

J. Toronto, Ottawa, Quebec

MEN WANTED-FOR FIREand brakemen; experience unover 500 positions open at the ne; high wages; rapid promocupation; we assist each stucuring a position; don't delay; ay for free calalogue, instrucapplication blank. National aining School, Inc., 1432 K ... ock, Minneapolis, Minn., U.S.A.

OUNTRY. ty of Russell Motor Cars.

ND IN AMERICA me a by-word. And this is our own door.

ADIAN HONOR. le excellence. Sliding Gear Trans-Set of Brakes on Rear

2.500

Co., Limited,

० क क क

ACCOUNTS OF RUSTEES ARE PECIALLY INVITED

TO CHEQUE ON BALANCES

DA nches

unique and secura produces red blood. of life and success. bills, keep you out of le and improve you leather; is your ay nor grain, needs in emergencies, and

PERFECT, RAM-

LIMITED.

Aust.

of your choice. CLES. Canada,

MILLBROOK AND OMEMEE MIRROR

Durham and Victoria Standard

VOL. 19. NO. 2. $1 per annum.

MILLBROOK ONT., THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 1907.

C. W. RICHARDS, Publisher and Proprietor

Roric and Vixen;

00000000

OR, A HAPPY MARRIAGE.

have conciliated the bitterest foe, could came upon the dull daily life of the Abshine on a gloomy plain. The long Miller of Dee. winter evenings, when there was no Vixen. Out of respect to her mother she had kept her place in the drawingnewspapers or the quarterlies, or paced the room thoughtfully at intervals. He lalked to his wife just enough to escape the charge of neglect, but rarely spoke to or noticed Violet. Sometimes Mrs. Carmichael asked for a little music, whereupon Violet went to the piano and played her scanty recollections of Mozart or Beethoven-all "tuny" bits, remembered out of the sonatas or concertas Miss M'Croke had taught her; or if asked to sing, the girl sang a ballad or two, to order, in her full round mezzosoprano, which had a thrilling expression at times, when feeling got the better of her proud reserve, and the pentup sorrow of her heart broke loose into ber song. But Captain Carmichael took no notice of these efforts, and even her lips as she closed the piano. But here was Lord Mallow, passionately fond of music and singing and crossed the coach road, and made their the beauties of nature, and all things that appeal to the sensitive Hibernian fered itself. character. It seemed a new thing to Violet to have some one standing by the ing rapturously, and entreating for an- do is to follow." other and yet another Irish melody. When she sang "The Minstrel Boy," her hunting-crop, and cantered gayly joined in with a rich baritone that har- down the gently sloping track to a monized finely with her full ripe notes. The old room vibrated with the strong melody, and even Captain Carmichael mother's praises were not enthusiastic.

"How well your voices harmonize!" jously, to Lord Mallow, he said. "You ought to try some duets. If there was danger near, Vixen man-I remember that fine baritone of yours aged to avoid it; she made a sweeping in days of old. Mallow."

was impelled to prise.

Tempest if she had any duets, and Vix- track, between silvery trunks of veteran en produced her small stock of vocal beeches, self-sown in the dark ages, music. They tried one or two of Men- with here and there a gnarled old oak. delsshon's-"I would that my Love," ragged and lichen-mantled, with feaand "Greeting"-and discovered that thery tufts of fern nestling in the holthey got on wonderfully well together. low places between his gaunt limits. Vixen fell asleep that night wondering | That was a ride! Lord Mallow could at her own amiability. mental duets with him!" she said to her- fer a lifetime. The ghostly trees: the self. "The man who has Bullfinch." | silver-shining bark of the beeches, vary-currents of London society. Captain and a little duet by Masini, "O. que la mer car lots of Manitoba No. 2 white oats House had a marked effect upon Cap- of green and purple and warmest umlain Carmichael's treatment of his step. ber; the rugged gray of the grand old daughter. Hitherto there had been a loaks; the lichens and mosses, and mysveiled bitterness in all his speeches, a terious wintry growths of toadstool and constrained civility in his manners. Now weed and berry; that awful air of unhe was all kindness, all expansion, earthliness which pervaded the thicker Even his wife, who admired him always, pertions of the wood, as of some mystic and thought him the soul of wisdom in under world-half shadow and half all he did, could not be blind to the dream. No, Lord Mallow could never change, and a new sense of peacefulness Torget it, nor yet the way that flying stole into her feeble mind. It was so figure in Lincoln green led them by bog pleasant to see dear Conrad so sweetly and swamp; over clay and gravel

Mallow this morning, Violet?" asked the tical lesson in geology; across snaky captain, at breakfast, 'We must try to ditches and pebbly fords; through furze

it.' Vixen answered, coldly. "You'll the temper of a well-bred horse; and finfind plenty of amusement, I dare say, ally, before giving them breathing-time, in the billiard-room, in the stables, or she led them up the clayer side of a hitl in showing Lord Mallow your improve- as sleep as a house, on the top of which

"That would do very well for a wet to admire the view. morning, but it would be a profligate "This is Acres Down, and there are dinner-time, had placed Mr. Vawdrey waste of fine weather. -No: I propose the Needles," she said, pointing her that you should show Mallow some of whip at the dim blue horizon. "If it the prettiest bits in the Forest. I am were a clear day, and your sight were not half so accomplished a guide as long enough, I dare say you would see you, but we'll all go. I'll order the Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, and Sark, herses at once if you like my plan. But I think to-day you must be content Mallow," said Captain Carmichael, turn- with the Needles. Can you see them?" from Captain Carmichael's intention ing to his friend, and taking Violet's she asked Lord Mallow, Tempest will honor us with her com- them if I wanted.

Vawdrey. Yet to refuse would have been existence." impossible without absolute discourtesy | "They might as well go and live there ther's guest. So she sat in her place gested Lord Mallow.

to be at the door in half an hour, and hold distant objects has always seemed let glanced in that direction, and was then he took Lord Mailow off to look to me to be one of the feeblest tendenat the stables while Violet went upstairs cies of the human mind. Now you have mored gaze meeting hers, just as if he to put on her habit. Why was the cap- seen the Needles, we have accomplished had been watching her for the last half lated. Was his little soul so mean that woods." he put on better manners to do honor Vixen shook her rein, and trotted very good natured.'

in habit and hat of Lincoln-green, with Mosstrooper following meekly.

There were the three horses, held by and down, under spreading branches, bern and bred in diplomatic circles, the Toronto Exhibition buildings last Hogs unchanged at $7.10, but with extended as far west as Guam. Bates and Lord Mallow's groom. Bull- where the cattle line but just cleared could keep the secret of a solitary fail- fall and in a couple of cases of house- prospects favoring a decline of about finch, looking as if he had just taken the heads of the riders; across the black- ing from the eyes of those who live un- breaking here.

a prize at Islington and was inclined to be bumptious about it; Arion, tossing It was impossible to go on hating his delicately modeled Greek head, and Lord Mallow forever. He was a man looking for bogies in the adjacent shrubwhose overflowing good nature would beries; Captain Carmichael's well-seasoned hunter Mosstrooper nodding his that enemy have been exposed long long bony head, and swaying his fineenough to its softening influence. He drawn neck up and down in a half savage, half-scornful manner, as if he were bey House like a burst of sudden sun- at war with society in general, like the > so, he fancied. He ran forward to the oak plantation of New Park; thence est old Bates was too quick for him, and smart trot along the road toward home. she was looking at Lord Mallow gracieusly from her perch on the well-worn doeskin saddle before he had time to cfier his services.

She leaned over to pat Bullfinch's massive chest. "Dear old horse," she murmured, tenderly, remembering those winter mornings of old when he had stood before the porch as he stood to-day, wailing for the noble rider who was never more our beloved dead," thought Violet, Her changeful face saddened at the thought, and she rode along the shrub- smiling to himself grimly, and hum-"Very sweet, very nice," was the most Vixen ever heard from those maternal beried drive in silence.

"Where are you going to take us?" asked the captain, when they had emerged from the Abbey House grounds, plunge into the first cart track that oflike a quaky bog.

curve, skirted the treacherous-looking Hereupon Lord Mallow asked Miss lawn, and disappeared in another cartremember nothing like it, and he was "To think that I should sing senti- destined to carry this in his memory "What are we going to do with Lord she had been trying to give them a pracbushes and thickels of holly; through "I don't think I have much to do with everything likely to prove aggravating to

she drew rein, and commanded them

"See them?" exclaimed the Irishman pany," replied the Irishman, with a "Now you've seen the Isle of Wight," ance of youth and high spirits, interpleasant look at Vixen's fresh morning said Vixen. "That's a point accomplishment. The ardent desire of every were doubtless to the disparagement of It was the first time her step-father one in the Forest is to see the Isle of had ever asked her to ride with him, Wight. They are continually mounting If dark electric glances shot from the and she hated doing it. It was the first hills and gazing into space in order to covert of bent brows could have slain time she had ever been asked to ride get a glimpse at the chalky little island. Ithose two happy triflers, assuredly nei-and said nothing, and Lord Mallow mis- Yes; and then they would be strain- plate. took the angry carnation for the warm ing their eyes in the endeavor to see the red of happy girlhood, which blushes it Great Horse-that's a group of firs on Captain Carmichael ordered the horses sca-marks. That frantic desire to betain so unusually amiable? she specu- a solemn duty, and I may show you our hour.

recklessly down a slippery path, jumped She came tripping down the wide old a broad black puddle, and plunged into be able to give me a more definite anstaircase at the end of one half hour, the recess of the wood, Bullfinch and swer by this time. You have lived in a cock's feather in the neat little hat, They went a wonderful round, wading is it three or four days since he came?" and a formidable hooked hunting-crop in and out of Bratley Wood, piercing "He has been here nearly a week." for opening gates, little feet shod in deep into the wintry glories of Mark "A week! Why, then you must know patent-leather, but no spur. She loved Ash; through mud, and moss, and soft him as well as if he were your brother. her horse too well to run a needle into pitfalls, where the horses sunk up to There is no man living who could keep named Silbriski was arrested here on Sheep and lambs were slightly firmer bogs by a margin of a yard or so; up believe the most inscrutable of men, concerned in the fire which destroyed unchanged.

silvery trunks stood up like obelisks out days. It would leak out somehow—if thigher ground, where the wintry air merest beginner in the study of human a soft green lawn, studded with grace, hour." ful conifers-cypress, deodora, Douglass What do you know about him?" askcivilization. Anon by the gray-lichened; walls of a deserted garden, which had strangely romantic look, and was as suggestive of a dreamy idyllic world > as a poem by Tennyson; and so down into the green and gray depths of Mark scare the herons, and had the satisfac. He has been very kind to Bullfinch, and tion of scaring his own and the other has promised me that he will never part two horses, while the herons laughed with him. The dear old horse is to have at 611/2 to 621/2c, Toronto. him to scorn from their cradles in the a comfortable stable and kindly treattree-tops, and would not stir a feather ment to his dying day-not to be sent bulk; shorts are quoted at $22 to $23 pied as a dry goods store by G. Mar. very critical; Gusave Robitaille, fracturfor his gratification. Then by a long out to grass in his old age, to shiver outside, Vixen, who had looked the picture of plantation to a wild stretch of common, vexation at the breakfast-table, was now where Vixen told her companions that the divine huntress, must have looked and came to Queen's Bower; thence into endowed with animation?"

> > "I hope I haven't kept you out too long," said Vixen, politely. "We've only been five hours," answered the captain, with grim civility; "but if Mallow is not tired. I shall not com-

"I never enjoyed anything so much in my life-never," protested Lord Mallow, "Well, to-morrow we can shoot the pheasants. It will be a rest after this." "It will be dull work after the enchant-"Yet life goes on somehow without ments of to-day," said the Irishman. Captain Carmichael rode homeward a few paces in the rear of the other two. ming a little song of Heine's.

CHAPTER XXVII.

off smoothly and pleasantly, as all such him to outlive Bullfinch."

squire had sat prosing over their port favorite duets together, to the delight f tensely local, confined for the most part blast!" to petty sessions, commoner's rights, "His 'plaidie,' indeed!" he ejaculated heavy, 14%c; rolls, 11%; shoulders, Thursday, June 27, East Parry Sound, distinctly for the last twenty years-to for a dhrop o' the cratur." the latest social scandal in the upper! Later, Violet and Lord Mallow sang | Montreal, June 4.-Grain-Sales of delightful to quiet country-people, who piano to compliment Violet, ing so easily about the last famous pic. never sung to us before?" ture, the latest action for libel in artisof Sardou's last comedy at a West End singer." Theatre-just as glibly as if they knew all about art, and had read every play est voices I ever had the happiness of to 12c; barrels plate beef. $13 to $14 Roderick Vawdrey enjoyed himself wonderfully at this particular dinner-Captain Carmichael, by an oversight party so long as the dinner lasted, for which made him inwardly savage all and Miss Tempest side by side. There had been some confusion in his mind as he finished his plan of the table, his atchanging little confidential remarks that some person or persons in the assembly.

with any one but her father or Roderick It seems the main object of everybody's ther of them would have lived to the end "How do you like him?" asked Rorie. to her mother's husband and her mo- at once, if they're so fond of it," sug- stooping to sniff at the big Marshal Neil bud in the specimen glass by his

"The man who has Bullfinch." Lord Mallow was in the place of honor next his hostess. Involuntarily Viostartled to find the Irishman's good-hu-

"How do I like him? Well he seems "Seems good-natured! You ought to the same house with him-let me see.

of a thicket of dwarf bushes; through not at breakfast, at dinner. Han is a groves, where the tall beech trunks had communicative animal, and so loves a solemn look like the columns of some talking of himself that, if he has comgigantic temple; then into wondrous mitted murder, he must tell somebody plantations of Scotch firs; where the about it sooner or later. And as to that air was balmy as in summer, and ro man," continued Borie, with a contemobreath of the December wind penetrat, tuous glance at the single-minded Lord ed the dense wall of foliage. Then to Mallow, "he is a creature whom the Prices of Cattle, Grain, Cheese and blew keen again, and where there was i'y would know by heart in half an fir-tall with a growth of thirty years; ed Vixen, laughing. "You have had the elegant importations of an advanced more than half an hour for the study

> "Answered like a Greek oracle." "What, have you taken to reading

> "No; but I know the oracles were a the sun and tormented by the flies." all gayety. Her hazel eyes sparkled they were safe for a good mile, and set "Hs has promised all that, has he? He room, reading or working at some unitative processing strip of point-lace, which she interesting strip of point down the shining oak staircase, glori- They pulled up just in time to escape rose-bud. "Do you think him handsome? See bid on C.P.R. east. No. 2 goose One man had both legs broken and an- covered was terrible. The hall is on had been promised to Mr. Scobel for ber the parfection as mall gulf of moss and general spongi- Do women admire a fresh complexion her the perfection of a woman-nay, ness, waded a stream or two, splashed and black whiskers, and that unmistakmore than a woman, a goddess. Diana, through a great deal of spewy ground, able air of a hair-dresser's wax model

"I see you consider him an idiot," said | 60c outside, without bids. mount her on the fidgety Arion; but hon- across Gretman Wood; and then at a Vixen, laughing. "But I assure you be is rather clever. He talks wonderfully about Ireland and the reforms he is going to bring about for her." "Of course. Burke, and Curran, and Castlereagh, and O'Connell, and fifty 40c bid outside. No. 2 Manitoba offered more have failed to steer that lumbering at 47c track Owen Sound, without bids. old vessel off the mud-bank on which she stranded at some time in the Dark Ages. In fact, nobody except Oliver Cromwell ever did understand how to make Ireland prosperous and respectable, and he began by depopulating her; and primes at $1.35 to $1.40. and here is a fresh-colored young man, pilot, and to navigate her into a peacefu! haven. He is the sort of man who to $14 here, and No. 2 at $10 to $11. will begin by being the idol of a happy tenantry, and end by being shot from here.

behind one of his own hedges." Mrs. Carmichael's little dinner went sure he means well. And I should like to $1.30 per bag .

entertainments had done under the new | Rederick had been very happy all din- 15c; chickens, dressed, 14 to 15c; do, Durham; Thursday, June 13, Centre only $2,500 was subscribed and paid up. "Everywhere," answered Vixen, with regime. The captain knew how to se- ner-time. From the soups to the ice- alive, 10 to 12c per 15; fowl, 8 to 9c. | Simcoe, and North York; Friday, June | Printers' supplies, ready prints, a mischevious laugh. "You have chosen lect his guests as well as he knew how puddings the moments had flown for piano, turning over the leaves, applaudme for your guide, and all you have to to compose a menu. People felt pleashim. It seemed the briefest dinner he ed with themselves and with their neight, had ever been at, and yet when the And she gave Arion a light touch with bors at his table. There was nothing ladies rose to depart the silvery chime to 21c; tubs, nominal at 18 to 19c; large tario, West Durham. West Northumber- Swayze, J. A. Keyes and H. F. Schaedel, heavy in the dinner or in the conversa- of the clock struck the half hour after rells are quoted at 18c. Creamery prints land, and East Simcoe; Tuesday, June tion; there were no long sittings over nine. But Lord Mallow's hour came sell at 22 to 23c, and solids at 20 to 21c. 18, North and South Brant, Welland, green lawn which looked, to Captain cla port or parlicular claret. The later in the drawing-room, where he Eggs-Case lots sell at 171/2 to 18c per North Wentworth; Wednesday, June wines were of the first quality, but there contrived to hover over Violet, and fence dozen. was no fuss made about them. Colonel ber round from all other admirers for | Cheese-Large are quoted at 13c per York; Thursday, June 20, West Wel-"Steer toward your left," he cried, anx- Cartaret remembered how he and the rest of the evening. They sang their to and twins at 131/2c. or Chateau Margaux, and felt as if he every one except Rorie, who felt curiwere living in a new world-a world ously savage at "I would that my Love," where full-blooded friendship and bois- and icily disapproving at "Greeting;" terous hospitality were out of fashion. but vindictive to the verge of homicidal 11%c per th, in case lots; mess pork, June 25, South and Centre Bruce, North People whose talk had hitherto been in- mania at "Oh, wert thou in the cauld $21 to $21.50; short cut, $23.50.

hunting and the parish church and inwardly. "The creature never possess- 116; backs, 16%c; b. kfast bacon, and South Perth, Friday, June 28, South schools found themselves discussing the cd anything so comfortable or civilized. 15%c. widest range of topics, from the prospect How preposterous it is to hear an Irish- Lard-Tierces, 121/c; tubs, 121/c; of a European war—that European war man sing Scotch songs! If an Irish- pails, 12%c. which has been impending more or less man had a plaidie, he would pawn it

Lord Mallow's presence at the Abbey ing with a hundred indescribable shades | Mrs. Carmichael's country friends, in- est belle!" the daintiest, most bewitch- were made at 49% to 50c, Ontario No. 2 spired by one or two clever young men ing music-such a melody as the Lor- at 48% to 49c, No. 3 at 47% to 48c, and just imported from the London clubs, ley might have sung when the Rhine No. 4 at 46% to 47c per bushel, ex store, were surprised to discover how well they flowed peacefully onward below moun- Flour-Choice spring wheat patents, were able to criticise the latest productain peaks shining in the evening light, $5.10 to $5.20; seconds, $4.50 to $4.60; tions in literature, art, and the drama, luring foolish fishermen to their doom, winter wheat patents, $4.25 to $4.40. the newest result of scientific investiga. Everybody was delighted. It was just straight rollers, $3.75 to $3.85; do, in tion, or the last record of African er the kind of music to please the unlearned bags, $1.75 to $1.85; extras, $1.55 to Central Asian exploration. It was quite in the art. Mrs. Carteret came to the $1.65. Feed-Manitoba bran in bags, went to London on an average once "I had no idea you could sing so mouillie, $22 to $25 per ton, and straight in three years, to find themselves talk, sweetly," she said. "Why have you grain, $28 to $30. Provisions-Barrels

"Nobody ever asked me," Vixen an- rels, $11.25 to $11.75; clear fat backs, tr circles, or the promised adaptation swered, frankly. "But indeed I am no $23.50 to $24; long cut heavy mess, > hearing!" Lord Mallow exclaimed, en- half-barrels do, $7 to $7.50; barrels ing duets for an indefinite period. He lard, 121/4 to 123/4c; kettle rendered, 13 Stevens, charging him with manslaugh. The body was brought to Winnipeg. felt lifted into some strange and delight- to 13%c; hams, 14 to 15%c; breakfast ful region—a sphere of love and har- bacon, 14% to 15c; Windsor bacon, 15 mony—while he was mingling his voice to 16c; fresh killed abattoir dressed with Violet's. It made the popular idea hogs, $10 to $10.25; alive, $7.25 to of heaven, as a place where there is no- $7.50. Eggs-18 to 19c. Cheese-Wes- Kingston Woman Loses Hundreds of Russian Millman in Fatal Collisionthing but singing—an eternal, untiring tern, 12% to 13c. Butter—Choicest choir-clearer and more possible to him creamery, 201/2 to 21c. tention having been called away at the than it had ever seemed before. Paradise would be quite endurable if he and have happened; for nothing was further Violet might stand side by side in the Detroit, June 4.-Wheat-No. 1 white, by Mrs. Anna McKay, at Kingston Mackenzie, Mann & Company's sawmill, serried ranks of choristers. There was cash, 97%c; No. 2 red, cash, 99%c; Junction, was destroyed by fire. In her was instantly killed on Tuesday evenshould be happy in each other's socie quite a little crowd round the piano, May, 99%c; July, $1,00%; September, excitement Mrs. McKay forgot that she ing while in a caboose which was being shutting in Violet and Lord Mallow, and | $1.02%. "I shall be quite too delighted if Miss "I can see well enough to thread one of ey. And here they sat, smiling and Boderick Vawdrey was not in it. He Toledo, June 4.—Wheat—Cash, 98c; den in her bedroom. She attempted in liam Burns, manager of the mill, was felt himself excluded, and held himself May, 98c; July, 98%c; September, vain to secure entrance to the burning badly injured. The accident was caused gloomily apart, talking hunting talk with $1.00%. Corn-Cash, 56c; May, 56c; house, a man for whom he did not care two- July, 55%c; September, 55%c. Oatspence. Directly his carriage was an- Cash, 471/2c; May, 471/2c; July, 481/2c; nounced-solto voice by the considerate September, 39c. Forbes, so as not to wound anybody's Minneapolis, June 4.-Wheal-No. 1 noble breadth of Mrs. Cartaret's amber bulk, $17.25 to $17.50. brocaded back obscured every remoter object, and then went away moodily. denouncing duet singing as an abom-

what kind of an evening he had at the bringing up to $5.50. There was no Abbey House, in a tone which implied choice cattle to be had at less than $5, that any entertainment there must be and even common stuff was selling on a distinctly lower level as compared around $4.50. Choice butcher cows Two hundred and seventy persons are Carolines. On March 31 it was found with the hospitalities of Ashbourne, he sold from $4.50 for the bulk up to $4.75 known to have been killed, and the loss told her that, it had been uncommonly for the best.

(To be Continued.) ___-1-___ ARRESTED AT GUELPH.

Toronto Exhibition Fire.

A despatch from Guelph says: A man; per

REPORTS FROM THE LEADING TRALE CENTRES.

Other Dairy Produce at Home and Abroad.

Toronto, June 4. - Flour - Ontario wheat 90 per cent, patents are quoted at $3.20 to $3.25 in buyers' sacks outside for export. Manitoba first patents, $4.75 t.: $5; second patents, $4.20 to $4.40, and strong bakers', $4.05 to $4.25. Barley-No. 2 nominal at 55 to 56c outside and No. 3 at 54c outside. same ground; and then up the hill to provoking set of creatures who answer- at 99c, lake ports; No. 1 northern at Vinny Ridge and the Heronry, where ed every inquiry with an enigma. But 97c, and No. 2 northern at 95c. Ontario Captain Carmichael cracked his whip to Habas bear that the Blanchet is firm, with No. 2 quoted at 87 is on the top floor of a building a few with a broken leg. Ulric Blanchet is offered at 83c outside, with 81c bid on other his spine injured. The firemen the third story in the front of the build-side September shipment, and No. 3 at was quickly extinguished. Many in- had to jump from the rear, where, bewithout bids. Oats-No. 2 white offered at 46c out- hurt.

Bran-Prices nominal at $21 outside

CALL BOARD.

side with 44c bid, and at 45c Pere Marquette road, without bids. No. 2 mixed,

COUNTRY PRODUCE. Apples-Good to choice winter stock,

$2.50 to $3.50 per bbl. Beans-Hand-picked quoted at $1.50, with whiskers, a la cotelette de mou- per th. and comb honey at $2 to $2.50 will visit the Ontario Agricultural Col- was made in Chambers at Osgoode Hall

"I hope not," said Vixen, "for I am bag on track, and New Brunswick, $1.25 Lincoln; Monday, June 10, Centre Wel- not more than $3,000. The company was

THE DAIRY MARKETS.

HOG PRODUCTS.

at $8.50 to $9. Bacon, long clear, 41 to West Bruce, and North Grey; Tuesday, Hams-Light to medium, 151/2c; do, day, June 26, Peel, and Centre Grey; short cut mess, $22 to $22.50; half-bar-$20.50 to $22; half-barrels do, $10.75 to "You have one of the freshest, bright- $11.50; dry salt long clear bacon, 111/2 heavy mess beef, $10; half-barrels do.

BUSINESS AT MONTREAL.

UNITED STATES MARKETS.

feelings by the suggestion that the fes- hard, $1.02%; No. 1 northern., $1.01%; tivity was on its last legs-Mr. Vawdrey No. 2 northern. 99 to 99%c; No. 3 went up to Mrs. Carmichael and took northern, 96 to 98c. Flour-First patents, leave. He would not wait to say good- $5.15 to $5.25; second patents, $5 to night to Violet. He only cast one glance $5.15; first clears, $3.65 to $3.75; secin the direction of the piano, where the ond clears, $2.75 to $2.85. Bran-In

CATTLE MARKET.

Toronto, June 4.-The bulk of the choice heavy butchers' sold between When Lady Mabel asked him next day $5.10 and $5.35, with extra choice stocks

Stocker and feeder trade was very

WORLD'S MARKETS FATAL

Panic Stricken Dancers Jump From Hall on Notre Dame Street

A despatch from Montreal says: A, 29, succumbed to the injuries sustained sensational fire took place early on Fri- by jumping from the dance hall window day morning during the progress of a dance in a hall in the east end, when a number of people were compelled to jump from a third slory window, and doors east of the City Hall, on Notre Dame street, and the fire started in tre basement, the ground floor being occu-

DANCERS PANIC-STRICKEN.

rescued many by means of ladders, ing, but escape that way was cut off Barley-No. 3 extra offered at 58c out- The fire did not amount to much and by flames and smoke, and the victims jured were taken to their homes for cause of the slope of the ground, the Peas-No. 2 offered at 82c outside, treatment, on account of which it is dif- windows were forty feet from the surficult to ascertain the exact number face.

TO VISIT ONTARIO COLLEGE, Dates on Which Farmers' Institutes Will Motion Was Made for that Purpose at Go to Guelph.

Honey-Strained quoted at 11 to 12c ious Farmers' Institutes of the province dicate, Limited, of Montreal, a motion Hay-No. 1 timothy is quoted at $12.50 societies are known by the names of the Canadian Printers, Limited, of St. Cath-

Potatoes-Ontario, $1.10 to $1.15 per | Wellington (Mount Forest only), and $10,000, while the assets are said to be Poultry-Turkeys, fresh killed, 14 to East and West Peterborough, and East nominal capital of $400,000. Of this Butter-Pound rolls are quoted at 20 Halton; Monday, June 17, South On- shares, are W. D. Woodruff, W. H. 19, Haldimand, South Oxford, West lington, East Middlesex, Dufferin, and East Wellington: Friday, June 21, East York, South Huron: Monday, June 24, Dressed hogs in car lols are nominal North Oxford, North Ontario, North and Middlesex, and North Perth; Wednes-Simcoe, and West Simcoe.

TROLLEY WRECK KILLED SEVEN.

were injured, three of whom died, in a South-western Traction road here on T. Williams Threw Himself in Front of bulances and doctors were summoned cide on Thursday by jumping in front and the wounded taken to the Elyria of the west-bound C. P. R. express Hospital, where three of the injured near Rennie, Man. The locomotive subsequently died. Eight of the re- struck him and hurled the mangled maining thirteen had both legs cut off, body one hundred feet into the brushone lost one leg, and still another had wood along the track. He had tried to both legs broken. Motorman Fraundu, court death in the same manner on the who was in charge of the car which previous day by standing in front of caused the wreck, was arrested on a an approaching freight, but the enginwarrant sworn out by Prosecutor eer saw him and stopped the train.

MONEY GONE UP IN SMOKE.

Dollars in Flames. A despatch from Kingston says: A despatch from Melfort, Sask., says: Thursday morning the house occupied A Russian named Bunder, employed at had several hundred dollars in bills hid- shunted about the yards, and Mr. Wil-

CELEBRATING MARRIAGE. Arthur Duperault and a number ca friends were celebrating the approaching marriage of Joseph Charbonneau president of the Barbers' Union, at La casse Hall. Charbonneau himself jumpjured, some of them fatally. The hall ed to the street and is in the hospital in a serious state with a fractured skulf

Injured:-Leon Girard, broken back, ed thigh; James Rayette, fractured knee; Heclor Thouin, severe internal Wheat-No. 2 Ontario red winter The crowd of dancers upstairs became Twelve other victims are at various

The hall is situated at Notre Dame Arthur Duperault, a butcher, aged and Gosford streets.

A despatch from Toronto says: The A despatch from Toronto says: On dates on which excursions from the var- behalf of the Canadian Newspaper Synlege at Guelph are as follows. The on Friday for an order winding up arines. The petitioners are creditors to Straw-$7 to $7.50 a ton on track Friday, June 7, West Middlesex; Sat- the extent of $278.75. The liabilities of urday, June 8. South Grey and East the company are placed at $9,000 or ligton; Wednesday, June 12, East Elgin, incorporated in December, 1905, with a 14. East and West Lambton, North and ments, etc., were the goods dealt in. South Waterloo; Saturday, June 15, The directors, each of whom held five > OLD LADY DROWNED IN WELL. Mother of Town Treasurer of St. Mary's Meets Tragic Fate.

TO WIND UP PRINTERS

A despatch from Stratford says: Word was received here on Friday afternoon that Mrs. Long, of St. Mary's, mother of Mr. E. Long, town treasurer, had met with a tragic death by drowning in a well. Friday morning she mysteriously disappeared from her home, and upon a search being instituted by Chief Young she was found dead in the cistern at the rear of the house. The old lady's shawl and spectacles were found near by. It is supposed that she was dipping or reaching for water and fell in. The water in the cistern was about five feet deep. Fatal Rear-end Collision on a Line in Mrs. Long was about 75 or 80 years old, and was well known and highly respected by the citizens of St. Mary's.

an Express Train.

A despatch from Winnipeg says: T.

KILLED IN CABOOSE.

Manager Hurt.

Three Hundred Persons Are Known to Be Killed.

A despatch from Victoria, B. C., says, morth-east of Yap, in the Western of life, it is said, will include many more of the Carolines and the Philippines.

cued. The property loss is high. The typhoon passed over the group | On Wilson Island 29 persons were to be north of Yap, indicating a dangerous situation in the southern part quiet. Cattle of 700 to 900 hs. sold fair- in the disastrous typhoon in the Caro- The Island of Ulie was entirely dely well, but lighter stuff was not want- line Islands recently reported by cable stroyed, and the waves, which passed from Sydney, Australia. Further ad- over it, killed 200 people. Heavy loss Milch cows were firm, choice being vices have been received here in the of life was reported from other islands, Silbriski Suspected of Complicity in quoted from $35 to $60, common $25 to mails from the Orient showing that in Some were entirely covered, and nasome instances persons clung to the lives were rescued days afterward, Veal calves were steady at 31/2c to to tops of trees for days before being res- clinging to the tops of the cocoanut his sleek side at the slightest provoca- their hocks in withered leaves, avoiding himself dark for a week. No; I don't Thursday. He is thought to have been in tone, but quotations were generally on March 28, and hundreds of persons killed, and on Sirol or Phillips Island. were killed by the waves. The typhoon | which lies between Yap and Ulie, 50. persons perished. At the Manita observatory on March | The majority of the islands were de-30 the typhoon was registered as being solated.