chair to the entire satisfaction of all. His neat opening speech was one of interest.

Miss Ethel Richardson and the male quartette in two very appropriate selections, captivated everyone, and afforded a musical treat to all.

That soul-stirring hymn, "All hail the power of Jesus name," was heartily sung by all present.

Misses E. Richardson and May Duncan rendered piano selections very creditably.

The appetizing and dainty dinner at 6:30 p.m., was a credit to The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church, who provided and served it.

Votes of thanks were tendered to the speakers of the evening, and others who took part in providing the excellent evening's entertainment.

The hearty singing of "God Save our gracious King," brought the evening to a close.

The gallery was (during the speaking) reserved for the ladies who waited on the tables.

The banquet on Tuesday evening will be long remembered as one of the greatest treats ever afforded the people of Millbrook and surrounding country.
