Give a satisfaction that nothing will replace. They come so near to the natural that you will feel like you did in boyhood.

Why That Weariness.

Your uneasy, restless, without appetite. Still worse you are thin and lagged out. Work must be done, but where is the strength to come from? Make your blood nutritious and you'll have lots of strength. Your only hope is Ferrozone, an instant blood-making blood-purifier, blood-enricher. It brings keen appetite, digests food and supplies nutrition for building up all the bodily tissues. Ferrozone makes muscle and nerve fibre, increases your weight, it attains a reserve of energy into the body that defies weariness or exhaustion from any cause. To have vitality and healthy vigor use Ferrozone which all dealers sell in 50c. boxes.

Special to the Mirror

The cozy rural home of Mrs. M. A. Pritchard was the scene on Wednesday, 25th March, of one of those pleasurable events which cause the community to rejoice. It was the marriage of Miss Sara Pritchard of Manvers to Mr. Thomas Henry Reeds of Opa, thus uniting the Counties of Durham and Victoria. The ceremony, after the beautiful order of the Church of Scotland, was performed by the Rev. Mr. Whitelaw, of Omemee. After the ceremony the bridal party with a few nearer relatives sat down to a repast, which in preparation and service would have won the favorable verdict of the most epicurean. Reahoro, Millbrook, Toronto and Omemee, each furnished its quota of guests. The young couple will reside in their beautiful home at Reahoro. They have the felicitous congratulations of a large circle of friends, in which the Mirror joins.

Mr. Wesley Braulhorn, son-in-law of Mr. W. G. Falls, underwent an operation for appendicitis, in the Lindsay hospital on Friday of last week and died on Monday. The relations of deceased have the heartfelt sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

Messrs Brown and Stacey of Fleetwood had a very successful sale of young stock last week. The prices ran high: for example a 20 months old colt sold for $545. Mr. J. H. Wilson, of Mt. Horeh, was the auctioneer. It was his first sale, and he certainly is a "born" and near. We wish him continued success.

Mr. John McCorrie, one of our leading citizens was down to Millbrook last week on business.

Two children of Mr. Rowland of the 7th line, were out driving one day last week, and had the misfortune to drive off the road, the horse breaking its leg. We understand that the children were not injured although badly shaken up.

IDA NEWS

Mr. J. S. Staples has purchased a fine imported Clydesdale Stallion from Dr. T. H. Hazard, of Millbrook. This is one of the handsomest colts in these parts, and Mr. Staples is to be congratulated on securing him. Mr. Staples knows a good horse when he sees him. We are pleased to notice a large number of beautiful colts the production of "Attraction," Mr. Staples' handsome Hackney Stallion, which is certainly one of the best horses ever brought to Canada.

Mr. James Foster bought a hand some black mare at a big price from Mr. David Conroy, of Ashburnham. She is one of the best drivers in these parts.

Mr. Robt. Bigelow bought a gentle man's handsome driving team at Mr. Preston's sale last week at good prices. Robert is highly delighted with his team, and will be might be.

We Trust Doctors

If you are suffering from impure blood, thin blood, debility, nervousness, exhaustion, you should begin at once with Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the Sarsaparilla you have known all your life. Your doctor knows it, too. Ask him about it.

Unless there is daily action of the bowels, poisonous products are absorbed, causing leucæmia, biliousness, nervousness, and thus preventing the Sarsaparilla from doing its best work. Ayer's Pills are liver pills. Act gently, all vegetables.

A HUNTING IDYL.

October's crisp and sunny days were drawing to a close. The leaves were falling from the trees, and withered was the grass. The Autumn's fruits were gathered in, and frosts of winter spoke.

When visions bright of other days, fond memory did provoke.

The antlered head of lordly buck adorning study wall. The rifle hanging in its place gave silent, potent call.

The chained hound with plaintive wailing his flesh was straining tense. With quivering muzzle seeking taint so joyous to his sense.

For something in the bracing air told man and brute as well. The glorious hunting time was near, when forest, rock, and dell.

Would echo with those thrilling sounds that fill the heart with joy. That make the old time hunter feel himself again a boy.

For in this lovely world of ours that God himself has made To be a Paradise for man with treasures rich displayed, Where pleasures indescribable defy the gifted pen.

When restful nature seeks to soothe the nerve-racked sons of men,

What scenes can rest the weary brain like those the forest gives, What call so sweet as nature's call, which still in memory lives, The silent call of wilderness, that bids us leave behind The fitful jarring world of greed, so strenuous, so unkind,

And heal in nature's solitude the wounds that man has given, To bid adieu to ageing care by drawing nearer heaven;

To be a boy again, with boyish thoughts and free To be alone with God awhile, Creation's grandeur see.

S. eager preparation's hand obeyed the call to go.

When nature beckoned, and to scenes where murmuring waters flow Unharnessed by the skill of man, to forest, rock and glen Where freedom waits on pleasure, where Heaven speaks to men.

The iron horse with throbbing roar near to the northward drew, The care of life were left behind and each man did renew The days of youth, and lengthening lines from worry's hand Were softened into smiles, when near- ing God's own land.

Arrived at last, the tents are pitched, and as the darkness threw It's mantle o'er the scene, around the fire the hunters drew To share their evening meal, which o'er, they light the pipe of peace, And deeds of other days recall, till Morpheus whispers "cease."

And so to bed of fir they go, to luxury unknown, To sleep the sleep of children free from care, and drown In nature's soothing arms their worries, and to dream Of morrow's happy hours, by rock and dell and stream.

But morning comes at last, and with it stirring sounds, The morning meal is o'er, the anxious hounds Leap to and fro, the joyous trail to seek of lordly game, While fond anticipation's hope thrills, through each hunter's frame.

The chase is on, it's baying hound awakes the echoes clear, The nerveless hunter, rifle-armed, awaits the bounding deer. While stirring blood with youthful pressure courses through his veins, The rills speak, the capture's made Hurrah! a buck he gains.

Around the camp fire blazing high the thrilling tale is told, When sombre night again enshrouds the scene, while manifold The jests that innocense provokes, the mirth that lives. Makes young for days of toil, when strength with competition strives.

And so the days of pleasure fly, alas on swiftest wing, The happy hunting-ground we leave behind, while poets sing Its praises, and whose scenes of beauty memory fondly weaves Into a mantle, that will shield us till next falling leaves.

DIED SUDDENLY OF HEART DISEASE.

How frequently does a head line similar to the above greet us in the newspapers. The rash, push and strenuousness of the American people has a strong tendency to lead up to valvular and other affections of the heart, attended by irregular action, palpitation, dizziness, smothered sensations and other distressing symptoms.

Three of the prominent ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made are recommended by some of the leading writers on Materia Medica for the cure of such cases. Golden Seal root, for instance, is said by the UNITED STATES DISPENSATORY, a standard authority, "to impart tone and increased power to the heart's action." Numerous other leading authorities represent Golden Seal as an unsurpassed tonic for the muscular system in general, and as the heart is almost wholly composed of muscular tissue, it naturally follows that it must be greatly strengthened by this specific general tonic. But probably the most important ingredient of "Golden Medical Discovery," so far as its medicinal value is concerned, is the medicinal principle extracted from Stone Root, and it is the medicinal principle of Stone Root which is the chief cause of the valvular and other affections of the heart are concerned in Stone Root, or Colubiscus Can., Prof. Wm. Paine, author of Paine's Dispensary of Medicine, says of it: "It not only cures, but it prevents the disease of the heart, and its friends were obliged to exercise in its use.
