MILLBROOK AND OMEMEE MIRROR

Durham and Victoria Standard

VOL. 18. NO. 47. $i per annum.

MILLBROOK ONT., THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 1907.

C. W. RICHARDS, Publisher and Proprietor

0000000

CR, A HAPPY MARRIAGE.

CHAPTER XVIII.-(Continued). Violet came running in, flushed after me."

her ride, her habit muddy. he the death of you some day." "I think not, mamma. How do you should order the dress." do, Mrs. Scobei?"

"Violet," said the vicar's wife, graveweek-day services now?"

use to come and kneel in a holy place self. I am not going to be trampled with rebellious thoughts in my heart. I on by my daughter." but I think it's tetter to keep away from her at your wedding." the week-day services till I am in a better temper."

"I don't think that's quite the way to recover your temper, dear." Violet was silent, and there was a rather awkward pause.

"Will you have a cup of tea, dear?" asked Mrs. Tempest. "No, thanks, mamma. I think, unless warm and dusty. I shall be glad to change my dress." "But I have something very particular to say, Violet. I won't delain you long. You'd better have a cup of tea." "Just as you please, mamma."

what you say. You have been very un-

"I think the world-our world-must next October." have made up its mind about your sec- "I shall never hunt again." ond marriage already, mamma," Vixcapable of feeling. "People will say that there." my daughter sets her face against my marriage—my daughter, who ought to michael, opening the door of another or among the gorse and heath of Boldre. Seven Stood for Murder and Five I have found a true friend and protectiellow?"

mamma. It is much better that I should and a head like a war-horse. He snorted Carmichael had business in London, stop away from your wedding. I should indignantly as the captain slapped his and was coming back to Hampshire by grave voice and reproachful eyes-eyes side, before whose steady gaze the tearful "Yes," said Vixen, "I prefer to stand in the course of their wedded life. widow drooped and frembled-"is duty alone." se one-sided? Do I owe all to you, and Wery well, then. I repeat my ques- Mrs. Tempest complained: in spite of you nothing to me? My father left us fion-though, as you decline to have the diversion to painful thought which together, mother and daughter, to be any voice in our arrangements, it is was continually being offered by the aral: the world to each other. He left as hardly worth while to trouble you about rival of some interesting item of the mistresses of the dear old home we had it—what are we to do with this fellow?" trousseau, elegant trifles, ordered ever for sovered would be tried again, though not hand, and held it fast. shared with him. Do you think he "Do with him? My father's horse!" se long ago, which kept dropping in at meant a stranger to come and sit in exclaimed Vixen; "the horse he rode to the last moment. Violet and her mother mind that in three little years his place "Don't you think that is rather fooling in the forest; their monotonous cry such occasions, lost much of the drastic from his seat and called to Thaw to quality it would be first and the forest; their monotonous cry quality it would be about and food the input to the first seat and called to Thaw to would be filled by the first comer - his ish? Nobody rides or drives him. It sounded every now and then through daughter asked to call another man takes all one man's time to groom and the evening silence like a prophecy of Tempest. "Oh, this is cruel!"

provingly, "when you are calmer you ing the bright haxel of her eyes. "I can- Theodore's. Pauline had thrown it over entered the court-room. will be sorry for having spoken so un- rot imagine mamma capable of part- a chair with an artistic carelessness the truth," said Violet. "Mamma has months," she added, in an undertone. Mrs. Tempest contemplated it with heard the truth too seldom in her life. "Well, my dear Miss Tempest, fam- a pathetic countenance. She will not hear it from Captain Car- ily affection is a very charming senti- "It is simply perfect!" she exclaimed.

dart, Vixen took up the muddy skirt to secure your father's horse a good And how exquisitely the drapery falls' of her habit and left the room.

I did not go to the bottom of the bog lish as to keep a horse which is of no lovely in it. I do noth think if I were he would be liberated before the setting He had even arranged for a tour abroad and stay there," she reflected. "I don't use to any member of her family. If a wicked mother I should take so much of Friday's sun. think anybody wants us above-ground." the brute were of a little lighter build, pains to select an elegant costume for any Mr. Peabody As Thaw rose he threw back his heavy show little change. "Did you ever know anything so hu- I wouldn't mind riding him myself, and her. But I have always studied her and Mr. O'Reilly of his counsel that the shoulders and put his chin in the air. miliating, so shameful, so undutiful?" selling one of mine. But he's too much dress. Even when she was in pinafores his hundle of decorated at Justice Fitz. Shoon are 50c higher.

"It would be awkward, certainly, un- word. She went straight to her mother's The clock struck twelve. The obscure another trial.

would believe in any excuse that was made. That cruel girl will disgrace

"She seems strongly prejudiced against "Bogged again!" cried Mrs. Tempest Captain Carmichael. It is a great pily. with ineffiable disgust. "That horse will But I dare say she will relent in time. If I were you, dear Mrs. Tempest, I "Would you, really, Fanny?" ly. "why do you never come to our trust in Providence for the result. You may be able to bring her round some-"I-I don't know. I've not felt in the how between now and the wedding." humor for coming to church. It's no But I am not going to humiliate my-come on Sundays for decency's sake; "Of course not; but you must have

"If I were to tell Captain Carmichael what she has said this afternoon-" "He would be very angry, no doubt. Eut I would not tell him if I were you." "No, I shall not say anything about had heard every syllable that Vixen had you have something very particular to cus exaggerations, hardly to be avoided said, with some trifling and unconscisay to me, I had better take my muddy by a woman of Mrs. Tempest's charachabit off your carpet. I feel rather ter, in the narration of her own wrongs.

CHAPTRE XIX.

ner during the sultry summer days which a cup of tea." And, forgetful of her clay-bespattered went before his marriage betrayed his Mrs. Tempest had been sustaining nahabit, Violet sank into one of the salin knowledge of Violet Tempest's rebelli- ture with cups of tea all through the covered chairs, and made a wreck of our spirit. He would not see that he agitating day. It was a kind of drambeller, 106 Romeo Street, was on $8.75 for heavies, farmers' lots; $8.25 to an antimacassar worked in crewels by was obnoxious to her, and spoke to her drinking, and she was as much a slave Friday night placed under arrest, $8.50 for car lots. and looked at her as sweetly as if there to the tea-pot as the forlorn drunken charged with the murder of his house. Pork—Short cut, $23.50 to $24 per bar-"I am going to write to Madame Theo- had been the friendliest understanding drab of St. Gile's is a slave of the gin- keeper, Mrs. arriet Dewing, who was rel, mess, $21 to $21.50. dore by this evening's post, Violet," between them. In all his conduct, in bottle.

assar; "and I should like to order your be had his grip upon everything already, "You seem so, mum. I'm sure if I story of the accident. His story does 17c; shoulders, 11c to 11½c; rolls, 11½c; dress for—the—wedding. I have been and was extending his arms in every didn't want to marry him, I wouldn't not hold together well, however. Al- out of pickle, Ic less than smoked. thinking that cream-color and pale blue direction, like an octopus. There were if I was you. It's never too late for a though the woman's clothes caught on Lard—Firm; tierces, 12½c; tubs, 12½c; tubs eclored hat—the Vandyke shape—with a which Violet knew were his, although when she's inside the church. I've there was nothing in her room, where "Please don't take any trouble about ginated them. He had, in some measure, mum, if you feel your mind turn start the fire. Again, he says he graspit, mamma," said Vixen, whose cheek assumed dominion over the stables. His against him at the last," concluded the ed the woman while her clothes were had paled at the word "wedding," and two hunters were already quartered lady's maid, energetically. who now sat very erect in her chair, there. Vixen saw them when she went holding her can and some sat very erect in her chair, there. Vixen saw them when she went who now sat very erect in her chair, there. Vixen saw them when she went who now sat very erect in her chair, there. Vixen saw them when she went who now sat very erect in her chair, there. Vixen saw them when she went who now sat very erect in her chair, there. Vixen saw them when she went who now sat very erect in her chair, there was a same say of the control of

"When they've eat their corn they sharply. me perfectly miserable for the last sev- their 'ay they eats their bed, and then you're so fond of him, why cry?"

I am very sorry if I have pained you; some wise typical of their owner. One most generous of husbands. Twenty oil, and appeared to be in perfectly safe | Millfeed-Manitoba bran in bags, $20 but I cannot and will not be present morning when Vixen was leaning upon years last June since we were married. condition. Two half-burned matches to $22; shorts, $22 to $22.50; Ontario Cheese—For fodders 121/2c to 121/2c is FARMERS IN WEST ARE ANXIOUS. at a marriage the very idea of which the half-door of Arion's loose box, giv- What a child I was, Pauline, knowing were found on the floor nearby. Koeller bran in bags, $20 to $21; shorts, $22 to quoted, but receipts are very small. is hateful to me. If my presence could ing herself up to a quarter of an hour's nothing of the world! I had a lovely was arrested and put in jail, the indict- $29.50; mill mouille, $21 to $25; straight | Eggs-Price of new-laid remains unyours, that sanction shall not be given." Captain Carmichael came into the stable, see the dresses now, we should think "Violet, have you thought what you "Good-morning, Miss Tempest. Pet- them absolutely ridiculous. Dear Ed-

are doing? Have you considered what ting the pretty bay of yours? I'm afraid ward! He was one of the handsomest you spoil him. You ought to hunt him men I ever saw. How could Violet been answered, quietly. "My absence from your wedding can make very little difference."

"It will make a very great difference."
"Thanks." said Vixen, with a super"Thanks." sa

"I cannot either sympathize or rejoice, bay, with herculean quarters, short legs, last day of her widowhood. Captain lower me in the sight of my friends. speaking when you say we," said Vix- her lover too completely to desire to reported a disagreement late on Friday few of those in court noticed him. It will be a disgrace. And yet you take en, with an unsmiling countenance. fence herself round with legal protect afternoon and was immediately discharged. The Great helps a grant of the this course on purpose to wound and "Naturally of your mother and myself. lions and precautions. Having only a charged. The final ballot stood seven injure me. You are a wicked, unduli- I should like to include you in all our life interest in the estate, she had no for conviction of murder in the first de-exercise him. You might just as well evil. In less than twelve hours the wed-

"The first comer!" whimpered Mrs. keep a white elephant in the stables." ding was to take place, and as yet Vix-"He was my father's favorite horse," en had shown no sign of relenting. "Violet!" exclaimed Mrs. Scobel, re- said Vixen, with indignant tears cloud- The dress had come from Madame this by Mr. Justice Fitzgerald before they ing with him. Yet I ought not say that, which displayed the tasteful combina-"I shall not be sorry for having spoken after my experience of the last few tion of cream-color and pale azure.

ment, and I can quite understand that "Theodore has a most delicate mind. And after flinging this last poisoned you and your mamma would be anxious There is not an atom too much blue. home and a kind master; but I cannot It looks as if it had been blown together. "It was rather a pity that Arion and comprehend your mamma being so foo- The Vandyck hat, too! Violet would look be would be like her to the hollow of the h the door closed on her rebellious daugh. Vixen gave Arion a final hug, drying esque. And she rewarded my care by havend men a disappointment was gerald. ter. "What will people say if Violet is those argry tears upon his soft neck, refusing to be present at my wed- beyond words. He faced months more the case was brought calls; grain-fed lambs are a little come was the acquitted of Masser. less there were some good reason for morning-room, where the widow was bird clamored a little louder in his sorbed in the study of their contents, ed everything, and borne with her mis-tress's dolefulness all day long, began wise Polly, who had been wearing to yawn piteously. smarter gowns and caps ever since her "If you'd let me brush your hair now, mistress's engagement, and who was mum," she suggested, at last, "I could count, in order to enter upon her new morrow morning." phase of existence with due dignity.

"We shall keep more company, I pest, wonderingly. served in the confidence of Mrs. Trim- twelve." mer's comfortable parlor.

"I can never bring myself to think Swedish gloves pretty," said Mrs. Tem- "No, mum, I wouldn't allow that anypest, as Vixen burst into the room; how. It would make your arms ache.

"Mamma," cried Vixen, "Captain Car. gard to-morrow." michael wants you to sell Bullfinch. If So Pauline was allowed to hurry on brought the eve of Mrs. Tempest's wed- in a faded fresco. ding. The small but perfect trousseau, She sat with fixed eyes, deep in bag, with monograms in pink coral on hours ago; unless, indeed, Vi tain Carmichael-occupied the place of to sleep. Mrs. Tempest was seized with pest's apartment bore witness to the im- Riding about the Forest, I suppose, like Yet, before night, Captain Carmichael of all, the swollen eyelids and pale horses and gypsies, and all kinds of cheeks of the lady, who on this vigil of savage creatures." her wedding day had given herself up And then, after a pause, she asked to-morrow," remonstrated Pauline, daughter is not at my wedding?" coming into the room with another dainty little box newly arrived from the nearest railway station, and surprising her mistress in tears. "Do have! Nothing in Captain Carmichael's man- some red lavender. Or let me make you .

Mrs. Tempest was supposed to have ori- known it done. I wouldn't have him, he claims the accident happened, to en weeks; but I cannot believe that you they takes and gnaws the wooden parwould grossly insult me by takes and gnaws the wooden par"You don't understand, Pauline. At room, and painted white, but it bears winter wheat patents, $4.10 to $4.25; jary came up finally, cleared the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of the line ton, N. B.; Clarence Sproule, New Glassly and the state of t would—grossly insult me—by refusing tilions. I never see such brutes," com- such a time there are many painful no marks of fire or smoke on its sur- straight rollers, $3.60 to $3.70; do., in and hauled back the six remaining cars gow, N. S.; H. Saunders, Schrieber, feelings. I have been thinking, natur- face. The lantern in the room con- bags, $1.65 to $1.75; extras, $1.50 to and all the passengers. The people of Ont.; R. Gamble, Fort William. "I do not wish to insult you, mamma; Vixen fancied these animals were in ally, of my dear Edward, the best and tained only a very small quantity of $1.55.

> lieve that I should sell his horse?" "Well, mum, hearing Captain Car-"Pshaw! at your age there is no such michael talk about it, she naturally-" and you know it," cried Mrs. Tempest, cilious glance at the most leggy of the stable. The noble brute still occupied roused to as much passion as she was two hunters; "I shouldn't care to be up his loose box, and was fed and petted

Mrs. Tempest had dined-or rather "This fellow" was a grand-looking had not dined-in her own room on this look miserable, and make other people flank, and reared his splendid crest, the last train. There had been no setand seemed as if he said: "Ha, ha!" tlements. The captain had nothing to "Your absence will humiliate and "I don't quite know of whom you are seltle, and Mrs. Tempest confided in days to reach a verdict the Thaw jury lawyers for the defence so quietly that family arrangements, present or future; thing to leave except the multifarious gree and five for acquittal on the ground room from the door which leads to the "Oh, mamma!" cried Vixen, with but you seem to prefer being left out- ornaments, frivolities, and luxuries which the squire had presented to her his place—to be master over all he his dying day! Why, keep him, of had not met that day, and now night companied by all the cloudy April afternoon by the glare of was hurrying on; the owls were hoot- companied by all the formality usual on many electric lights. Clerk Penny arose sessed for the reason that Thaw and all to Foreman Deming B. Smith and called

I took care that she should be pictur- his bundle of documents to the floor, and Mr. Smith looked at Justice Fitz-"People are so ill-natured. Nobody kerchiefs and glove-boxes, deeply ab- who had packed everything and arrang- and followed his prison guard into the into his.

getting up a trousseau on her own ac- get to bed. I should like to be fresh to- No. 2 white winter, 711/2c to 721/2c; No. "Are you tired?" exclaimed Mrs. Tem- to 711/2c.

make no doubt, with such a gay young "Well, mum, stooping over them dress 871/2c; No. 1 northern, 861/2c, lake ports, master as the captain," she had ob- baskets is rather tiring, and it's past 90% North Bay; No. 2 northern, 85c,

"You can go. I'll brush my hair my-

"but they are the fashion, and one must You ought to get to bed as soon as ever you can, or you'll look tired and 'ag-you let him be sold, you will be the the evening toilet. The soff, pretty hair, not so abundant as it used to be, was 52%c; No. 3, 51c to 51%c.

subject of such anxious thoughts, so thought, for some time after Pauline much sludy, was completed. The had left her, then looked uneasily at the travelling-dresses were packed in two little gem of a watch dangling on its large oil-skin-covered baskets ready for ormolu and jasper stand. A quarter to the Scottish tour. The new traveling- one. Violet must have gone to bed silver gilt-a wedding present from Cup- like her mother, too unhappy to be able honor in Mrs. Tempest's dressing-room, a sudden desire to see her daughter. The wedding-dress, of cream-colored bro- "How unkind of her never to come cade and old-point lace, with a bonnet near me to say good-night, on this of lace and water-lilies, was spread up- night of all others," she thought. "What on the sofa. Everything in Mrs. Tem- has she been doing all day. I wonder? pending change in the lady's life. Most a wild girl, making friends of dogs and herself, fretfully: "Oh, mum, your eyes will be so red What will people say if my own (To be Continued.)

CHARGED WITH MURDER. Leopold Koeller Charged with Killing His Housekeeper.

Mr. Edward Bayly has been appointed partment, at a salary of $3,000.

for several months.

THAW HOPEFUL TO THE LAST.

for Acquittal

A despatch from New York says: Af-1 court-room. He s. pped into his chair

Thaw was at once taken back to the her accustomed seat she swung a chair on bail will undoubtedly be made very She knew the result; she had been told soon, but it is regarded as almost cer- by the lawyers who made the fight for mediately after the jury's discharge that, hand toward her, caught her gloved quality it would otherwise have pos- stand and face the jury. He then turned

2 red, 711/2c to 721/2c; No. 2 mixed, 71c

Oats-No. 2 white, 39c to 391/2c outside; No. 2 mixed, 38c.

Peas-78c to 781/2c. Corn-Strong; No. 2 yellow American, 521/2c to 53c, Toronto and west; Ontario, 45c to 46c.

Rye-63c to 631/c. to 53%c outside; No. 3 extra, 52c to

Time, which brings all things, dued in coloring, like a classic figure Bran-$20 outside, buyers' sacks; nom-

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

an insufficiency of choice grades. do tubs 21c to 22c were also burning. From these two followed. It seemed a miracle to him Cheese-Octobers are steady at 14c for sources fire spread through the debris that the train crew were not killed. They large and 14c for twins. Eggs-Prices are: 16c to 17c; splits, seeing the flames approaching, cried out crowded with trunks. After the fire had 13%c to 14c.

Chickens, live 10c to 11c pinned down beneath the wreckage. do dressed 12c to 13c Hens, live 8c to 9c do dressed 10c to 11c Honey-Pails, 11c to 12c tb.; combs, $2.50 to $2.75 per doz. Beans-$1.50 to $1.55, for hand-picked and $1.35 to $1.40 for primes. 95c in car lots here. Baled Hay-No. 1 timothy is quoted at $11.50 to $13, and secondary grades said her mother, handing her a cup of any act of his which approached the "Yes, you may get me another cup day, Koeller being alone with her in clear bacon, 11c to 11½c for tons and cried out, "Save yourselves, it's too late don, Manitoba; Joseph Gilison, Salistea, and making believe not to see the assumption of authority, he went to destruction of that are not to see the assumption of the house at the time. The coroner's cases; hams, medium and light, 15½c to for me," and thrust his would-be rescu-bury; N. Comiss, Fort William; Alphonse jury examined Koeller, who told the 16c; heavy, 141/2c to 15c; backs, 161/2c to ers away.

$9.50 to $10.50, on track here. Straw-$6.75 to $7.25.

MONTREAL MARKETS.

Montreal, April 16.—Buckwheat—55c

Rolled Oats-Per bag, $2 to $2.10 in Butter-28c to 29c is being quoted for car lots, $2.20 to $2.25 in jobbing lots. the new make of creamery butter. For Hay-No. 1, $13.50; No. 2, $12.50; No. winter make 24c and 25c is being asked, solicitor to the Attorney-General's de- 3 $11.50; clover mixed, $11; pure clover, while 23c to 24c is quoted for lower $10.50 to $11 per ton in car lots.

THE PRISONER'S WIFE.

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw stipped into the Justice's chambers. Instead of taking

THE SCENE IN COURT.

pallor that comes from long imprison-

Thaw slood up. In the glare of the

MARKETS FIFTEEN PERSONS

Shore of Lake Superior Scene of Terrible C. P. R. Disaster.

A terrible disaster by which the west- injured and the other survivors, many bound Imperial Limited was wrecked of whom were almost crazed with grief. Barley-Scarce; No. 2 nominal at 521/2c and fifteen persons, chiefly English immigrants, were either killed or burned And with this startling address Vix. Carefully brushed; the night-lamp was Sa 70 asked S2 67 bid. Manitona first The train was a trained address of women. en left the room as suddenly as she lighted, and Pauline left her mistress patents $3.70 asked, $2.67 bid; Manitoba, first The train was running at a little over he had lost his wife, his two children had entered it, banging the door be. sitting by her dressing-table in her flow- patents, $4.50; seconds, $3.75; bakers', twenty miles an hour and was round- and his blind brother. Then he added, ing a curve when beneath the baggage | apparently not thinking of the inconcar a rail broke. The car left the rails, gruity of it, that the blind brother's dog was torn away from the engine and was dying of burns. What could be done mail car ahead, and plunged down the for him and for others in like case was embankment to a small ice-covered lake. done by the kind-hearted Chapleau peo-It was followed by two immigrant cars. plc before the removal of the passengers Butter-Market continues firm, with The cars and a first-class coach crash- to Fort William. ed into each other at the bottom of the J. J. Nevins of Ottawa, mail clerk on Creamery, prints 27c to 28c bank. The immigrant cars were crowd- the wrecked train, when seen, said he do solids 25c to 26c ed with people who were engaged in was in his car and witnessed the part-Dairy, prints 25c to 26c cooking dinner. The acetylene lights ing of the train and the disaster that HEROISM OF THE RESCUERS. and passengers set about the work of be completely incinerated, as it was imrescue. From the battered cars almost possible to do anything till the heat had a hundred persons made their escape subsided. Potatoes-Ontario, 85c to 90c; eastern, the flames. The fate of some of the imbefore the workers were driven back by prisoned passengers was horrible. One of the three men among the victims was caught by the feet between two coaches and burned to death. Until the flames Kent, England; William Day, London, surrounded him men tried to move the wreckage, persisting even after their brother's wife and two children, of Palehands were burned and bleeding.

"IT IS TOO LATE FOR ME."

most freed him when the top of the car bead burned.

saved the more terrible fate. wedding, so I shall not want a dress." looking animals; and the grooms reWielett gried Mrs. Tempest might have extended ler in trying to extinguish the flames 3 white, 41%c to 42c; No. 4, 40%c to 41c; be until doctors were secured from ChapHickey, Athens, Ont.; Edward Collier, old servant had not pulled her up rather actly beneath where the body had lain Peas-Boiling peas, $1 in carload some time to reach Chapleau, as the Shefford, Que.; Frank Schmidt, Winnime perfectly miserable for the last care their 'ay, and when they've eat their 'ay, and when they've eat their 'ay and when they are 'ay and 'ay

A despatch from Chapleau, Ont., says: Chapleau threw their homes open to the

AN OVERPOWERING TRAGEDY.

with incredible rapidity. The wounded, were in the baggage car, which was pitifully for help. Many of them were partially burned itself out Mr. Niven walked over to the blazing ruins and saw indistinct masses among the red hot iron fittings that represented the With spendid heroism the train crew bodies of the dead. Most of them would

THE CASUALTY LIST.

Dead .- Mrs. R. B. Champion and child; Mrs. R. Davidson, and child; Winifred and Susie Horton, of Charing Heath, England; C. H. Goulding, his brother, slow, Essex, England; Mrs. August Djorklund and two children, of Worcester, Mass. Another, a young man, was caught | Seriously Injured:-Charles Coleman, above the knees. The rescuers had al- Portsmouth, England, hands, face and Ferladi, St. Marie Biance, Quebec; Archildren, some of very tender years. Harry Williams, Manchesler, England; they were probably killed outright and John Tabestall, Orkney Island; William Hamilton, Dumfries, Scotland; Joseph As the injured emerged, battered and Townsend, Scotland; Arthur McCrea, changed at 17c to 18c per dozen.

Provisions-Live hogs, selects, $7.45 to £7.50; mixed lots, $7.10 to $7.25; culls, stags, $4.75 to $5; sows, $5.75 per 100 pounds; dressed hogs, abattoir dressed, $10 to $10.25; country dressed, $8.50 to $9.25 per 100 lbs.; smoked meats, hams, extra large, sizes 25 hs. and upwards, 13c; large sizes, 18 to 25 fbs., 131/c; medium sizes, selected weights, 12 to 18 lbs., 14c; extra small sizes, 8 to 12 ths., 14%c; hams, boned, cut, rolled, large, 14%c; do., small, 15c; English boneless breakfast bacon, 15c; Windsor bacon, backs, 15c; compound lard, 8%c

BUFFALO MARKET.

lard, 11%c to 12%c.

ter having struggled for nearly two at the head of the table reserved for the Spring wheat-Steady; No. 1 Northern, tions. The dearth of help is particularly 89c; Winter, strong; No. 2 white, 791/2c. being felt in Manitoba, many of the men Corn-Strong; No. 2 yellow, 51c; No. 3 preferring to cast their lot in Saskatchwhite, 49c. Oats-Strong; No. 2 white, ewan, Alberta, and British Columbia. 47 to 47%c; No. 2 mixed, 43%c. Barley-Firm; Western for shipment quoted at Tombs. Application that he be released beside, that in which her husband sat, 70 to 75c. Rye-Quiet; No. 1 in store,

NEW YORK WHEAT MARKET.

New York, April 16.-Spot firm; No. 2 red, 83%c elevator; No. 2 red, 84%c I. Mrs. William Bates, an elderly woman, Some court attendant pressed a but- 90% opening of navigation f.o.b. affoat; The scene in the court when the jury ton, and a flood of light relieved the No. 2 hard winter, 86% opening navigation f.o.b affoat.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Toronto, April 16,-The run at the Cit-Cattle Market this morning amounted to 116 cars, which included 1,900 cattle; 1,166 sheep and lambs, 1,000 hogs and tentiary. 415 calves.

Trade was good for all kinds of cattle electric light his face showed plainly the and there was no shortage of offerings. Export cattle sold well. Prices con-The young Pittsburger had earlier in ment. The lines from the curve of his linue firm at last week's advance, $5.45 Some Doubt as to Who Struck the Blow the afternoon again bundled up the mass nostrils down to the chin scemed to being paid to-day for the best, of letters and documents which he meant have deepened as if the keenly sharp- Butcher cattle were offered freely. to take with him from his cell. He was ened plough of adversity had suddenly Ordinary choice sold from $4.75 to $5, even at the eleventh hour hopeful of ac- furrowed them. A few moments before medium from $4.30 to $4.60; choice quittal. He thought that the appeal of he had sat with his pitiful little treasures cows sold up to $4.25, with ordinary with manslaughter in connection with Mr. Delmas, who pictured him as a Sir in his lap all neatly parcelled and ready quality ranging from $3 to $3,50.

Milch cows are sleady, and prices Although five witnesses swore positively of confinement and then the strain of quickly. Clerk Penny asked it the jury firmer at $7.50 to $8; spring lambs are come was the acquittal of Masson. had reached a verdict. Mr. Smith said steady at $4 to $7.50.

After some words of encouragement simply that it had not. He then plumped | The market for hogs continues easy. | Eleven thousand immigrants are sitting at a table covered with hand-woodland haunt. The patient Pauline, from his lawyers Thaw braced himself into his chair and Thaw sank Selects are quoted at $6.65 fed and pecied to land at the port of St. Is the Supply.

A despatch from Winnipeg says: Thursday witnessed another big inrush of settlers to the West. Seven hundred came on the trains from Montreai. The newcomers are all destined for paints west of Winnipeg, many of them purposing to go to British Columbia, where they will take up duties in the coast province; 375 Europeans who were also passengers on the Virginian, and 150 British who crossed the Atlantic on the Kensington. A large number are bent on going to Alberta, where many have already secured employment. Applications for help still continue to be pouring in by hundreds to the immigration officials, who are taxed to their utmost in providing suitable situations for the new comers. With the near approach to 9%c: kettle lard, 13c to 13%c; pure of spring great anxiety is being felt by the farmers, and the wages being offered show a substantial increase over the figures of a few weeks ago. Even as it is the number of available men is not Buffalo, April 16. - Flour - Steady. nearly so great as the quota of applica-

----TRIED TO KILL HER CHILDREN. Woman Gets Two Years for Attacking

Them With Hatchet. A despatch from Woodstock, Ont., says: At the Assize Court on Thursday employed as a laundress about the city, received her trial on the charge of assaulting, with intent to kill, her two children, Hattie, aged 25, and her son, under 20. The evidence went to show that the woman arose in the night, while the two children were sleeping, and attacked them with a hatchet. No defence was offered and the woman was sentenced to two years in Kingston Peni-

C. E. MASSON ACQUITTED.

at Hockey Match. A despatch from Cornwall says:

Charles E. Masson, who was charged the death of the late Owen McCourt on-Trade in stockers and feeders contin- March 6, at a hockey match, was found Year up to $3.85, common stuff is not wanted. Assizes, held by Mr. Justice Magee, tion. that McCourt was struck and felled by Veal calves are slow and prices easy Masson, there were as many more witnesses who claimed that a few minutes Sheep are 50c higher at $5,50 to $6 for previously McCourt received a victous

N. B. within the next month.