WEDDING BELLS.

LUSH—MITCHELL.

Grace Church was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday afternoon, April 25th, when Miss Belle Mitchell, sister of Mrs. F. J. Mitchell and Frank Lush, of Deloraine, were united in marriage. Dr. Sparling, the pastor officiated. The church was prettily decorated with palms and ferns. At 2:30 the groom, with his best man, Gordon Thornton, took their places at the altar, and shortly after the bride, leaning on the arm of her brother-in-law, entered the church, preceded by the ushers, Fred Urie and Walter Mills, and the bridesmaid, Miss Mabel Mitchell, and the little flower girl, Lilla Young, niece of the bride. The bride was becomingly dressed in a gown of cream silk with white tulle, with white mulline and tulle hat, trimmed with white ostrich plumes, and carrying a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid wore a costume of champagne silk with white tulle, with bouquets of blue and carried pink roses and carnations. The little flower girl looked very dainty in a white silk dress and white poke bonnet, carrying a basket of white and pink carnations.

At the close of the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of J. F. Mitchell, St. John's, where the happy couple received the congratulations of their friends. Refreshments were served from a table decorated with carnations and roses and the wedding cake for the centre piece. Miss Billington played appropriate music during the reception. The newly-wedded couple left on the evening train, amidst showers of rice and good wishes, for a short trip in the west, after which they will take up their residence in Deloraine. The bride's going-away costume was a handsome tailor-made suit of grey broadcloth, the Eton coat, with embroidered vest, opening over a dainty white silk waist, a pretty hat of grey mohair braid trimmed with soft blue ribbon and pink roses completed a charming costume. The bride was the recipient of numerous beautiful and costly gifts; also several checks from friends out of town—Winnipeg, Free Press.

Our citizens miss the band.—At this season a report of the instruments and a statement re prospects of reorganizing it would be very acceptable.

Many of our citizens will go to Millbrook on the 24th and enjoy the big day's sports being put on there.

Mrs. M. Marr, one of our oldest and most highly respected citizens, was buried here last Saturday. Mr. Wm. Marr and Mrs. (Rev.) J. Ivison Wilson her son and daughter, Mr. Burns and many other relatives and friends attended the funeral from the Methodist Church here, of which deceased was an earnest and useful member. The heartfelt sympathy of the community is extended to those made sad by reason of their bereavement.
