

1906 TO 1914 FOR 40¢ 1905 TO 1921 FOR 50¢ FROST FENCE is the cheapest you can buy

The Hair of Youth Rich hair; heavy hair; long, luxuriant hair, without a single gray line in it!

The Methodist Church, Omeme.

GOOD FRIDAY. On Good Friday evening, the Epworth League had a special meeting in the body of the Church.

EASTER SUNDAY. Mr. J. C. Eaton, of Toronto, sent most choice flowers to decorate the Church.

FOR SALE. Almost New Massey Harris combined Drill. Apply to C. L. McQUADE, Deering Agent.

AUCTIONEER FOR MANVERS. If you want to reap the best results we can have an Auction Sale, don't fail to secure a good auctioneer.

Church Notes, Easter 1906.

The Easter Services held in Christ Church, Omeme, were unusually bright and attractive.

The Choir acquitted itself in its usual splendid manner, reflecting much credit on the choir-master Mr. W. G. Stephenson.

A pleasing feature of the services was the placing on the offertory plate of the sum of Twenty-five dollars for the orphans, a cheque for which the Rector handed her next morning.

The offertories were larger than ever before, which with that of the Sunday School amounted to about sixty dollars.

Mrs. John Fee's numerous friends will regret to learn of her serious illness.

Rev. Mr. Whitelaw went to Alton on Tuesday to attend the funeral of his wife's mother.

The Temple of Fame at Omeme.

The Entertainment on Easter Monday Evening was a Grand Success.

From the notices which have appeared in the Mirror for some time past, and from the painstaking preparations for the production of the "Temple of Fame,"

The first to appear was Miss Grace Cochran as Mother Goose, she called her children around her and they, in song and speech,

In a limited space it is hard to do justice to those who took part in the Temple of Fame.

The first to answer her call was Mrs. Mulligan, who, in crimson satin gown and court train of velvet, as Queen Isabella of Spain,

The inspiring strains of the "Maple Leaf" prepared the audience for the appearance of "Canada," who came in carrying Britannia's flag, attended by the pages also carrying flags.

Mrs. J. C. Eaton, as Mella, received what she may always feel assured of receiving in her native village, a warm welcome and a very attentive hearing.

Mrs. Geo. H. English threw much force and vim into her excellent portrayal of Zantippe and gave some telling hints to the ladies on the training of husbands.

Miss Annie Ivory, as Flora MacDonald, made many feel that, though Bonnie Prince Charlie was unfortunate in his struggle for a crown, he was fortunate in his friends.

As Miss Bannan appeared in her glittering robes and shining jewels a Cleopatra, she personated very aptly the renowned Queen of the Nile.

Nothing appealed more to the heart of the audience than the part of the "Mother," taken by Mrs. Cochran, as clad in a handsome black dress, she came in, like Cornelia with her jewels,

Next came Queen Elizabeth—Mrs. Macpherson, in gown of blue silk and ermine trimmed velvet train.

Miss Jessie Lamb represented Ruth and sang in a charming and plaintive manner, asking that her woman's constance and affection be rewarded by the Goddess.

Miss Winifred Beatty, as 'A Girl of the 20th Century,' was a most attractive type of the 'New Woman.'

Following her, came Mrs. Bryson as Patti, who looked very handsome in a gown of white satin and wearing an ostrich feather boa.

One of the best represented characters was Maggie Mucklebackit, the Scotch Fish Wife. It was taken by Miss Jardine, whose costume, manner, and accent left nothing to be desired.

Miss Clark, as Jephtha's daughter, robed in white, with many golden chains, and with dark flowing hair looked as sweet and dainty as her prototype, and made her plea for the Crown as one who had laid down her life for love and duty.

As Pocahontas, friend and helper of the English, Miss Jessie Nichols, in a well got up Indian costume, speaking in a gentle voice, which yet could be heard at the back of the hall, asked for the Crown.

Miss Elsie Laidley fitly represented the beautiful Mary Queen of Scots, both in appearance and manner.

The martial music of "Sound the loud timbrel" heralded the approach of Miriam and her Maidens.

Miss Edna Balfour, as Josiah Allen's wife, won unstinted applause. The classic features of Josiah's adored Samantha were surmounted by an old time bonnet, than which the Crown of Fame could not have been more becoming.

The Millinery Openings, held last week in Mr. Charles Ivory's beautiful Millinery Department, were the most successful ever held in Omeme.

Mrs. John McBride was in Toronto this week on business and also visited Omeme and took in the Temple of Fame Monday.

Messrs. Wun and James McCaffrey, of Toronto, were here last week. These are two more of Omeme's sons who have excellent positions in the Queen City.

Messrs. John and Thomas Boyd were visitors to Omeme Easter.

for the Crown, but only as she lived for those who loved her.

Mrs. McCrea most cleverly portrayed Mrs. Partington and Clifford Mulligan scored a success as Ike. The audience was convulsed with laughter as Mrs. Partington stated her reasons for appearing before the Goddess—just for the sake of Ike she asked for Crown.

Tripping in with coquettish parasol and long ringlets Tabitha Primrose in the person of Miss Sadie English next came to address the Goddess.

A very attractive Doctor of the Law in crimson cap and gown looked Miss Annie Stephenson who as Portia pleaded for the laurel crown in the name of Shakespeare.

Miss Rose Courtney as Bridget O'Flanagan whose speech and dress as well as her name suggested the Emerald Isle, demanded the crown from the Goddess.

As each claimant finished her plea she took her seat to await the verdict of the Goddess, who awarded the Crown of Fame to the Mother because in crowning her she crowned all womankind.

The ladies of the Board of Management cannot be too highly complimented on their successful efforts, as we understand it was they, who unaided, did all necessary training and with much care and thought put this refined and educational entertainment before the public.

The ladies of the Board of Management cannot be too highly complimented on their successful efforts, as we understand it was they, who unaided, did all necessary training and with much care and thought put this refined and educational entertainment before the public.

The ladies of the Board of Management cannot be too highly complimented on their successful efforts, as we understand it was they, who unaided, did all necessary training and with much care and thought put this refined and educational entertainment before the public.

The ladies of the Board of Management cannot be too highly complimented on their successful efforts, as we understand it was they, who unaided, did all necessary training and with much care and thought put this refined and educational entertainment before the public.

BEFORE YOU BEGIN to paint your house, be sure that the paint you use will do the job for the least money, and at the same time give greatest satisfaction and longest wear.

W. H. Curry & Co's, OMEMEE.

In our Hardware Store we have a magnificent stock for every requirement. Our Stock of Dry Goods, Groceries &c., is very complete, and the best values possible.

The House of Quality CALL AND TEST US.

GROCERIES Fresh and Good at

W. McCaffrey's, OMEMEE

Our Prices will Be Found as Low as Any.

ERIE, A Pure Anthracite Coal

A great favorite with the people. Once used,--always used.

TRY IT. W. R. McQuade, Omeme.

Nothing Succeeds Like Success. This is especially true when applied to the Peterboro Business College Last year was our banner year, but we are determined to keep pace with our flourishing city and supply the demands made on us, for office assistants, not only from Peterboro but from other places as well.

Business Education Winter Term begins Tuesday, Jan. 2nd, 1906.

WM. PRINGLE, Principal, Peterboro, Ont.

Empty and Cavan Council meetings are in type, but for want of space we are compelled to hold them over till next issue, also several news letters and also an interesting 'paper' as read by Miss Olive McQuade.

Mrs. A. Wilson, of Peterboro, was a visitor to Omeme, Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Earle was a visitor to Lindsay on Tuesday.

Miss Ida Scott spent Easter in Toronto.

Miss D. Carey spent the Easter holidays with Alderman and Mrs. Redmond Carey.

Mrs. W. J. Thorne and daughter, Vera Alma, spent Easter at Garden Hill.

Miss May Macpherson is the guest of Mrs. T. A. Macpherson.

Mr. E. A. Balfour gave the Bell Telephone office a 'friendly call' at Lindsay on Monday.

"Hello, Central," look out for a new girl. The Bradburn House, Omeme, was totally destroyed by fire Thursday morning.

Mrs. F. Brien and Miss V. Cann spent Easter with Mrs. D. Stinson.

MR. GLEASON OF GREENWOOD "For years I have been troubled with Piles. At times I would have to lie down and remain perfectly quiet for hours.

D. H. WILLIAMSON, Tutor, Toronto, Leader McMaster University Quartette Teacher of Sight Singing & Voice Culture SATURDAY and MONDAY of each week in LINDSAY.

Studio connected with D. Pogue's Dental Office.

Dr. F. A. Walters, DENTIST, LINDSAY.

Honor Graduate of Toronto University and Royal College of Dental Surgeons.

All the latest and improved branches of dentistry successfully performed. Charges moderate. OFFICE over Gregory's Drug Store, corner Kent and William streets.

Wanted 50,000 doz. Eggs & 20,000 lbs. Wool. Great Bargains in Every Department. CHAS. IVORY, Omeme. Popular Store for Stylish Millinery, Fashionable Dress Making and the latest in Dress Trimmings.

THE NEW SHOE FOR WOMEN. Ivorys